TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

AND IT DOESN'T MATTER
Why are we here and where are we bound?
Nobody knows the answer;
Why are we wrapt in gloom profound?
Nobody knows the answer.
Why are we born and why do we die?
Why are we slated to struggle and sigh,
And whither away as the days go by?
Nobody knows the answer!

Why does the wrong so often prevail?
Nobody knows the answer;
Why do we see faces haggard and pale?
Nobody knows the answer.
Why are we harried and why are we torn
And hustled about from the day we are born,
To win niggard thanks but a great deal of scorn?
Nobody knows the answer!

Why are the wicked 'bout twenty to one?
Nobody knows the answer;
Why do we sigh for prohibited fun?
Nobody knows the answer.
Why is the truth so entangled with lies?
Why is it folly seems fair as it flies?
Why are we fools, be we ever so wise?
Nobody knows the answer!

Why does it rain when we want it to shine?
Nobody knows the answer;
Why are we poor when we'd like to be fine?
Nobody knows the answer.
Why do we father so many mistakes?
Why is a dream gone as soon as one wakes?
Why does a fellow spend all that he makes?
Nobody knows the answer!

Remember, also, that getting up early is less important than getting busy.

Besides his other mistakes, the liar usually overestimates human credulity.

When a baby is homely there is always somebody to say that it looks like its father.

A woman can carry a lot of stuff in a hand bag, including, occasionally, a little money.

Among other things in which woman is man's superior, might be mentioned her gift for blaming it on the men.

Governor Foss of Massachusetts declares the money rule is over. But does he think the golden rule will ever begin?

A bachelor in Philadelphia has been bequeathed a private hospital with six orphan infants in it. Just like the old thing to contest the will.

Wilbur Wright declares that light-headed persons should not be allowed to aeroplane, but in a spill a light head ought to be better than a heavy one.

PRICES DECLINING.

F. S. Dow yesterday announced a decline of five cents per pound on fresh butter, making two pound squares retail at seventy cents and cold storage butter retail at forty-five cents for a pound and a half square. Flour also dropped five cents per sack and is now retailing at $1.55. Mr. Dow says the egg supply is running heavy and he looks for a decline in them.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-By-the-Sea As Told By Recorder.

The Bandon Heights Land and Trust company elected officers at their meeting last week as follows: Chris Rasmussen, Pres.; R. H. Rosa, Vice-pres.; A. G. Thrift, Sec. and Treas. The directors of the company are: J. L. Kronenberg, R. H. Rosa, T. P. Hanly, Chris Rasmussen and A. G. Thrift.

The Phoenix, a finely equipped passenger and freight steam schooner arrived in port this morning at 6:30 and went up to the Prosper mill to load lumber. The Phoenix is about the size of the Elizabeth and has first class passenger accommodations for 22 passengers and will carry about 350,000 feet of lumber. The Phoenix belongs to the Kruse Co., and will be run here by them, it becoming apparent that the Elizabeth could not handle all the business of the company between this port and Frisco, so both boats will be on the run hereafter. This makes three first class passenger boats between here and San Francisco.

FIRE BUG AT BANDON.

The Bandon Recorder says: "Saturday night about 11 o'clock fire was discovered in the shed at the rear end of the Arcade saloon, and at about the same time a similar fire was discovered in the rear of the Opera saloon. Both fire were evidently of incendiary origin, as they were inside the buildings and in each case a barrel containing straw and other trash in which bottled beer had been packed, was where the fire was discovered. Fortunately in both instances the fire was discovered almost immediately and was extinguished at once without turning in the alarm. "There is no clue as yet to the fire fiends, but a careful watch is being kept, and should the culprit attempt another such work, he or they, will surely be apprehended."
