SHIP ON FIRE NEAR EUREKA

Vessel Reported Burning Off Eureka Last Night But Not Located.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

EUREKA, Cal., Mar. 25.—No sign of a vessel which was reported afire off this port last night, has been found and some doubt exists whether a vessel was burned.

The steamer Alliance from Coos Bay and the steamer City of Topeka from San Francisco arrived here today and report having sighted no wreckage. Marine men are now inclined to the belief that there was no marine disaster off the coast but the fire seen seaward last night is still unexplained.

The life-saving crew in a power launch cruised up and down the coast and out to sea for a distance of three miles but found no trace of the vessel reported burning at sea last night.

Reports from nearby coast points also state a fire at sea was visible last night. A dense fog prevailed last night but today the weather is clear with a severe northwest wind blowing.

Last night Operator Shirley at the Marshfield Wireless station packed up a message from the Table Bluff station reporting that an unknown vessel afire had been sighted about ten miles off Humboldt Bay. Word was sent to Eureka and a tug was sent out to try and render assistance. No further word was received by wireless but the above Associated Press dispatch to The Times today indicates that the tug did not find any vessel on fire.

BLAKE GIVES STOCK PLANS

Promotor of Street Railway Gives Banquet to Interest Local Capital.

Jacob M. Blake, who holds a street car franchise in Marshfield last evening tendered a banquet at The Chandler hotel to a number of Marshfield capitalists. The banquet was for the purpose of explaining his project to them and also enlisting local financial aid in constructing the line.

It is understood that he does not expect to raise all of the capital necessary for building the line by selling stock here but that he hopes to sell sufficient stock here to assure outside capitalists whom he expects to interest in the project that it is a good one.

Mr. Blake laid the matter before his guests last evening.

There were thirteen present as follows: Jacob M. Blake, G. W. Kaufman, R. O. Graves, Francis H. Clarke, Claude Nasburg, J. H. Flanagan, J. W. Bennett, E. C. Rogers, A. H. Powers, A. O. Rogers, I. S. Kaufman, C. A. Smith and Herbert Lockhart.

Comment from Peking today states that China remains obstinate regarding the question of freedom of Russian trade in Mongolia, asserting that Russia is entitled merely to import non-Chinese goods and export local products.

INEBRIATE PHYSICIAN KILLS TWO

Council Bluffs Prisoner Slays Deputy Sheriff and Saloonkeeper Who Refused Him Drink.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Mar. 25.—Dr. H. B. Kelly, a prominent physician of Council Bluffs, today shot and killed Edward Sterzing, a local saloonkeeper. The physician was being taken by Wollman in an unbranded condition to the hospital at Knoxville. The two men occupied the same room at the hotel during the night. Early today, Kelly arose, took the revolver from the pocket of the deputy sheriff and fired three shots into the latter as he laid asleep.

Kelly then hastened down the street to a saloon and demanded a drink. Sterzing refused him.

"You saloonkeepers have made an inebriate of me and now you refuse me a drink," said Kelly, and drawing the pistol shot Sterzing. Kelly is under the influence of liquor and does not realize who he has done.

RAILROAD TO COME IN 1912

C. A. Smith Propheesies That Actual Construction Will Be Underway Soon

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

"Coos Bay will see actual railroad construction before the end of 1912 is my prophecy," remarked C. A. Smith of the C. A. Smith Lumber company today in discussing the railroad situation. How much sooner he anticipated the beginning of active work on a line here, Mr. Smith would not say.

Mr. Smith is more optimistic than ever over the future of Coos Bay, and declares in time this will be the greatest port of commerce on the Pacific and he did not even exclude the Golden Gate. The rapidity with which the great development is to come he believes rests to a large extent on what the people of Coos Bay do to hasten its development.

Mr. Smith expects to spend a couple of weeks longer on the Bay this trip.

All Officers Retire to Hasten Reforms and Lasting Peace.

MEXICAN SITUATION TAKES A NEW TURN

Diaz Reserves Right to Accept Or Reject—Rebels Not Entirely Satisfied.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

The dispatch says that when President Diaz received the resignations he reserved the right to accept or reject them. Creel added that this action of the cabinet was well received by the public as contributing to definite reforms and lasting peace.

WILL CONTINUE STRUGGLE.

Insurrectionists Say They Will Not Lay Down Arms Yet.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

EL PASO, Tex., Mar. 25.—Confident that the resignation of Diaz's cabinet announced late yesterday means an end of the present political regime in Mexico and the institution of great reforms, but still uncertain as to the immediate results that will follow, the selection of a new cabinet, members of the Insurrecto Junta today insist the insurrection will proceed.

MEXICAN VIEW OF IT.

Diaz Says He Will Name Younger Men For Cabinet.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Mar. 25.—With the old cabinet out and the probability that not more than two of its members will be retained, the likely personnel of the new ministry is the chief topic of discussion in the capital today.

The resignation of the cabinet is taken as an indication that Finance Minister Limantour's policies are prevailing with President Diaz. The latter has given no intimation of his intentions further than a determination to appoint younger men to succeed the ministers who are advanced in age. It is believed Limantour will remain at the head of the Department of Finance, although it is also suggested by some that he will succeed Creel as minister of Foreign Affairs. The naming of General Bernardo Reyes for the portfolio of War and Marine is possible. What will become of Creel is a matter of much speculation. Because of his connection with the great Terrazas family of Chihuahua he perhaps more than his associates is under the ban of the discontented element which a change of ministry is intended to appease.
