Wolverton Denies Application Made to Him in Land-Grant Case.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 2.—Application to intervene in the Southern Oregon Company's land grant case was denied by Federal Judge Wolverton, when application was made to him. He ruled that his recent decision that intervention in the Southern Pacific land grant case will not be allowed holds good as regards the Southern Oregon case.

Attorneys who thought they saw an easy way of making money have for months been offering to the gullible public a "sure chance" of winning a quarter section of land by paying the attorney's fee necessary for filing the petition to intervene. This fee has ranged from $100 to $150. The government officials are determined that this "bleeding of the public" shall stop, and it is probable B. D. Townsend will lay the matter before the Attorney-General while he is in Washington, D. C.

PAYS FIRE LOSS.

Edward Hansen, chief on tug Gleaner, who lost his dwelling house at Empire City by fire a short time ago, was handed a $1,000 check for the face of his policy last evening by the Title Guarantee and Abstract company, the local agents of the company, through whom the loss was adjusted. Mr. Hansen had intended to let his policy run out, but the policy was renewed without his special request, and now he is not kicking because the agents looked after his renewal.

OREGON FARM DATA IS GIVEN

Census Shows Big Increase in Valuation of Property and Products.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—Census Director Durand issued the first official statement from the Census Bureau relative to the agricultural statistics of the state of Oregon collected at the Thirteenth Decennial United States Census, April 15, 1910.

The census of agricultural was taken primarily for the purpose of obtaining an accurate inventory of all classes of farm property existing on April 15, 1910; a complete exhibit of farm operations during the year ended December 31, 1909; and a statement of the number and value of domestic animals in cities and villages on April 15, 1910.

Statements relative to acreage and yield of crops and the domestic animals of Oregon will be issued by Director Durand as soon as the tabulation of this data has been completed.

It is pointed out in the statement today that the principal rates of increase in Oregon in 1910 as against 1900 are: In the total value of all farm land alone, 262 per cent; in the total value of farm land and buildings, 243 per cent; in the average value per acre of farm land alone, 214 per cent; in the average value per acre of farm and buildings, 197 per cent; in the total expenditures for fertilizers, 133 per cent; in the total value of farm buildings alone, 127 per cent; in the total expenditures for labor, 127 per cent; in the total value of all farm implements and machinery, 102 per cent; in the total improved farm acreage, 28 per cent; in the whole number of farms, 26 per cent; and in the total farm acreage, 15 per cent.

The only decrease during the decade, among the items for which per cents are given in the first section of the summary, occurred in the average acres per farm, namely, 8 per cent.

The statement shows in detail that the number of farms reported in 1910 was 45,128 as compared with 35,837 in 1900, an increase of 9,291, or 26 per cent.

Farm Values.
The total value of farm land and buildings was given in 1910 as $453,571,000, as against $132,338,000 in 1900, an increase of $321,233,000, or 243 per cent.

The total value of all farm and land alone was reported in 1910 as $409,949,000, as compared with $113,138,000 in 1900, a gain of $296,811,000, or 262 per cent.

The total value of farm buildings alone was given in 1910 as $43,622,000, as against $19,200,000 in 1900, an increase of $24,422,000, or 127 per cent.

In 1910 the value of the farm land alone constituted 90 per cent of the total value of farm land and buildings, as compared with 85 per cent in 1900.

The reported value of all farm implements and machinery was $13,135,000 in 1910, as against $6,507,000 in 1900, a gain of $6,628,000, or 102 per cent.

The total acreage reported in 1910 was 11,628,000 acres, as compared with 10,071,000 in 1900, an increase of 1,557,000 acres, or 15 per cent.

The improved acreage was returned in 1910 as amounting to 4,253,000 acres, as against 3,328,000 in 1900, an increase of 925,000 acres, or 28 per cent.

The improved acreage formed 37 per cent of the total acreage in 1910, and 33 per cent in 1900.

The average acres per farm reported in 1910 was 258, as against 281 in 1900, a decrease of 23 acres, or 8 per cent.

