WHEN DAY DREAMS COME.

When day dreams come I seem to see Faces I love bend over me, And lo! in days of long ago The happy visions come and go.
Old homes, old friends, old memories, Bring back their heart-lived histories.
And vanished joys for which we yearn With grace of days long gone return.
Like wistful thoughts at set of sun,
When day dreams come.

When day dreams come I hear again
The music of the sweet refrain—Like song of bird in summer air—When mother sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

The list'ning sigh of silence falls Upon the rose-vin'd garden walls, While in the room the faint perfume Of spicy plinks in beauty bloom,
And over them the brown bees hum,
When day dreams come.

When day dreams come the witchery Of summer seas steals over me, In purple galleys sailing on Past valleys of Avillion, With heart that wakes and thoughts That glow
To mystic isles of long ago The lands of poetry—in Spain—Swing down the vistaed years again, The cares of life seem few or none,
When day dreams come.
—Alice Jordan Bloomer.

FRIENDSHIP is the supreme tie.
It is stronger even than the bonds of blood, as we see in the case of Jonathan, who stood by his friend David even against his own father, says Ruth Cameron. When two hearts have become one in the mystical union of friendship, that relationship should mean more to them than any matter of circumstance, fortune or individual benefit.
In a sketch of the life of Clarence Stedman, a man whose name this generation may not recognize, but whom their fathers will surely remember as the famous "banker-poet," occurs this sentence:

"Amid all discouragements he kept the friends of his youth."
It is surrounded by many more obviously flattering remarks, but to me it is as high as any praise his biographer gives him.

Says Anne Thackeray Ritchie: "I often find myself going back to Darwin's saying about the duration of a man's friendship being one of the best measures of his worth."

With all my heart, I agree with that. Indeed, I scarcely see how there could be a better test.

Beware of the man or woman whose friends are all of too recent a vintage. It makes no difference how highly they speak of him. Praise is not enough unless it be backed by knowledge. Where is his old friend?
Why is his voice lacking from this symphony of praise?

Find that out before you accept him at the valuation these newly made friends would put upon him.

As an interesting experiment, why not reckon how it would fare with you if you were tried by Darwin's test? Run over your list of friends and see how many there are of 10 years' standing? of 20 years' standing? of school day making?

Of course, many times it is the accidents of circumstance and distance and widely diverging interests, rather than change in character that separates us from our old friend.

But if the friendship be what we thought it when we formed it, a heart friendship and not a mere affair of convenience, can we afford to let it lapse?

Of course, in the hurry of business and social life, the line of least resistance is all too often to let the genuine old friend slip gradually out with two or three acquaintances of convenience.

But every man or woman who does that is selling his birthright for a mess of pottage.

Friendship, love and toil—these are the greatest things in life and he who willingly dispenses with the joys of any one of them misses a third of the happiness the fates intended for him.

Where is that old friend in whose companionship you once found such content and inspiration?

Can't you take the first step this very night toward picking up the threads of your friendship?
And don't you want to?

Wm. Grimes and wife and Dr. A.
L. Houseworth and wife leave on their extended eastern and southern trips today. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes expect to be absent several months while Dr. and Mrs. Houseworth will not be away so long.

W. F. Miller and wife leave today for Portland and other northern points where they will visit for a week.

The A. N. W. club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. S. Lando at her home. The final preparations for the "Cleanup Campaign" today took up the meeting's time. Twenty members and two visitors, Mrs. Chas.
Fensler and Mrs. E. Don McCrary, were in attendance. The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. J. T.
McCormac.

Mrs. Henry Sengstacken entertained the Ladies Altar Guild of the Episcopal church at her home Tuesday afternoon. Needle work was the diversion. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. M.
Upton.

The Coos Bay Motor Boat club will hold an important business meeting next Monday night when the question of dredging out a harbor for the mosquito fleet will be taken up. The club is growing rapidly and is now one of the strongest organizations of the kind on the Bay. Under Commodore Burmister's direction, plans are being made for series of enjoyable socials and outings.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKeown and children left this week for Berkeley, Cal., where they will visit for a while with Mr. McKeown's parents.
Mrs. McKeown will also receive medical treatment from specialists while in San Francisco.

