“What Do You Mean By Insured Clothes?”

YOU have seen that expression “Insured Clothes” in our Clothcraft ads. To know what it means is to know how to end your clothes troubles. Here’s the answer:

With every Clothcraft garment you can have a guarantee signed by the makers. This guarantee makes you sure of pure wool—sure of good tailoring—sure that your clothes will hold their shape and snappy fresh-bought appearance to the end.

Like an insurance policy because it protects you against disappointment and saves you all risk. Better than an insurance policy, there is no premium to pay—no added cost. Can we fit you in these insured clothes at $15.00, $20.00 and $25.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, June 9.—Fair to night and Saturday.

Leave Today.—Among those leaving by automobile for Drain this morning were Mrs. J. A. Goodwill, Mrs. Kettering, J. S. Monohan, H. S. Heltman, Miss Jessie Chase and Mrs. Thomas Smith.

Reported Dead.—It was reported that L. C. Reynolds, formerly of North Bend, but now located at Florence had succumbed to a severe attack of pneumonia. However, intimate business associates of Mr. Reynolds had not been apprised of it and do not place any credence in it.

Frisco Felt It.—Mrs. E. C. Paddock received a letter from San Francisco today stating that the Bay City felt a tremor of the earthquake that shook Mexico City. The San Francisco tremor took place at 4:55 Monday afternoon. It was only a very slight shake but frightened some of the residents.

Writes of Mexican Revolution.—Writing from Salinas Cruz, Mexico, Reece Wright son of Cal Wright, the well known game warden, gives an account of some of the occurrences he was an eye witness to. Wright is a member of the crew of the big freighter Alaskan, and when the steamship tried to land the crew at Hfo, was prevented from so doing by the Mexican authorities, the city being under martial law. The Alaskan is on her way to San Francisco.

Report Untrue.—A report was circulated here today that one of the autos of the new auto line to Drain had met with an accident and some of the passengers had been hurt. The report probably grew out of a private machine meeting with a mishap near Drain, the driver of which sprained his ankle. The stage lines autos did not have any accident of any kind.

Will Lecture.—Prof. Robb telephoned The Times from Gardiner stating that he will arrive tomorrow with a fine production of the “Passion Play” which he expects to show in Marshfield Sunday and Monday evenings, with illustrated songs and a lecture. Watch tomorrow's Times for announcement.

Boston Coming.—Any doubt about the Training Ship Boston being located at Coos Bay was removed today by a telegram received by Lieut. R. O. Graves from Adjutant General Finzer. It states positively that the Boston will have headquarters at Coos Bay the latter part of the summer or early fall of 1911. At tonight's meeting of the Naval Militia, the men will reenlist under the reorganization, the time being cut down from three years to two years.

Personal Notes

S. D. HARPER went to Coquille today.

C. I. REIGARD went to Coquille this afternoon on business.

JOHN WHOBEY went to Myrtle Point on business this morning.

G. W. MARSHAL, tax agent for the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, is expected here in a day or two to look after the local holdings of the company.

J. A. GOODWILL of South Coos River was in Marshfield today on business. Owing to the absence of Mrs. Goodwill on an eastern trip, the Goodwill resort will be closed for the summer.

CHAS SENDELBACH arrived here today from Newport, Oregon, where he is now located. He reports everything prosperous there and that Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blanchard are getting along nicely.

MRS. BERING and family, who have been visiting friends in Marshfield for the past week, returned to their home in San Francisco today. They left for Bandon this morning, and from that place will proceed to the California metropolis.

MRS. ADAM DONALDSON and five children arrived here today from California to spend the summer at their ranch home on Catching Inlet. They have named it “Anchorage.” Capt. Donaldson is now on an Alaska cruise, being in command of the Homer which sailed North last month.

MRS. LONGSTAFF DEAD.

Well-Known Marshfield Woman Succumbs After Long Illness.

Mrs. John Longstaff, wife of the sexton of the Marshfield cemetery, died at their home in South Marshfield last night after a prolonged illness of a complication of diseases. She had been bed-ridden for about two years. She was 63 years old.

Mrs. Longstaff was the second wife of Mr. Longstaff and was childless. Besides the husband, several stepchildren survive.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Longstaff home, the Rev. Father J. A. Moran officiating.
