Court Resumes.—Judge John S.
 Coke returned to Coquille this morning to resume the special session of circuit court which will probably be completed tomorrow.

Picnic Party.—One of the many pleasant picnic parties to the beach yesterday consisted of Mr. and Mrs.
 Elijah Kelly and two sons, Miss George and Miss Fannie George, Mrs.
 Hazard and Mr. Carl Evertsen.

Deputy Coming.—Sec. C. W. Tip-pets of the local Elks lodge, has received word that the District deputy of the order will be here for the next meeting of the lodge which will be held Wednesday evening, June 21.

Starts Paper.—A. J. McClelland, uncle of Alva Doll and George Doll of Marshfield, who is quite well-known here through visits on the Bay, is publisher of a new paper,
 The Pueblo Leader, at Pueblo, Colo.
 Mr. McClelland's many friends here will wish him success in his venture.

Is Ailing.—W. Agnew, who is well known in baseball circles around Coos Bay, and who is now living in Portland, was stricken with paralysis in one of his arms recently and it is feared will become a crumple. Agnew formerly held a position as foreman with the gas company here.

Money Stolen.—Mrs. E. L. Pierce of Allegany is mourning the loss of about $40 in cash which was stolen from their home near Allegany some time last week. The money was secreted in a small saving bank, and when it was taken and who took it is something that Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are trying to ascertain.

Will Contest.—Judge Hall returned to Coquille this morning to hear the Gant will contest. Thirty-one witnesses were examined last week and more are still to be heard. The case is from Myrtle Point, brothers and sisters of the deceased contesting the document which leaves the $10,000 estate to two nephews at Myrtle Point.

Ordered to Astoria.—Postmaster W. B. Curtis of the local postoffice has been ordered by the post office department at Washington to attend the meeting of the post masters at Astoria on June 19th and 20th to receive instructions in regard to the operations of the postal savings bank.
 The savings depository in Marshfield is to be opened here on June 27th, and supplies are now being received at the Marshfield postoffice.

Wade Has Accident.—William Wade, operating an automobile livery between this city and Marshfield, met with a costly accident in this city

Friday evening, after completing the first through trip of the season.
 Rounding the corner of Jackson and Washington streets, his machine, a 5-passenger Buick, skidded on the slippery pavement and crashed into the curb in front of the New York Cafe. The rear wheel that bore the impact of the collision was demolished—Roseburg Review.

Epworth League.—There will be a business meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist church Wednesday evening at 7:30. Social will follow the business meeting.

For Speed Boat.—At noon today, A. H. Powers had succeeded in securing about $1,625 of the $2,000 needed to organize a stock company to complete and operate the new Coos Bay speed boat which is to be one of the Fourth of July attractions here and which is to be entered in the As-toria regatta.

Trouble For Merry-makers.—Robert McKenzie, the genial manager of McKenzie's Merry-makers, reports an aggravating experience in this city last week. He had some laundry work done by a private family, for which he was charged two prices ($7.50) and the work was too poorly done to use, so he had it all expressed to an Albany steam laundry to get it done over. A member of the company had three shirts and three towels laundered by the same parties, and his bill was $1.85.—Albany Democrat.

Appropriately Named.—"Patsy," the new gasoline packet now being built at North Bend by Kruse & Banks for the Elmore Co. is rapidly nearing completion and will be brought up to Astoria shortly. Other names had been considered for the new packet and the new name was not decided upon until yesterday. This name is significant of the ports between which the packet will ply.
 Spelled out the name implies, Portland, Astoria, Tillamook, Siletz, Yaquima. The Patsy is designed both for weather and speed and promises to be a valuable addition to the Elmore fleet.—Astorian.