The average value per acre of farm land and buildings in 1910 is stated as $39.01, as against $13.14 in 1900, a rise of $25.87, or 197 per cent.

The average value per acre of farm land alone in 1910 it was $11.23, the amount of gain being $24.03, or 214 per cent.

Color of Farmers.
Of the whole number, 45,128, of farms reported in 1910 there were 44,511, or 99 per cent, operated by white farmers and 617, or 1 per cent, by negro and other nonwhite farmers, as compared with a total of 35,837 in 1900, of which 35,286, or 98 per cent, were conducted by white farmers and 551, or 2 per cent, by negro and other nonwhite. The increase in the number of farms of amounted to 9,225 and in the number of farms of negro and other non-white farmers to 66.

Farm Ownership.
The total number of farms operated in 1910 by owners, part owners, and owners and tenants, comprising the "all owners" class, was 37,456, as compared with 28,963 in 1900, an increase of 8,493.

The total number of farms conducted in 1910 by cash tenants, share tenants, and cash and share tenants, comprising the "all tenants" class, was 6,837, as against 6,366 in 1900, an increase of 471.

The total number of farms operated by managers in 1910 was 835, as compared with 508 in 1900, an increase of 327.

The total number of farms operated by the "all owners" class constituted 83 per cent of the whole number of farms in 1910, and 81 per cent in 1900; those operated by the "all tenants" class, 15 per cent in 1910 and 18 per cent in 1900; and those conducted by managers, 2 per cent in 1910 and 1 per cent in 1900.

Of the total number, 37,456, of farms operated in 1910 by the "all owners" class, there were 24,877, or 66 per cent, reported as owned free of incumbrance, and 12,579, or 34 per cent, mortgaged; for 270 of those reported as owned free, however no report of mortgage debt was secured.

In 1900, information was secured concerning the "owned farm homes." At that time 21,628, or 76 per cent, were reported free from debt, and 7,010, or 24 per cent, mortgaged. There were 862 in 1900 for which no mortgage report was secured, these being included in the farms free from debt. The Census Bureau has no information respecting the number of mortgaged farms leased to tenants.

Distribution According to Acreage Groups.

The statement relative to farms distributed according to certain acreage groups shows that those of 19 acres and under numbered 5,942 in 1910, and 3,071 in 1900, a gain of 2,871; of 20 to 49 acres, 6,829 in 1910, and 4,083 in 1900, an increase of 2,746; of 50 to 99 acres, 6,758 in 1910, and 4,673 in 1900, an increase of 2,085; of 100 to 174 acres, 11,856 in 1910, and 11,055 in 1900, an increase of 801; of 175 to 499 acres, 9,321 in 1910, and 9,228 in 1900, an increase of 93; of 500 to 999 acres, 2,709 in 1910, and 2,440 in 1900, an increase of 269; and of 1,000 acres and over, 1,713 in 1910, and 1,287 in 1900, an increase of 426.

Acreage Group Proportions.

Of the whole number of farms, those of 19 acres and under formed 13 per cent in 1910 and 8 per cent in 1900; those of 20-49 acres, 15 per cent in 1910 and 11 per cent in 1900; those of 50-99 acres, 15 per cent in 1910 and 13 per cent in 1900; those of 100-174 acres, 26 per cent in 1910 and 31 per cent in 1900; those of 175-499 acres, 21 per cent in 1910 and 26 per cent in 1900; those of 500-900 acres, 6 per cent in 1910 and 7

Eczema Cure a Beauty Wash

Although D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for years as the one remedy for Eczema, Psoriasis, and all other forms of skin diseases, it is now known that there is no other wash, even those used by the beauty specialists, that can compare with this mild liquid for cleansing the skin of pimples, blackheads, rash, and all similar skin affections.

For this reason alone, a bottle of D. D. D. should be kept on hand in every household. A trial 25c bottle will show you the merits of this great remedy as a complexion wash.

D. D. D. seems to remove the cause, whatever the trouble may be, cleansing the skin, and leaving it as soft, as smooth and clear as that of a healthy child.
