THESE PRETTY TUB DRESSES For These Beautiful Mornings

Are a Delight for Women and Misses

Prices $1.50 to $10.00

The new Wash Dresses are a feast to the eye and a delight to the wearer. They are made along the neat, simple lines with just enough trimming to add grace and charm to each garment.

The materials are pretty checks, stripes and figures. Some have wide Dutch and Sailor collars of plain color with a narrow bordered effect of same material as the body of garment. These styles are especially pretty. Others are made entirely along plain lines, while not a few are trimmed around collar and cuffs and waist front and skirt with pretty englage embroidery. The new peasant sleeve predominates.

These beautiful mornings of sunshine make these garments a genuine delight to the wearer. Sizes 14 to 42. Prices range from $1.50 to $10.00.

SILK WAIST SPECIAL

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

$5.50 to $7.50 Values, $3.85

Benj. Ostlund, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Mrs. J. V. Smeaton, Mrs. Chas Stauff, Miss May Stauff, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman and Mrs. C. H. Walter and Mrs. L. K. Ballinger.

Miss Elizabeth Kaufman entertained at a tea last Monday as a farewell for Miss Ada McConnell who has been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. A. T. Haines and who left this week for Portland where she will remain for the present. The affair was a very delightful one, although informal. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. D. Y. Stafford and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman who poured tea and chocolate. Among those invited were Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, Mrs. D. Y. Stafford, Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Miss Ada McConnell, Mrs. E. Mingua, Mrs. Etta Farringer, Mrs. M. C. Maloney and Mrs. R. K. Bogth and Misses Marie Maloney, Mamie Mahoney, Agnes Hutcheson, Evelyn Anderson, Alice Butler, Ora Woods, Nellie Tower, Daisy Rush and Genevieve Sengstacken.

Mrs. W. N. Ekblad will leave shortly for a month's visit with relatives in Portland. She expects to return about July 1, and will be accompanied home by her sister who will make an extended visit on the Bay.

One of the leading social events of the coming week will be the Elks ball to be given next Thursday evening at the Eagle's hall. Besides the members of the lodge and their wives and lady friends, each member has the privilege of inviting one couple so that invitations will be issued to about 100 couples. The affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable dancing parties that has been given on the Bay in a long time.

Miss Jessie Chase, one of the Marshfield high school instructors, expects to spend the most of the summer vacation traveling with friends in the east. She will leave here on the last day of school and will start east after a few days visit at the home of her sister in Portland.

Mrs. Eugene O'Connell was hostess at one of the most delightful functions of the season Friday afternoon when she entertained at twelve tables of Bridge in the O'Connell apartments. Rhododendrons predominated in the decorations. Many beautiful costumes were worn. The afternoon's play resulted in Mrs. E. G. Perham winning first prize, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt the second prize and Mrs. Wm. Lawlor receiving the consolation prize. Light refreshments were served. Assisting Mrs. O'Connell were Mrs. F. E. Hague and Mrs. E. K. Jones.

Miss Francis Franse has gone to New Mexico to spend the summer vacation with relatives.

The Progress Club will hold its last regular meeting of the season Monday at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, the subject for the afternoon being "Forestry." Huron H. Smith, who has been spending some time here in the interests of the Forest department of the Field Columbian Museum at Chicago will address the meeting.

Mrs. E. A. Anderson is entertaining at a sewing party at her home this afternoon.

The A. N. W. club held an unusually enjoyable session at the home of Mrs. L. M. Noble last Thursday. No particular business was for consideration and the afternoon was spent at sewing and in social pastimes. Delicious refreshments including strawberry shortcake, were served. Mrs. W. T. Merchant was a guest of the afternoon. The club will meet next time with Mrs. W. P. Murphy and it is possible that adjournment will be taken for one week
