TO DEVELOP MINE.

New Capital Interested In Pulaski Company.

The Coquille Sentinel says: "A clipping from a Los Angeles paper of a recent date brings good news to Coquille and the Valley generally. It means that one of the largest coal deals ever made in Coos county coal lands has been completed and also that a new company will soon be operating on the river. It is understood that machinery for the mine, consisting of hoist, cars and other paraphernalia, was ordered in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles paper says: "A deal in Oregon coal lands, involving about $155,000, was closed in this city today and final organization perfected of a company with a capital stock of $1,000,000 to develop the property. H. B. Guthrey of this city and Geo. E. Pike and R. E. Doan of Coquille, Oregon, sold for about $80,000 to the Pulaski Coal and Navigation Company 329 acres of coal land at Coquille, Oregon, and at tide-water.

The company will begin immediately to arrange at a cost of about $75,000 for the development of the property on an extensive scale, and the shipment daily of not less than 500 tons of coal to Pacific coast points.

Mr. Guthrey has owned a controlling interest in the property for several weeks, and under his direction the sinking of a shaft, the construction of bunkers and the building of a wharf has been begun. Kansas City and Chicago people are interested in the Pulaski Company with Angelinos, the latter including Mr. Guthrey and J. R. Riggins. Officials will be chosen at a meeting being held this afternoon.

The coal is semi-bituminous, and the deposit is said to be an extensive one. Development work so far has disclosed five veins, 30 feet thick.

Playing Her Cards. Tommy—May I stay up a little longer? Ethel—What do you want to stay up for? Tommy—I want to see you and Mr. Green playing cards. Mr. Green—But we are not going to play cards. Tommy—Oh, yes, you are, for I heard mamma saying to the way in which she played her cards tonight.

Cautious. The young housekeeper was looking at some soft shell crabs squirming and wriggling in their bed of seaweed. "They're very nice," said the dealer. "Shall I send you a dozen?" "Yes," answered the innocent. "If you are sure they are fresh."—New York Journal.

WIFE TELLS SECRETS.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 25.—The superior court must decide whether a wife's alleged habit of disclosing her husband's business secrets to her friends is cause for a divorce. John D. Fields, an expert mining engineer, has filed suit for divorce because, he alleges, his wife told people outside the family circle about his business. This caused him to lose heavily on several occasions, he alleges. They were married three years ago. Fields was mining expert at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION.

At the regular meeting of the Bandon Commercial club held in Freeman's hall last night, the main topic for discussion was better fire protection for the business district of the city. The committee on investigation for fire protection reported that they had gone over the matter thoroughly, and presented two plans that were considered feasible. One was to connect with the water pipes of the Bandon Light and Water Co., stating that the company now had 56 pounds pressure in the business section. The other was to lay a pipe to the mill of the Geo. W. Moore Lumber Co. and secure the service of their pump in case of fire.—Bandon Recorder.
