SHOW WAS GOOD.

Mrs. Bernell and company scored a hit in "The Noble Outcast" at the Masonic last night. There was a fair audience but not nearly as many as the play deserved. By special request, the play will be repeated at the Masonic tonight after which the company will play the Coquille valley.

Mrs. A. G. Aiken will OPEN up her store at Coquille City with a complete line of Spring and Summer millinery on or about March 21st.

AMEND BANDON CHARTER.

The city council met in regular session at the city hall Wednesday night, all members being present. A petition, signed by a number of citizens, asking that the council order a new charter prepared to submit to the voters, or that steps be taken to amend the old charter in such way as to be more suitable to conditions and decide as to the legality of the present charter. The vote on the petition resulted in a tie; then Mayor Mast voted affirmatively and declared the petition carried.—Bandon Recorder.

launch around, the pouch sank and could not be recovered.

Dr. Dix Ditched.—Dr. Dix met with a slight accident last evening on the Kittyville road, his machine going in the ditch. The machine is reported to have been more or less damaged but the driver escaped unhurt.

Fire In House.—Yesterday afternoon, the interior of the Frank Gulliams home on Daniels Creek was gutted by an incipient blaze. Mrs. Gulliams after lighting a lantern threw the match down and a curtain caught fire and spread rapidly. The damage is small. They reside on the Chambers ranch.

Many Answers.—"Kill that want ad of mine because I am bothered with too many answers," said F. P. Norton today. Mr. Norton advertised for a cook for his road camp and had a dozen or more answers. Several have had similar experiences with want ads in The Times the past week.

Tenders Resignation.—Rev. J. Richard Olson yesterday tendered his resignation as pastor of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church to the church board who referred it to the general church meeting called for a week from Wednesday. He has been offered a fine charge at Portland. Unless the congregation can arrange to let him retire earlier, he is required to remain three months after tendering his resignation.
