HEARS SERMON

ered by the Rev. H. I. Rutledge at Masonic.

Before a large audience at the Masonic Opera House last evening, the of the 1911 graduating class of the Marshfield high school. Previous to the delivering of the sermon, the union choir, composed of members of the local church choirs sang.

As a farewell discourse to a high school graduating class, of boys and girls, the sermon delivered by the Rev. H. I. Rutledge was admirable in every respect, being replete with good common sense points, and was thoroughly enjoyed by his auditors.

Perfection in business or professional life, and the rendering of some good to mankind was the principal theme of the sermon. The speaker impressed on the graduates as well as their parents and friends that their highest aim should be to attain the PETER MIRRASOUL is in Coquille highest perfection in whatever undertaking they might pursue, and should constantly endeavor to aid their less fortunate brothers and sisters.
