

SOMEONE HAS SAID: "A store's advertising space in a newspaper, compared with the space used by other stores, should define its comparative importance in the community! How your store's advertising space do that?"

YOUR ADS CARRYING Your store-views, should appear as regularly as does this newspaper. If a newspaper omitted an issue now and then—even for so weighty a reason as fearing that it might rain—it would not be a good newspaper.

SECOND EFFORT TO OUST LORIMER FROM SENATE BEGUN

LaFollette Introduces Resolution For Another Investigation.

NEW SENATORS ARE NAMED ON COMMITTEE

Revelations of Bribe Probe at Springfield Said to Force Action.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—Senator LaFollette introduced a resolution providing for another investigation of the Lorimer case. It names as a committee of investigation Senator Works of California, Townsend of Michigan, Kern of Indiana and Pomerene of Ohio.

No action was taken as LaFollette intends to speak upon the resolution another day.

All mentioned in LaFollette's resolution began their terms in the Senate at the convening of the present extraordinary session.

It is understood they were selected at the conference of progressive senators. Senator Stone of Missouri made the prediction at the White House today that the Senate will be compelled to investigate for a second time the charges of bribery in Lorimer's election.

"The testimony at the legislative investigation at Springfield is so ugly," said Stone, "that it seems to me the congress must take notice of it and if I am not mistaken the Senate will take some action."

DIDN'T AID BENEFIT SHOW

Actors Angry Because Robt. M. Marsden Jr., Wouldn't Assist Injured Woman.

Members of the Hollingsworth and Bernell show troupes are highly indignant today over the refusal of Robert Marsden Jr., to run a slide on the screen at his moving picture house announcing the benefit performance to be given tonight at the Masonic Opera house for Mrs. Frances Hatton, the actress, who was severely injured last week. Mrs. Hatton was injured in Mr. Marsden's playhouse, The Royal, through a faulty curtain weight. The fellow actors of Mrs. Hatton were going to considerable expense for the benefit performance and expected that Mr. Marsden would at least assist them in advertising the event to the extent of showing a slide on the screen at his show house but they declare he did not.

Mr. Hollingsworth when he gave out the above information today was highly indignant over the matter, especially he said, when he thought of the fact that Mr. Marsden was manager of the house in which the accident occurred.

Mrs. S. B. Armour's Girl Protegee Alleged to Have Taken Securities.

KANSAS CITY IS STIRRED BY CRIME

Victim Still Maintains Friendship But Changes Clause of Her Will.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 6.—The Star says today, "It was a woman who took securities of the value of $105,000 from the safe deposit box of Mrs. S. B. Armour in the New England National Bank and sold them. She was young, entertaining and close friend to the widow of the late Parker. So fond had Mrs. Armour become of her and so satisfied was she of the young woman's business ability that she had named her as executor of her will. Since the discovery, the will will be changed. The most remarkable thing about the entire disappearance and sale of the securities is the fact that so far as can be seen there is no interruption in the friendship of Mrs. Armour for the young woman."

"The name of the young woman began to be circulated today by word of mouth and in a dozen banks and law offices it was heard. One firm of brokers is said to have handled about $80,000 worth of the bonds which the young woman brought to the office personally. She represented that Mrs. Armour wished the securities sold as soon as possible. Knowing the relations of Mrs. Armour and the young woman, the broker accepted the commission without suspicion. Another broker reported the matter to Mrs. Armour's bankers. Mrs. Armour refused to believe it and not until later did she change her will."
