Integrity

the keynote of our success has been integrity. Unimpaired, unadulterated, and purity tested... combined with... responsibility as regards our duty to you, your physician, and ourselves. These... posts along the path of integrity have brought us the appreciation of scientific physicians, and those people who desire to have their prescriptions filled in a careful, painstaking... charge is no more than you would expect to pay for such "quality service."

LOCAL GLEANINGS

THE WEATHER.
 (By Associated Press.)

OREGON, May 25.—Fair to night and Friday. Indications are for a heavy frost tonight. Friday, warmer.

Undergoes Operation.—Mrs. Chas. Eckhoff, Jr., of North Bend, who underwent an operation the other day for tumor is reported getting along nicely.

Was Mistaken.—Tom Bennett says that after further inspection of Jack Mereen's card under a microscope and after consulting local "high-brows" about it, he has decided that the word was "pride" instead of "bride" and that Jack isn't married after all.

Initiate Three.—Marshfield lodge of Elks last evening initiated Geo. F. Murch, Thayer W. Grimes and Guy W. Chambers into the mysteries of Elkdom and if there is anything under the branching antlers that they do not now know about, they cannot imagine what it could be. C. W. Tippetts was elected secretary of the lodge to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Geo. Goodrum. This evening, the lodge will tender its summer ball at the Eagles' hall on South Second street.

Arrives Today.—The Nann Smith arrived in today from Bay Point, after making a fast trip from here.

Repair Sewer.—Commissioner Lawborne is today cutting through the hard paving on Fourth between Commercial and Central avenues to repair the broken sewer which has been causing considerable trouble.

May Get Contract.—Hugh McLain of Marshfield was one of the two lowest bidders out of fourteen on the $70,000 sewage system at Lebanon, Oregon. The bids were opened Tuesday night and Mr. McLain and a New York contractor, bid so close that it will require another meeting of the council to decide which one will be awarded the contract. Mr. McLain's many friends here hope that he will be successful in landing the big contract.

NORTH BEND NEWS.
 Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Central school building there will be a meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' club at which time will be election of officers. All are requested to be present.

Don't forget the Turkish Baths. PHONE 214-J.
