HOW ABOUT THE FLOWER GARDEN?

SPRING is really here. You feel it in the air and see it in the swelling buds which indicate the coming season. The farmer reads the signs and we find him in the midst of seed time, doing his utmost to keep up with nature and secure a crop from a rapidly passing season.

VERY PECULIAR.

THE president says he endorses Ballinger and regrets to see him leave office. Yet he appoints a Pinchot man, not a Ballingerite, as his successor. It is already announced that most of the Ballinger men in the interior department will have to go.

BOWERMAN'S LOST OPPORTUNITY.

Senator Bowerman had an excellent opportunity to regain lost ground. In the Senate he had the opportunity of his life to make good, to become exceedingly popular with the people, but ignored the opportunity in the seemingly sincere desire to "get even," make a racket and incite political revolution.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Valley As Told By The Enterprise.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens of West Myrtle Point, on Monday, the 6th, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hillyer of Marshfield are guests at the home of Mrs. Hillyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Schull, Mr. Hillyer has lately been in the cigar business there, but has sold out.

The Myrtle Point Canning company has elected the following directors: L. A. Roberts, C. E. Hulling, T. D. Guerin, H. B. Steward and W. E. Pike. The officers are to be chosen from the board of directors, who are empowered to hire a manager.

W. H. Hartley, who lives in the east end of town, is quite agitated over the chicken stealing that was going on in that vicinity, though he says there has been none of it recently. He thinks that a good reward should be offered by the city and that the marshal should be instructed to catch the thieves.

At the regular meeting of the city council last Monday night the call for the annual election was issued for the 3d day of April and caucus was called for the 22nd day of March. Advertisements for bids for grading of Maple street were also authorized, and petitions were in to have the street graded on east toward the cemetery, reducing the steep grade east of Railroad avenue.

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable social events of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins last Saturday evening, when they entertained at a Japanese Fan Tan party in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Perkins. The rooms were arranged and decorated in garden effect, the ladies of the party wore Japanese costumes, and guests were served by boys and girls also in costume.

NEWS OF ALLEGANY.

Miss Merle Radabaugh of Arago, opened a term of school in Allegany yesterday with fifteen pupils.

Mrs. J. H. Price is recovering from la grippe.

The epidemic of la grippe which has swept this section, is about ended.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure a local treatment, pronounced it incurable, science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Polks Oregon and Washington

State Gazetteer and Business Directory.

Just issued for 1911-12 is the most complete work of the kind published. It contains an accurate business directory of every city, town and village in Oregon and Washington, and the names and addresses of country merchants and professional men, lumbermen, etc., who are located adjacent to villages; also lists of government and county officers, commissioners of deeds, state boards, statutory provisions, terms of courts, names of the postmasters, postoffices, express, telephone and telegraph offices, justices of the peace, hotels, daily and weekly newspapers; besides much other information useful to all classes of business and professional men. A descriptive sketch of each place is given, embracing various items of interest, such as the location, population, distances to different points, the most convenient shipping stations, the products that are marketed, stage communication, trade statistics, the nearest bank location, mineral interests, churches, schools, libraries and societies. An important feature is the classified directory, giving every business arranged under its special heading, thus enabling subscribers to obtain at a glance a list of all houses manufacturing or dealing in any particular line of goods. The work generally is compiled to deserve their liberal patronage.
