Big Benefit For Mrs. Hatton

Tomorrow night Harry Hollingsworth and Co. will play a farce comedy

"All for a Wife"

for the benefit of Mrs. Hatton who was hurt at the Royal Theatre.

Considering the circumstances Mr. and Mrs. Hatton are in, the people of Marshfield ought to get together and put them on their feet.

The prices for the benefit will be 25c and 50c, which most every one can afford.

The mothers should think of their children who are away from home and consider if something were to happen to them.

Let's Make This Benefit a Success and show that the hearts of the people of Marshfield are in the right place.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
 OREGON, April 5.—Fair to night and Thursday, except showers in southwest.

Undergoes Operation.—Fred Kruse yesterday underwent an operation for appendicitis and other troubles at Mercy hospital. He was reported doing nicely today.

New Boat Line.—F. J. Monroe, formerly of North Bend, is promoting a stock company to put on a daily boat service between Coos Bay and Yaquina and way ports.

Pioneer Dead.—Cyrus W. Hedden, one of the survivors of the noted Indian fight at Battle Rock, Curry county, in 1851, died at the home of a son in Scottsburg a few days ago.

At Humboldt Bay.—Morton Tower, son of Major Tower of Empire, is now in charge of the government improvements at Humboldt Bay, and will have his headquarters at Eureka.

Rushes Court.—Judge John S. Coke, who is assisting the Portland Circuit court judges is rushing litigation there, according to Portland papers. He is expected to return here by April 10.

Delay Hearing.—The hearing of creditors in the J. Virgil Pugh bankruptcy case before Referee Sehlbrede today was adjourned until May 9 in order that Mr. Pugh, who is now in California, may appear as a witness.

Is Arrested.—Marshal Carter last night arrested Bert Johnson, a logger, for drunkenness. Today he is looking for the parties who furnished Johnson with liquor as Johnson is on the "black list."

Wild Cats Numerous.—Walter Lawhorne is in from McKinley looking for some varmint dogs and varmint hunters. He reports that the wild cats are causing heavy losses to the sheep owners of that section.

Repair Dredge.—The dredge Oregon which is now dredging the channel to the North Bend city docks, is undergoing repairs today. It is expected that it will be able to go to the Pony Inlet shoal next week.

Ferry Traffic.—Capt. Alex. Hall of the Ferry Transit reports that during the month of March, the ferry carried 3,690 passengers, 137 single teams, 179 double teams, 68 head of stock and 28 autos between Marshfield and Eastside.

Discontinue Postoffice.—Wm. Denning, the Captain Arago lighthouse keeper, has been notified that the government has discontinued the postoffice there, known as Sunset, because the bids for carrying the mail from Empire were too high.

Will Meet.—A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce has been called by Chairman Jennings for Friday evening to discuss the fruit cannery matter and also to take up the question of improving the old Coos Bay Wagon Road.

Find Wreckage.—A few days ago Geo. Jackson and Julius Larson pulled up part of the smokestack of the tug Sol Thomas which blew up and sank opposite Empire, January 4, 1885. Four lives were lost. The submerged wreck has laid there since and Jackson's anchor accidentally got caught in it.

Undergoes Operation.—Dorsey Kreitzer received a telegram today stating that Dr. A. L. Houseworth was to be operated on at Portland today for appendicitis. Later a telegram from Wm. Grimes said he came out of the operation fine.

Meet Thursday.—The regular monthly meeting of the Marshfield Fire department will be held Thursday night, April 6.

Sick at Florence.—Dr. Geo. E. Dix left this morning for Florence in response to a message stating that Mrs. A. O. Funk was critically ill there.

Funeral Thursday.—The funeral of Audrey Stadden will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of J. A. Stadden, Rev. Knox officiating.

Rent Ranch.—Messrs. Liebe and Cottle of Catching Inlet have rented the old Cook ranch on Big Creek from L. J. Simpson for five years and have taken possession.

Hold Funeral.—Rev. B. F. Bengtson officiated at the funeral of Isaac Enlund which was held yesterday afternoon. A large number of neighbors of the deceased came in from North Inlet to attend the services.

Alliance Delayed.—The Alliance, which was due in here early today from Eureka had not been sighted at 4 o'clock this afternoon, having been delayed by the strong headwinds. She will probably get in this evening.

Personal Notes

W. C. SELLMER and wife of Bandon are in Marshfield.

C. B. SELBY left this morning for Myrtle Point on business.

SIMON ERICKSON of Kentuck Inlet was a Marshfield visitor today.

GEO. BAINES and family left today for a two weeks outing at Ten Mile.

A. H. POWERS has recovered sufficiently from his attack of rheumatism to be down town today.

H. J. McKEOWN and Senator Jas. Baines have returned from a fishing trip to Ten Mile where they landed a hundred or so fine trout.

J. G. GREENOUGH of Coquille is in Marshfield on business and pleasure. He reports that there is fairly good fishing on the lower Coquille now.

DORSEY KREITZER was able to get down town today although he still bears many marks of the auto accident in which he and Mrs. Kreitzer were injured Sunday.

HUGH SNEDDON and Jack Farley are spending few days at their claims in the Fall Creek country. They were accompanied out by Geo. Laing and Dave McNair of Coquille, who also hold claims in that section.

ELIZABETH MCGINNIS, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGinnis, who sustained a broken arm by falling down the steps at their home the other day, is getting along nicely. No permanent ill-effects are expected from the injury.

R. B. HALLOCK, special tax agent of the Southern Pacific, is here from Portland checking over the company's assessment. This is his first trip to this section and he is immensely pleased with it and expects to spend his summer vacation in this vicinity.
