

EASTER is a most appropriate time for new clothes, and nature puts on a new dress then, and it's particularly fitting that men should do the same thing; the ladies—bless 'em—don't need to be urged to attend to it.

You will see most men on Easter day wearing new suits—a few will be without them; and both classes will attract attention—but not the same kind of attention.

Which class are you going to be in? It won't take you long to decide when you see our Easter display of Clothcraft clothes at $10 to $25 and our

Hart Schaffner & Marx at $20 to $35

BENEFIT NETS FAIR AMOUNT

Mrs. Hatton Assisted by Actors Last Night—Marsden's Statement.

There was a fairly good turnout at the Masonic Opera House last night to the benefit performance given by Henry Hollingsworth and company for Mrs. Francis Hatton who was injured at the Royal theatre a week or so ago. Upwards of $50 for Mrs. Hatton were netted from the performance. The show was a good one and deserved a much larger house than witnessed it. Mrs. Hatton is slowly recovering from her injuries but it will be several weeks before she can resume her work on the stage.

Marsden's Version.

There are conflicting versions as to the attitude of Robert Marsden, Jr., toward the benefit performance. That of Mr. Hollingsworth and the other actors was given yesterday and in refutation of it, Mr. Marsden today gave The Times the following statement:

Editor Coos Bay Times: "In your issue of April 6, you issue a statement of Mr. Hollingsworth regarding Robert Marsden Jr., proprietor of the Royal Theatre, not lending his support to Mrs. Hatton, the lady that met with the accident at the Royal Theatre, in their benefit show at the Masonic Opera House.

Now, gentlemen, I want to contradict this statement of Mr. Hollingsworth as Mr. Marsden has helped them on several occasions and furthermore has not refused to help them in any way, shape or form. Mr. Marsden donated the Royal Theatre free of charge last Sunday night and they have the theatre tonight on the same condition. I can honestly brand the statement issued by Hollingsworth a falsehood as Robert Marsden, Jr., has treated them in this matter fairly and squarely.

Thanking you for issuing these facts, I remain,
 Very truly yours,
 DIXIE LOFTIN."

LORIMER IS SILENT.

Refuses to Discuss LaFollette's Resolution.
 (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

JOHNSTON, Pa., April 6.—Senator Lorimer who was here yesterday refused to comment on LaFollette's resolution. He said his reply would be made on the floor of congress. He left here for Washington last night.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Any one is entitled to talk about the weather who gets caught out in it.

The old-fashioned girl asked: "Is it becoming?" The new sort asks: "Is it becoming the rage?"

A Wilkesbarre, Pa., man was arrested for beating his wife because she lost her good looks. Women with peevish husbands can't be too careful these days.

The author of a book entitled "How to Be Happy" attempted to commit suicide the other day. Presumably he found that his prescription wouldn't cure all cases.

And now comes a cynic who suggests that the Mexican war is being run by the moving picture syndicates.

The PRESBYTERIAN Ladies will hold another of their COOKED FOOD SALES in Gow Why building next WEDNESDAY commencing at 10 a. m. A nice display of FANCY WORK and APRONS will also be offered.

After the show try a Turkish bath Phone 214-J.