Mrs. Helen Chandler-Tremaine, who is just recovering from an operation at Lane hospital, is expected here in a couple of weeks to spend a few months as the guest of Mrs. R.
K. Booth. Mrs. Tremaine is recuperating quite rapidly and has left the hospital. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. S. Chandler, expect to come here about May 1 to spend the summer.

Miss Mable Clare Mills returned this week from Portland where she had been visiting friends for a few weeks.

The Chaminade club met Wednesday with Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr. Besides the regular rehearsal and study, Mrs. Frederick E. Lefeve read a carefully prepared paper on Mozart. Preliminary plans for the summer recital the club is to give are also being made.

The choir of the Marshfield Episcopal church is preparing an elaborate musical program for Easter, much new music being secured for it.
Two weeks from tomorrow is Easter.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Geo. F. Murch entertained at a 1:30 luncheon, followed by sewing, as a farewell to Mrs. George Heath of Greekston, Minn., who has been her guest for the past two months. Mrs. Heath and little daughter, Marion, leave today for Portland from where they will go home, stopping en route at Kalspel, Mont. The color scheme of the decorations was red and green while in the floral effect the wild currant predominated. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Nellie Tower and Charlotte Murch. Among those invited were Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mrs. P. A. Sandberg, Mrs. C. R.
Peck, Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. A. H.
Powers, Mrs. R. E. Browning, Mrs.
C. K. Perry, Mrs. D. Y. Stafford, Mrs.
C. J. Mills, Mrs. C. W. Tower, Mrs.

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 1331. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

Mrs. J. W. Mitchell pleasantly entertained the Ladies Art Club at her home on Commercial avenue yesterday afternoon. Needle work was the diversion and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Otto Schetter entertained the Sisters of Bethany at her home Wednesday afternoon. The usual work was taken up.

Mrs. Jacob M. Blake and baby arrived here this week from San Francisco for a short visit at the G. W.
Kaufman home.

The pupils of the Eighth grade of the Marshfield schools are today enjoying their annual picnic at Charleston, a special launch being engaged for the outing.

Doric Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, enjoyed an informal banquet and social Wednesday night following the initiation of three candidates. Dancing and music were enjoyed.

The congregational meeting which was held Monday evening at the spend Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on Page 3.)

ONLY ONE WEEK

And the Greatest Bargain Event in the History of North Bend will have passed.

Saturday, April 8, at 10 P. M.

This store will be closed and the remainder of the stock will be packed up to move to some other point. This will positively be the last few days of your opportunity to buy merchandise at the prices which are less than you could own them at whole sale.

A Resident of Portland Buys $49.60 Worth

You will understand this party didn't come from Portland to attend this sale but happened to come in while here and after looking our prices over told us he could buy goods here for 1-3 less than he could at home so he proves his statement by his buying this amount.

COULD ANYTHING BE MORE CONVINCING?

Only One Week

And another page in the Bargain History of North Bend will be closed and an opportunity which every one will regret who has not taken advantage of the savings and supplied their immediate needs as well as to the things everyone knows they will have to buy later and pay a higher price.

SUBSTANTIATED FACTS

It is undisputed that there are no better lines of merchandise anywhere than are to be found in this stock where every article has been selected with the greatest care and bought through a syndicate of stores who buy annually more than a million dollars' worth of merchandise which is an assurance that the lowest price on every article is secured and now that you have for

Only One Week

The privilege to buy this merchandise at Prices less than is paid by the average merchant who hasn't the buying advantages this store has had, some of whom have replenished their stocks during this sale and expect to realize a profit on the same goods you have the opportunity to buy at the same price they paid for them.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8TH Will Be the Last Day

When the clock strikes 10:00 on the evening of April 8th, the big doors will be closed and the Big Bargain Event will be ended the last gust of the mighty bargain whirlwind which has swept thousands of dollars worth of the Best Merchandise into the homes throughout Coos Bay and county will be stilled and only those who have not availed themselves of this one week's chance will have cause to regret.

COME EVERY DAY NEXT WEEK

Come where your wildest dreams of Bargains may be realized. Come where your dollars will reach further and take home more than you could ever believe without seeing. Come where every article offered you is backed by a reputation of some factory which has spent years to accomplish perfection—and yet you can buy it for less than that same factory would sell it to you yourselves.
