DAIRY ASSOCIATION MEETS.

The Coquille Valley Dairy association held a meeting last Saturday and after considerable discussion decided to take over the O. K. Cooperative Creamery. A board of five directors was elected the following members being selected, J. D. Graham, W. H. Hall, J. P. Clausen, C. E. McCurdy and J. W. Miller.

A mass meeting was held Wednesday to discuss the best methods of operating the creamery and many points were given by able speakers. The directors also met Wednesday and elected the following officers: J. D. Graham, president; J. W. Miller, secretary and W. S. Graham was hired to take charge of the butter-making.—Coquille Sentinel.
