The following from Sunday's Portland Journal will be of interest to Coos Bay people as the principals are now residents of Marshfield. Mr. Curry being identified with Geo. Goodrum in the automobile business here: "On Tuesday, Judge R. G. Morrow performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Teola Healy, only daughter of Mrs. Belle Healy of Denver, Colo., and Merton T. Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Curry. Only relatives of the bride and groom were present at the wedding. Mrs. Curry has made her home in Portland for a number of years and has many friends here. Mr. Curry is a grandson of ex-Governor Curry of Oregon and Joseph Buchtel, the well known pioneer. He is a nephew of A. T. Buchtel the clerk for Judge Morrow. Mr. and Mrs. Curry left at once for Marshfield, Coos Bay, where the groom is to install and run a garage."

Mrs. Chas. Murr of North Bend was the guest of Marshfield friends Friday. She is just recovering from a severe siege of la grippe.

The A. N. W. Club at its meeting with Mrs. F. E. Allen last Thursday took the initial steps for its annual "City Cleanup" crusade. It is planned to designate a day early in April for "Cleanup Day" and with the aid of the city officials, much will be done towards converting Marshfield into a city beautiful. The plan is to make the event even more successful this year than in bygone years. Further plans for it will be made at the next meeting of the club next Thursday at the home of Mrs. I. Lando. This afternoon, Mrs. Hazard and Mrs. McCormac will consult Mayor Straw about securing the city's aid.

The club's committees to look after the work in the various portions of the city have been named as follows:

- South Marshfield—Mesdames Edman, Hyde and Allen.
- West Marshfield—Mesdames Hall, Mingus and Friedberg.
- South of Commercial avenue.—Mesdames Smith, Maloney and Norton.
- North of Commercial avenue—Mesdames McKnight, I. Lando, G. A. Bennett, O'Connell, Murphy and Flanagan.
- Front street—Mesdames McCormac, Hazard and S. Lando.

The ladies of Coos Bay Circle, Women of Woodcraft, gave a pleasing social entertainment and banquet to their husbands and a few invited friends, after the business session of their order, Monday evening, in their lodge rooms. Though a little previous to the 17th of March, the feature of the evening entertainment was complimentary to the birth of St. Patrick, and was thoroughly enjoyed by every participant. The lodge rooms were prettily decorated, the "Emerald" hue predominating, and interesting program was rendered of which the following is a part:

Song, "Wearing of the Green," by W. U. Douglas.

Song and Drill, "The Future Members of the Camp and Circle," by eighteen little girls and boys.

Song, "Come Back to Erin," by Edwin Wheeler.

Recitation, "Greeting to St. Patrick," Rosie Hall.

Song, "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly," Helen Reese.

Song, "Kathleen Maroureen," I. S. Lando.

After the literary part of the program, the guests and members of the order were invited to the banquet room, where delicious refreshments were served.

The Marshfield High school students are holding their annual picnic at Charleston today. The Alice H. was engaged for the trip.

The many Marshfield friends of Mrs. Helen Chandler-Tremaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chandler, were gratified to hear this week that a serious operation which the young woman recently underwent at Lane hospital in San Francisco had been successful and that she was now well on the road to complete recovery. She has been in poor health for sometime. Miss May Bennett of Marshfield, a close friend of Mrs. Tremaine, who is taking a course in nursing at Lane hospital, has been caring for her.

Showing of Spring Styles

From Fashion's Sources

You will enjoy visiting the Spring Styles on display in the store next week. There is a wealth of newness to interest you—and in the newness is fresh beauty and handsomeness. Take the costumes, they are truly fascinating—and the waists, and Neckwear are equally beautiful. Then there is the new footwear. The dress goods, Silks, Trimmings and Wash Goods, all have their individual style lesson to teach.—A lesson never so interesting as at this season.

Come, We Cordially Invite You

Spring Underwear for Women

The needs of this store's patrons for cooler, comfortable, easy fitting, finely finished underwear for spring and summer, were never more extensively provided for than this season. There's a selection of dozens of reputable makes in scores of different styles, and in every material that preference and comfort can suggest—cotton, wool, silk, silk and wool, and lisle. That superiority of workmanship and finish, as well as fineness of quality which women of refined tastes insistently demand for their under as well as outer wear, is notably distinctive in these fine showings. And, as well, a moderation of price—quality considered—that is truly surprising.
