LECTURE FOR GENTLEMEN ONLY
"The Reason Why You Should Learn to Dance," Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Odd Fellows hall, Martin Luther, knew something besides his prayers, when he said: "The best pastime and exercise is music and dancing—the former dispelling mental care and melancholy, the latter producing elasticity of body and preserving of health." The lecture will be illustrated with practical demonstrations.

There are moments in every life when it becomes necessary to make a few new foes or lose one's self-respect.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by our Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is indurated deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, unless some one of our new methods is used, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Dr. J. C. Cheney's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

WISH TO WED MISS MILLER

Joaquin Miller's Daughter Receives Many Proposals On Account of Views.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 28.—Since Miss Juanita Miller, daughter of Joaquin Miller, permitted the newspapers to feature an article written a short time ago by her on her old-fashioned view that the wife should submerge her individuality and become the servant of the husband, there have come to her many proposals of marriage. In most cases the tender sentiments have been written down and sent her by letter. Only one man, older but more persistent than the rest, had the temerity to venture on Papa Miller's domain at "The Heights," on the hills back of Oakland. And he was frightened away before he saw the object of his fond dreams.

In an interview, Miss Miller said: "No, I have not answered any of the letters. I have shown them to my father and he agrees with me that they are nothing. I could not possibly think of marriage now. My whole life shall be devoted to my father. I have submerged my personality in his interests; I have given up my music—I don't know when I shall take it up again. It was a sacrifice, of course, to give it up. One can do so much better in New York, but—"

Miss Miller's gesture denoted submission to the wishes and needs of her father. Following are some of the maxims that caused all the sensation:

Don't marry a man whom you cannot obey.

Don't marry at all unless you meet a man so compelling, so masterful, that you cannot help yourself.

Be submissive—for there can be no true love without obedience.

Some one must rule. I could not be happy with a man whom I could order about.

If your individuality is so strong and distinct that you cannot submerge it, don't marry.

The woman must always submit; no other way is possible.

FAREWELL TO MRS. REYNOLDS.

A farewell reception was given in the First M. E. church of North Bend Friday evening by the members of that church to Mrs. L. C. Reynolds who is shortly to leave North Bend to join her husband at Florence. A short but pleasing program was rendered after which Mrs. Newkirk for the Ladies' Aid of the church, presented Mrs. Reynolds with a beautiful painting, and Rev. A. S. Hisey, pastor, for the choir, presented her with a splendid piece of cut glass. In part, he said: "We regret very much to lose this estimable Christian woman. She was a tireless and enthusiastic worker in the church, and especially in the choir, of which she has been the very successful director for several months. She has won a place in our hearts that will be hard to fill, and leaves us sad at the parting. May God bless and keep her and her family and may she find a place in the hearts and homes as she has here, as our sincere desire."

FIRE AT BANDON.

Fire broke out in the Disher residence, which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Butterfield, about 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and no fire protection, the wind blowing a gale, there was the same result, the house was entirely consumed, and nothing could be done but stand and watch it burn. The contents of the house were all saved.—Bandon Recorder.
