

NEW STETSON HATS—NEW CLUETT SHIRTS—NEW STETSON HATS—NEW CLUETT SHIRTS

Direct From New York Today

Benjamin Clothes

$18.00 to $35.00

Other Clothes

$8.50 to $18.00

GUARANTEE

If Front of Coat Breaks in One Year's Wear, Customer Can Have a New Suit--FREE

Benjamin Clothes
Alfred Benjamin & Co. NEW YORK

We Are Going to Sell You Your Suit Now

"MONEY TALKS"

Our Shoe Stock is the Talk of the town. Every new last—All widths—All sizes—Low Cuts or High—We can please you.

Marshfield

HUB CLOTHING & SHOE CO.

Bandon

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

(Continued from page 4.)
hoff, Mrs. Geo Hazer, Miss Elvira Moody, Raymond O'Mara, Marjorie Putnam and Bernard Hazer.

One of the leading social events of the week at North Bend was the North Bend High School Alumni banquet which was given Tuesday evening at the Oregon hotel, marking the close of the commencement exercises there this year. Following a sumptuous repast, a program of toasts was enjoyed, Dr. Ira B. Bartle presided as toastmaster, and those who responded were President Kerr of Oregon Agricultural College, Ralph Coke, Clarence Kibler, L. F. Falkenstein, A. B. Beaumont and Supt. Raab. The Alumni elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Clarence Kibler; vice-president, Ellen Anderson; secretary, Helen Mende; treasurer, Winnifred Road. Among those in attendance were: President W. J. Kerr of Corvallis, Supt. and Mrs. Raab, Professor and Mrs. J. F. Grubb, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein, and Miss Lydia Falkenstein of Berkeley, Rev. A. D. MacLeod, Dr. and Mrs. I. B. Bartle, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Hisey, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worrell, Mrs. R. J. Coke, Mrs. Geo. Hazer, Mrs. U. S. Woodbury, and Misses Ellen Anderson, Geneva Smith, Edith Allger, Helen and Kate Mende, Josephine Griffin, Bessie Immel, Grace Williams, Ida Mitchell, Grace Fulton, Freda Hazer, Hilda Lindstrom, Lillie Butler and Iona Hutchins, and Messrs. A. D. Beaumont, Ralph Coke, Mr. Wiedinger, Wm. Woods, Arthur Velde, J. Gray, Clarence Kibler and Nell Banks. High school orchestra: 1st violin, Faith Hunt; 2nd violin, Harold Hunt; cornets, Harold Simpson and Fred Reynolds; drum, John Sheppard; piano, Edith Thomas.

Mrs. J. T. Harrigan entertained the Sewing club at her home last Saturday afternoon. Besides the club, Mrs. Harrigan had as her guest Mrs. Moore of Portland, Oregon. Those present were Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. J. H. Milner, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and Mrs. Hiram Wright.

Miss Margaret Powers yesterday celebrated her eighth birthday by entertaining a number of her little friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers, in South Marshfield. Various games and diversions were followed by refreshments and the afternoon made one of the most delightful ones the little folks present have enjoyed in a long time.

Last Wednesday evening at a banquet tendered the 1911 graduates of the Marshfield High school by the Junior Class, preliminary plans were made for the organization of a Marshfield High School Alumni. Prior to this year, there were only four graduates of the regular four-year High school course in Marshfield. They are Misses Alpha Mauzey, Marjorie Cowan, Bessie Coke and Signa Holm. The banquet was a most enjoyable one, the hall being beautifully decorated for the occasion. Milton Carlson presided as toastmaster and responses were made by President Kerr of Oregon Agricultural College, Mrs. Jessie Chase, Miss Nellie A. Montgomery, Miss Belva Flanagan, Prof. Hewitt and Supt. Tiedgen. Among those present were President Kerr, Miss Montgomery, Joe Bennett, Belva Flanagan, Hazel Powers, Mary Hansen, Milton Carlson, May Preuss, Eric Bolt, Supt. Tiedgen, Jessie Chase, Nellie Tribbey, Bartlett Flanagan, Mary Price, Lucy Juzá, Prof. Hewitt, Mrs. Tiedgen, John Ferguson, Miss Woods, Prof. Applewhite, Nora Tower and Ernest Harrington.

Mrs. M. F. Campbell, and son, Edgar of Riverside, California, are expected this evening from Roseburg for a visit at the home of Mrs. Campbell's son, A. B. Campbell. Edgar Campbell will be remembered by many friends as being formerly connected with the Magnes & Matson store and they will extend a warm welcome. Mrs. Campbell expects to spend the summer on Coos Bay but Edgar will make a brief visit only. They will be the first passengers of the season on the Roseburg auto line.

The Coos Bay Motor Boat club members will enjoy one of their series of cruises tomorrow when a trip will be made to Piper's Grove and Strawberry picnic enjoyed. They will leave North Bend at 8:00.

The home of J. L. Kronenberg on Bandon Heights in Bandon was the scene of much gaiety last Friday evening, the occasion being the "joy" party given by Master Jack Kronenberg to his classmates of the Eighth grade of the Bandon public schools. Nearly all the members of the class were there and from eight till eleven o'clock kept the house sounding with the pleasant noise of their enjoyment of the party. The rooms were trimmed in the class colors. The "joy" part of the evening started immediately upon the arrival of the youthful guests and consisted of guessing contests, a most perplexing "spiderweb," and other trials of mental and physical dexterity for prowess in which prizes were given. Favors and souvenirs appeared in profusion, funny things to play with, peculiar paper hats. Light refreshments were served toward the end of the evening and the Eighth grade departed glad to have so pleasant a celebrating of its graduation from grammar school. The guidance of the general trend of "joy" at the "joy" party was in the hands of Mrs. Kronenberg and Mrs.

