REAL ESTATE MEN AND RELIABILITY.

THE following, taken from a recent number of the Portland Spectator, is quite as applicable here as it seems to be at the metropolis, although in a smaller way; the main point being to eliminate the local "local wild-catter" before he shall have victimized so many people as to bring the real estate business into disrepute and put the home market upon the "bum." There are a few of these ephemeral and questionable deals heralded hereabouts, and the sooner the realty interests of Coos Bay purge the field of the threat and buncomb, the better: "Because of the insufficiency of power conferred in the by-laws of the Portland Realty Board it will be impossible for President W. H. Chapin to appoint his board of censorship of wildcat schemes at once. To overcome any delay this condition of affairs might entail, President Chapin will appoint a committee to take up the work of investigating the reliability of all real estate advertisements describing Portland and Oregon real estate. This committee will prepare data on alleged fake schemes, and will be ready to report when the legalized committee has power to act. The men interested in the welfare of the real estate business in Portland and the Northwest are determined to bring about a revolution in the business and to impress on all schemers that wildcatter in real estate will not be permitted without public exposure."

GOVERNMENT SUPERVISION.

THE DAY of haphazard motor-boating, especially among the lesser craft in the Coos Bay district, is practically at an end. The federal government is taking a hand in the classification and oversight of this species of service and pleasure and the boat, under 65 feet in length, driven by any sort of motor power, from the gush boat to the bay-steamer, except tugs and tow-boats propelled by steam, will have to come in and report its condition as to lights, running, and size; whistles, life-preservers, fire-extinguishers, fog-horns, and all the impedimenta as prescribed by an exacting government for the safety of life and property.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

The call from the great teacher to love even enemies is really a call to get acquainted with folks as they really are. —Rev. A. G. Singien.

POSSESSION.

Thy joy is mine, dear love; I laugh When thou art glad, and I divine Thy happiness, for lo! the half Is mine, and therefore all is mine.

Thy grief is mine, sad heart! I know Doubly thy pain; when thou dost pine I come near unto death, and so Thy woe, O heart of mine, is mine!

And joy and pain are all of life And all of either that are thine Are mine. And so, in ease or strife Of heaven or hell, thy life is mine!

The artistic temperament is often just another name for a first-class peeve.

My first impression of a woman's always hazy because I am confused by clothes, perfumes, teeth and marvelous hair.

SONGS OF FLYTIME.

Swat, brothers, swat with care. Don't use sticky fly papaire.

Swat on wall and in the air, Swat on table, sill and chair, Swat here and there and everywhere, But swat not whatnot or glassware. —E. M.

UNCLE DUDLEY SAYS:

"Stead of wanting the earth with a fence 'round it, some Coos Bay fellers want laws past warnin' others off."

Jack Carter is kept pretty busy but he is not in it with the new city marshal of Dodgeville, Wis., has been voted $60 a month, and all he has to do is—

Be city marshal, Superintendent of waterworks, Pump water in tower for city's needs,

Take dog census and collect tax, Install meters, read same, make out bills and collect same, Oversee electric lights and report any out, Be janitor fire department, Be health officer, Ring the curfew.

The lazy man works harder getting out of work than the busy man with more work than he can do.

One of the proudest moments of a girl's life is when she first succeeds in fixing up her hair "like the other girls."

AS IT HAPPENS ACCORDING TO HOWE.

Many a man who has had a hard boyhood tries to be good to his son and ruins him.

If a man will reduce the number of his faults he will find he is also reducing his expenses.

There's one thing sure, when a man is lynched for stealing horses that sort of thing ceases for awhile.

A man never longs to be a saint as much as a woman does.

Remember, you can mean all right and still be a bore.

Nobody loves you enough to burn your foolish letters.

A word to pretty girls between 16 and 20: You are pretty not because you are superior in any way to others, but because you are young.

ELECTRIC POWER IS IN EVERY WAY MORE ECONOMICAL

Personal experience is the best test. Mr. H. von Unwerth, Mechanical Engineer and proprietor of the Midland Machine Works of Muskogee, Oklahoma, states as follows over his signature.

"What do I think of Electric Power?"

"I am driving my machinery with a 5-horse-power motor, and find the power highly satisfactory.

"For my purpose I would not consider any other power wherever electric power is available.

"It is in every way more economical as to actual cost of power and there is also less liability of delay and shut down."
