Perry, Montgomery & Co.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.
(From Eugene Guard.)
Eugene is going to build that railroad to the coast. People have grown tired of waiting for the Hill or Harriman interests to develop the country and are going to work to help themselves.

LOCAL GLEANINGS

BORN.

WILCOX—To Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilcox at their home in South Marshfield, Sunday, May 28, 1911, an 8 pound boy. Mother and child are doing well and the father is about the proudest real estate man this side of Paradise. Mr. Wilcox is the Coos Bay representative of a Richmond real estate company and while selling lots in the California City, is an enthusiastic booster of Coos Bay's population.

Meet Friday—The B. Y. P. U. society of the Baptist church will hold a business meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m. at the church. All members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to be transacted. There will also be election of officers.

L. S. Reynolds III.—In a letter to The Times, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, formerly of North Bend, says Mr. Reynolds is still critically ill of typhoid pneumonia. Two Eugene physicians are in attendance and it is to be hoped that he will soon take a turn for the better.

Will Leave—F. A. Warner and Miss Myrtle Smith, who have been spending a few weeks on the Bay, expect to leave on the Nann Smith for California. Miss Smith, who is the youngest daughter of C. A. Smith is elated over this section, this being her first trip, and hopes to visit here again soon.

Odd Accident—Chas. Smith yesterday was leaning against the railing on the North Broadway bridge talking to a young lady friend. The railing broke, precipitating him into the gulch below. It was first feared that he was badly hurt but it was later found that he was only slightly bruised.

Return Here—The Grace Dollar will return here for her next cargo, leaving San Francisco Saturday afternoon with freight.

Arrives Today—The Nann Smith arrived in today from Bay Point. Arthur Hough, formerly employed at the Smith mill, came up on her.

Start Tuesday—Capt. Edwards stated yesterday that unless there was some unusually bad weather, the Coos Bay-Drain auto and boat service via Allegany would be inaugurated next Tuesday. Everything is in readiness. The schedule provides for leaving Marshfield at 6:30 o'clock in the morning, taking the auto at Allegany and reaching Drain the same afternoon in time to catch the afternoon train for Portland. Besides the fast ride, the trip will be one of the most scenic in this section.

Have your calling cards printed at The Times office.

Serviceable Fountain Syringes

Your doctor will tell you that a fountain syringe should be made of not only the best quality of rubber, but should be fitted with the best of pipes. The syringes in our stock are equipped with rapid-flow tubing, a patent shutoff and fittings of the latest pattern and of the best quality. We guarantee our syringes for two years. This guarantee is our personal recommendation that they are good goods.