Wm. E. Dungan; and they were completely successful. The following were present: Misses Vera Nelson, Marguerite Gibson, Edna Gallier, Pearl Baird, Velma Buckingham, Cecile McDonald, Helen Stephenson, Reta Mars, Martha Korth, Leona Jensen, Ruby Tilton, Enith Lusk, Helen Moorman, Masters Lloyd Lockwood, Halbert Langlois, Claire Shumate, Christian Haberley, Cressy Bingaman, George Kronenberg, Jack Kronenberg; Miss Pearl Walker, Mr. Carl R. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Dungan, Mr. and Mrs. Kronenberg.

The members of the Ladies' Art club and their husbands and families will enjoy their annual picnic tomorrow, the Alice H being chartered for the outing trip. The club's next meeting will be held next Friday with Mrs. Frank Sumner.

Last Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Colver on Coos River, occurred the marriage of Miss Josie Colver and Mr. Fred Messerle, the Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating. Miss Lora Colver was bridesmaid and Owen H. Moore of North Bend groomsmen. Following the ceremonies, a wedding dinner was enjoyed by a number of friends and relatives. Mr. Messerle stands high in his community and is a grandson of the late Chas. Eckhoff of North Bend. The bride is a highly accomplished and one of the most popular young women of Coos River. They leave this week on an extended honeymoon trip after which they will make their home in North Bend. Among those present at the wedding were Lora Colver, W. A. Colver and wife, Misses May and Rose Messerle, Mrs. John Messerle, Lorin Colver, Gordon Colver, J. J. Foster and wife, Misses Emily and May Blake, Misses Ruby and Bessie Colver of Coquille, Misses Alice and Nellie Church, Joseph E. Moore, Owen H. Moore, Wm. Church, Enid and Gladys Colver, George Messerle, Henrietta Colver, Clarence Chester and Vernon Colver.

A party of North Bend young people last evening enjoyed a moonlight excursion to the Sand Hills. The Tioga took them down and a picnic supper was enjoyed following the usual diversions. Among those participating were Rev. D. A. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worrell, Mrs. Richard Coke, Miss Josephine Griffin, Miss Laura Kruse, Miss Edith Horn, Miss Edith M. Alger, Miss Lillian McCann, Misses Katherine and Helen Mende, Miss Grace Fulton, Miss Grace Murr, Miss Leona Smith, Miss Edith Imhoff, Miss Marlon Hevener, Miss Bessie Immel, Miss Fred Hazer, Miss Vera Moody, Miss Bessie Bradley, Miss Ellen Anderson, Miss Frances Golden, Ralph Coke, Clarence Covey, Wm. Wood, Mr. Custer, Leonard Dodge, J. Gray, Oscar Carlson, Glenn Grout, Grade Summerlin.

The Sisters of Bethany met for a business session Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. K. Perry. The next meeting will be the last for the season, and will be held next Wednesday with Mrs. C. K. Perry. Light refreshments will be served.

R. J. Montgomery and family left yesterday for Ten Mile where they will enjoy a few weeks outing at their summer home.

The home of Mrs. Elijah Kelley in South Marshfield, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Wednesday afternoon from four to six o'clock when the teachers who are going away met for a farewell good time. Each guest brought a parcel containing a useful traveling article and numbered. Numbers being drawn, each one received the package with the corresponding number. Much glee was exhibited over the opening of the bundles. Tea was served in the dining-room and as the guests passed in, many were the exclamations of admiration at the beauty of the decorations, carried out in red, white and green. The exclamations were changed to laughter when the place cards were viewed. These were decorated with drawings, humorously foretelling the summer plans of each. After tea they gathered in the parlor and still laughed and finally tore themselves away at about seven p. m. Those invited were the Misses M. F. George, Elizabeth Kaufman, Jessie Chase, Ora Wood, Marie Malony, Blanche Ferdine, Anna Walden, Margaret Randal, Frances Geary, Daisy Rush and Lucy Kent.

A. L. Houseworth and wife this week for Buffalo, N. Y., where he will attend the Woodmen's lodge meeting. En route back, he will visit at their old home at Coos Okla., reaching Coos Bay about 15.

The marriage of Altus Krumpholtz and Mrs. Gertrude Blanchard at Coquille last Tuesday evening came as a surprise to the many friends of the groom, only close relatives being apprised in advance of the nuptials. Rev. Adams of the Coos Bay Presbyterian church officiated. The bride recently came to the Bay by Boise, Idaho. The groom is the well known manager of the Gamble Amusement Park in North Bend and has resided on Coos Bay for the last few years of his life. They will reside in Bandon.

The Episcopal Altar Guild met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. F. Murch. There were seventeen ladies present. The afternoon was spent in sewing, the selling the articles after the meeting. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. P. A. Sandberg.

Mrs. Nell Barnes and little daughter, Mary Bernice, of Los Angeles, Cal., are expected here today on the steamer Fifield. Mrs. Barnes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes and will make an extended stay here. She will be accompanied to Bandon by her mother.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frye and a few friends enjoyed an outing to the Sacchi ranch. The party returned, leaving here in the morning. The day was spent on the beach. A picnic luncheon enjoyed. Those present were: Norman Johnson, Rev. Smith Murdock, Gulowson, Mrs. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Frye, Mrs. Blanchard and Bess Frye.

Mrs. C. F. McCollum will leave for a few days for her summer home, "Rock Lodge," on North Coos Bay.