MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille As Told by The Enterprise.

Born, Monday, June 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davenport, a son.

Born, Friday, June 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller, a son.

Born, Sunday, June 4, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Wyle Whittington, a daughter.

Miss Myrl Esther Leatherman and Hugh W. Mallow of Brownsville, Or., were married at the home* of the bride's parents at Gravel Ford, last Thursday, June 1.

While S. S. Shields, Lloyd Rosa and Carl Tilton of Bandon were en route to the convention, in the former's auto, their car was wrecked at a point on the county road on a curve near the Jacobson place between here and Coquille. One of the rear wheels collapsed and the car went off the grade, turning over twice. S. S. Shields, right shoulder was badly wrenched and Carl received several cuts about the head. The others were unharmed.

Mrs. Mary Brooks was born in Ohio, January 26, 1823, and died June 3rd, 1911, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carman, near this city. Though she had not been very active for a number of years, she seemed as well as usual on the evening of her death; she ate her supper and helped herself into bed to what proved to be her eternal rest,—the lady having apparently passed away without a struggle as did her brother, Uncle Orant Grant, who died sitting on the side of his bed without falling over on April 10th, 1911.

"Farmer" L. C. Bargelt, ex-editor of the Enterprise, Wednesday treated this office force to a quart of luscious strawberries from "Sunnyside Acres" in South Myrtle Point.

Last Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in this city, occurred the marriage of Miss Lena May Parrish to Robert Henry Bryant.

Born—Saturday, June 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. John Barklow, a son.

While at work cutting ensilage on his father's ranch Saturday forenoon, Roby Shull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shull, was unfortunate in getting his glove caught in the knives of the machine and as it placed him in an awkward position were drawn in and lacerated to such a degree that it was found necessary to amputate the four fingers of his right hand in different places. He will be laid up for some time.

CATCHING INLET NEWS.

A reading with Riley by G. LeRoy Hall at the Catching Inlet school house Wednesday evening was very much enjoyed by rather a small audience.

H. S. Bonebrake and George Ross furnished excellent music on violin and organ.

Two songs, "A Letter from Home" and "In the Days of Thy Youth" were sung with much pathos by a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. Davidson and Clarence Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Granby and two children of Marshfield were guests of Mrs. Sarah Bonebrake Wednesday evening and of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hodson Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. C. Doane was on the sick list Wednesday.

Eddie Ellerbeck of Marshfield visited with Veri Bonebrake from Saturday till Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Wallace entertained at dinner Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Granby and two children, Mrs. Sarah and Lucy and Holt Bonebrake.

Mr. E. L. Church promised a gift to the persons who would bring five people to the Sabbath school next Sunday, "The Vineyard is Great" and let us not hope the "laborers are few."

CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Events There As Told By the Port Orford Tribune.

Miss Jennie Margarita Bossen of Langlois, Curry county, graduated Tuesday, June 13, from the domestic science and arts department of the Oregon Agricultural College, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Winnie Marsters, eldest child of the Editor of the Gold Beach Globe, died Monday June 12, at Gold Beach, of erysipelas of the brain. Winnie was but 19 years of age.

Robt. McPhillamey was in town yesterday with his team. He says that strawberry and cherry crop, also some varieties of plums, will be a failure on his place this year owing to the late frosts. There will be a good crop of loganberries and apples.

Jo Steve, the otter hunter, who has been absent from this county for several years, was in Port Orford last week on his way to Rogue River where he may secure a boat and crew and hunt otter off this part of the coast. Jo is a famous shot, and has killed many otter in the past from open boats dancing on the seas—requiring a skill in marksmanship unequalled in any other kind of hunting. A good sea otter skin is now worth from eight to nine hundred dollars.

GAME IN CURRY.

As the game and fish commission has elected W. L. Finley of Portland master game warden, a strong petition should be sent him from Curry county asking for two things. First, that a strong and competent patrol of our hunting grounds be established and maintained during open season; second, that the public nuisance known as the Arab Deputy, be discharged from the service, before the county is forced to stand the cost of prosecuting some good American citizen, that might be responsible for a stray bullet which may have more effect that the one that went through the crown of his hat, he was boasting of when here last.—Gold Beach Globe.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City by the Sea As Told by The Recorder.

H. K. Flom and wife left on the Elizabeth for California where they will remain for some time in the hopes that Mrs. Flom's health may be benefited by the change of climate. Mr. and Mrs. Flom made many friends during their stay in Bandon who will greatly regret the fact that they are leaving our city.

At a recent meeting of Bandon Lodge, No. 133, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Charles P. Still, N. G., Wm. Lundquist, V. G., A. J. Hartman, Sec., and L. J. Radley, treas.

The fine new bungalow being built by J. L. Kronenberg, and to be occupied by W. E. Dungan and wife, is nearing completion. It is certainly a beauty and will make a cozy home as well as an excellent addition to that part of the city.
