North Bend News

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Witte of North Bend Heights are moving today to their ranch on South Coos River where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Henry Hoeck and children will leave on the Breakwater for Seattle where they will join Mr. Hoeck and expect to make their future home.

Mrs. J. Durand of Flagstaff spent Wednesday with North Bend friends.

SCHEDULE CHANGE ON MAY 1.

Steamer Breakwater to Be Put On Five-Day Service.

The Portland Oregonian prints the following: C. J. Mills, superintendent of the Portland & Coos Bay Steamship Company said that by May 1 the Breakwater would be put on a five-day schedule, and if conditions were satisfactory the change would be made even before that time.

Concerning the proposed railway from the main line of the Southern Pacific to Coos Bay, Mr. Mills said he could not announce at present when work will be begun on the line.

"If you ask me if the line is to be built," said Mr. Mills, "I will answer yes, assuredly, but if you ask me when it will be built, I will have to say that I cannot now answer the question."

Mr. Mills recently spent a month in San Francisco, consulting with Harriman officials there, and when he returned he said that one of the matters discussed while he was in San Francisco was the construction of the proposed railroad from the main line to Coos Bay.

Captain Macgenn, commanding the Breakwater, said that the dredge Oregon, which has been at work improving the channel at Coos Bay since last October, had cut a channel from North Bend to Marshfield, a distance of about three miles, and an average depth of 28 to 30 feet. By April 15, it is expected that the dredge will move down to the lower bay to remove some shoals, and when this is done the channel will be opened to the depth above stated from Marshfield to the sea, and will allow of much larger vessels making use of the harbor.

Gets Auto.—I. R. Tower's new Buick Redbird auto arrived on the Breakwater today and he gave it a trial spin this afternoon. It is one of the prettiest of the 1911 machines and attracted much favorable comment today.

Gets Results.—"Stop that want ad of mine before I am bothered to death," said I. S. Smith today in ordering out a little ad of a furnished house for rent. It had been inserted only two days. The Times want ads sure get results," said Mr. Smith. "I have tried them several times and each time have got results and got them quick."

Move Out.—The tenants of the building near the Williams flat building, against whom R. F. Williams made complaint to the city council last week, are preparing to move out and no prosecution will be necessary, it is stated. Marshal Carter served notice on them as directed by the council and they promised to vacate before April 1.

Elks last night initiated Jas Watson, county clerk, of Coquille into the mysteries of the order. Ivy Condon was elected trustee of the lodge for three years to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. C. Smith who is to move to Portland. At next Wednesday night's meeting, officers for the ensuing year will be installed.

Hearing Continues.—The hearing in the Coos Bay Rapid Transit company bankruptcy proceedings continued today and it is uncertain just when the local hearing will be completed. Much testimony is being introduced as to the size of the debts and the assets of the Kinney corporations. Yesterday, a Chinaman was one of the witnesses and furnished not a little merriment for those in attendance.

Oil Prospects.—G. W. Shelly has returned from a trip to towns on the Coquille. He reports that a committee from Bandon returned yesterday from an inspection of the oil well being sunk on Bear Creek and are elated over the prospects for striking oil soon. The well is now down over 1,100 feet and is in a paraffine formation and they expect to get oil at any time. Extreme caution is being taken to prevent accidents or intentional injury to the well.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The Nann Smith sailed yesterday from Bay Point for Marshfield and should reach here this evening or early tomorrow.

Rough weather prevailing off the coast has delayed shipping from the Coquille. Yesterday's marine report from Bandon showed that the Elizabeth, Phoenix, Ruby, Ida McKay, Field, Advance and Oregon were bar bound there.

HOME.

A few old pictures on the wall, Chromos and reprints, these are all; A clean but hard and barren floor, A few old chairs, a stove as poor, A table and but little more— Yet this is home.

Aye, this is home—more truly so Than many a mansion built for show Where well the stranger's eye can trace By every sign about the place, The presence of fantastic grace— Yet this is home.

And home, tho' one can see, indeed, A semblance of the form of need; For tho' no luxury bequeath, To those within, her golden wreath No "golden sorrow" lurks beneath— And this is home. For home is not in granite wall, Nor art, nor luxury, nor all The glittering robes that pomp may wear To hide the sign of despair— Where love is, home is ever there; Aye, there is home.
