NEWS OF SUMNER.

Fred Hanson made a business trip to Marshfield yesterday.

Sumner was represented at Bandon Sunday by James Stock and Jay Richards.

Miss Hazel Peterson of Kentuck Street attended the "big time" here Saturday evening.

R. Balsinger intends to go to Loon Lake to run the engine in the saw mill for Jack McDonald.

Miss Grace Terry and Mr. Brownson of McKinley attended the play and dance here Saturday evening.

Archie Phillips and family of North Bend visited over Sunday at the home of Capt. A. D. Boone.

O. E. Burford, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Otis, the past week, returned to Marshfield yesterday.

Mrs. R. R. Watson and children of Coquille returned home yesterday, after spending a week here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Annie Overholzer, who is teaching at Lee, returned home Sunday after attending the play and dance Saturday evening.

Miss Myrtle Hodson returned to her home on Coos River yesterday after an over-Sunday visit with her grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Lawhorne.

Messrs. Alfred Miller, Chas. Harlocker, Sharkey Dunham and the Misses Edna Gilkey, Winnie Spiros and Leta Mast of Coquille took in the dance Saturday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church, will be entertained by Mrs. Chas. Selander and Mrs. Matt Mattson at the Chas. Selander home next Thursday.

J. J. McDonald left here with his saw mill Sunday morning for Allegany, from which place he will move it to Loon Lake to cut lumber for the road and the farmers in that vicinity. J. M. Barker has taken the contract to haul the mill from Allegany to Loon Lake.

Larks—a comedy in three acts, was played by home talent in Sumner Hall Saturday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. The Misses Ruth and Wilda Harris sang solos between acts, also a duet by Mrs. R. R. Watson and Miss Ruth Harris.

After the play was over the baskets were auctioned. The rest of the night was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Anderson's Orchestra of North Bend.

Everybody went home happy and voted it the best time of the season.

North Bend News

No trace has yet been found of Tom Postley, the Gardiner-North Bend mail carrier, who disappeared a week ago Sunday. Nearly every one here believes that Postley fell in the Bay and was drowned. Nothing has been found to confirm any of the rumors of foul play that were circulated.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, May 9.—Fair to night with light frost, Wednesday fair.

Change Meeting.—The A. N. W. club will meet with Mrs. F. P. Norton Thursday afternoon instead of with Mrs. W. P. Murphy.

Is Train Auditor.—E. Irving Chandler, well-known on Coos Bay, is now a Southern Pacific train auditor with headquarters in San Francisco.

New Egg Record.—Mrs. A. H. McKay of Bangor has fourteen hens that produced 616 eggs in three months a record which she does not believe many poultry owners can equal.

Is Coming.—Prof. A. Dawkins of Sheridan, Oregon, who is planning to start a business college here, writes to the Chamber of Commerce that he will come here about June 15.

Will Saw Ties.—J. F. Conklin of South Inlet has purchased a new saw mill and will saw railroad ties and other lumber on the Henry Sengstaken land on South Inlet. He stands in with a small contract from Coos Bay Roseburg and Eastern Railroad Company.

Move Traps.—Yesterday the traps of the North Bend Gun club were moved to the Marshfield race track grounds and the local gunners tried out for the first time. There are now about twenty-five members in the local club and a series of shots is being arranged.

Weds In Chicago.—Announcements were received here today of the marriage of Frank S. Lamberton and Miss Ethel Grace Clark which was solemnized in Chicago May 3. They will be at home in Boise, Idaho, after June 15. Mr. Lamberton was formerly located in Marshfield and his many friends here will unite in extending best wishes for a happy future for him and his bride.

Is Ill.—Clad Stutsman, engineer of the Marshfield Fire Department is ill at his home. Geo. Campbell is attending to his duties as engineer during his illness.

Survey Evidence.—This morning, P. A. Sandberg took some levels and data for evidence in the three-cornered case between the C. A. Smith company, the Merchant estate and the Southern Pacific over the boundary of some property at Broadway and Curtis, their claims conflicting. Someone said that it is the first survey for the street car line and it caused much comment until the true object of his work was ascertained.

Do you know that of all minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.

Citrus Washing Powder The Modern Cleanser

Is composed of the entire lemon, ground up with other ingredients to form a washing compound. Everyone knows that lemons are a splendid skin tonic, neutralizing the harsh effects of ordinary washing powders; therefore CITRUS WASHING POWDER is the one cleanser that is actually good for the skin. This, together with its cleansing properties, makes it the best all around washing powder on the market.
