GEO. W. ELDER TO RUN HERE?

Agent McGeorge Thinks That C. P. Doe May Put Large Vessel On Run.

The Alliance called Saturday for Portland with a large passenger list. Many were through passengers from Eureka. Among those arriving here from Eureka on her were Y. Duffret, S. Fels, R. S. Wright, L. Tausseg and E. P. Moore.

Agent McGeorge has received several handsome pictures of the Geo. W. Elder, a big passenger ship of the Doe line running between Portland and San Diego. As Dr. Doe expects to make a number of changes in his line owing to putting on more vessels, Agent McGeorge is inclined to think that possibly the Elder will run into Coos Bay. He is waiting for direct advice about the matter now. The Alliance will sail from Portland for Coos Bay April 19.

Among those sailing for Portland on the Alliance were:
Miss Etta Crosby, Mrs. C. Gross, Miss Mand Crosby, Chas. Seaman, W. S. Bryant, R. L. Shultz, L. Doudt, Paul Chamess, M. O. Kefer, J. Blackloch, Edgar E. Williams, Guy W. Stevens, C. Barnett, R. Young, Earl Palmer, John Sunden, Mrs. A. Germin, Mrs. R. B. Blodgett, Geo. Moiley, R. B. Blodgett, Mrs. J. P. Manson, Mrs. N. G. Moon, Alice McDonald, J. P. Hansen, J. V. McDonald, A. W. McDonald.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, April 17.—Fair to night and Tuesday except showers in northwest; cooler in west.

Hearing Tuesday.—The hearing in the Major Kinney bankruptcy proceedings will be resumed Tuesday before Referee McKnight.

Gets Contract.—E. G. Perham of Marshfield has secured the contract for an $8,000 bridge across the Pistol river in Curry county. He expects to start the work soon.

Hearing Postponed.—The hearing of Dr. Geo. E. Dix on the charge of exceeding the speed limit in his auto was postponed Saturday evening until next Saturday morning.

Mail Late.—The mail boat from Sumner to Marshfield lost its propeller this morning and in consequence the incoming mail was delayed several hours.

Wed In Coquille.—Tommy Smith, bartender at the Bell Cord, and Miss Nettie Godeski of Marshfield were married last week at Coquille by Justice E. G. Holden. Mr. Smith kept the affair quiet for a few days as a surprise on his friends. They will reside in Marshfield.

To Locate Here.—W. A. Straw, a former Roseburg architect, left for Marshfield last week where he may decide to locate permanently. Mr. Straw left here about a year ago and located at Portland. Two weeks ago he returned here for a visit, and since that time has received a lucrative offer from the coast city.—Roseburg News.

Give Cantata.—The Baptist choir has arranged to give the sacred cantata, "The Galilean" at Eastside Wednesday evening.

R. E. Shine Coming.—According to a postcard received at The Times office, R. E. Shine is coming from California and will make his home in Coquille the coming summer.

J. S. Green Moves.—J. S. Green is moving from Eugene to Corning, California. Mr. Green will be remembered by many Coos Bay friends as a civil engineer who made his home on Coos Bay for a time.

Wants Postoffice.—T. F. Chase of South Inlet is circulating a petition here asking for the establishment of a postoffice at Charleston for the benefit of South Inlet residents and asking that he be appointed postmaster. Three-day-a-week service is asked for.

Funeral Held.—The funeral of J. B. Arnott was held yesterday afternoon from the Presbyterian church and was largely attended. His son, F. H. Arnott of Aberdeen, Wash., who was here will leave tomorrow for his home, but will return here this fall to settle up the estate.

Buildings Burned.—Dan Campbell today received word that the buildings on his mining claim near South Inlet were burned last evening while his men were on a trip to the ferry. The flames had gained such headway before their return that they were able to save but little. It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin as Mr. Campbell has been having much difficulty in retaining the property.

Relatives Located.—Sheriff Gage is in receipt of a letter from Mary E. Clay, 42 1/2 North Third street Portland, making inquiry for James Low as to whereabouts of his son Arthur Low. Sheriff Gage sent the letter to Marshal Carter who succeeded in solving the problem by locating Arthur Low as the man who was drowned from Larson's dredge in the Coquille during the flood on November 25, 1909. Letter to this effect has been sent his inquiring relatives.

Joke On Templars.—It is all "rubbish" to say that the Knights Templar, in their fine uniforms, lost their way last Sunday on their way from the Masonic Temple to the Presbyterian church where they were to attend service. The fact is that when they reached the end of the improvement on Market avenue, the most Eminent Commander, Mr. Morton, did not know if the narrow planks from the improvement to the old grade were strong enough to carry the large body of Sir Knights and while he hesitated some mischievous citizen told a small boy to go and tell them that he would show them the way to the church.

Present for Millicoma.—Some members of the Millicoma club went to see the "Hazel Dollar" last Friday in Mr. Lockhart's auto. The chief engineer entertained them most en-joyably. Some of the party guessed he was a Scotchman and some said he was an Englishman. His answer was that he came very near being a Scotchman. He said, "I was born in England five miles south of the line between England and Scotland and if Mama had taken her usual walk that morning, I would have been a Scotchman sure." He also presented the club, via Claud Nasburg, with a most beautiful painting obtained by him while in the Holy Land of the Camel about to enter the eye of the needle. It's a treasure long to be remembered.
