| Entered at the postoffice at Marsh-field, Oregon, for transmissionthrough the mails as second classmail matter.M. C. MALONEY Editor and Pub.DAN E. MALONEY Editor and Pub.DAN E. MALONEY News EditorAddress all communications toCOOS HAY DAILY TIMES.Marshfield :: :: :: OregonAndAn Independent Republican news-paper published every evening exceptSunday, and Weekly byThe Coos Bay Times Publishing Co.Dedicated to the service of thepeople, that no good cause shall lacka champion, and that evil shall notthrive unopposed.SUBSCRIPTION RATES.DAILY.One year  | that noats upon the bay.ad on terra firma your pleasurestake today.t listen when a jolly tar wouldtell you of the joyshinks he's had, when on a boat,far from the city's noise.ggest he talk to carte—call hima foolish loutor the "motor boat bug" will getyou—if youDon'twatchout!t listen to the music of those lig-numvitae blocks.'tend a mooring-party—no—norlook on from the docks;n't ever' ever dare to touch atiller or a wheel  | Unique Suggestion by FormNational FoN. F. Throne, formerly of CooseBay but now located at Ashland isthe author of the following interest-ing article:"With 90 deer to start with tenyears ago on 6,000 acres of steep,rocky, brush-covered mountains inPennsylvania, a hunting club com-posed of Lake Haven and Williams-port business men have now over3,000 deer, the natural increase frömthe original 90, and possibly four orfive native deer that were on theland when it was inclosed by a game-proof fence.The members of the club and theirfriends have been killing each yearthe number of male deer permittedby the laws of Pennsylvania. Thisis an example of the productivity ofdeer when protected from the var-mints and dogs. The West had fail-ed to protect the elk, so that its num- | Few Arguments Against It,The arguments will be made that Ifdeer and elk were raised in suchlarge numbers the states would haveto change their laws permitting theirsale from inclosed preserves duringopen seasons. It is time that gamelaws were made up-to-date, so thatsome good will result from them.Some will say that if raising deer be-comes profitable, the beef trust willacquire all the preserves, but thiscould be provided against in the actauthorizing the lease of governmentreserve lands for this purpose.If there are any reasons why sucha plan is not practical or profitablefrom every point of view, I wouldlike to hear them. The AgriculturalDepartment thought very favorablyof the plan last year, and if they  | all the light necessary for day time. Tomake our store a twenty-four hour day-lightstore, we had the lighting company plan ournight illumination, and we are pleased withthe same. People come here every day andcompliment us on our swell night display inour windows."We assure you that we believe our light-ing display is our best advertisement. FortSmith is proud of her Light & Traction Com-pany-one of her greatest boosters."  |
|--|--|---|--|--|
| through the mails as second class     mail matter.     M. C. MALONEY   Editor and Pub.     DAN E. MALONEY   News Editor     Address all communications to   O. dor     COOS HAY DAILY TIMES.   Don't     Marshfield :: :: :: :: Oregon   And     An Independent Republican news-   And     onper published every evening except   And     Sunday, and Weekly by   Don't     The Coos Eay Times Publishing Co.   Don't     Dedicated to the service cf the   Don't     people, that no good cause shall lack   He thi     hrive unopposed.   Sugs     SUBSCRIPTION RATES.   Dailay.     DAILY.   Ne year     One year   .50     When paid strictly in advance the   Sugs     ubscription price of the Coos Bay   Don't 1     String is $5.00 per year or $2.50 for   Don't 1     Nor 'te   Io     Official Paper of Coos County   Don'     Don'   Til     And   And     And   And   | on't go near the shipyards, anddon't go near the Club,'t cast your weather eye due east—just be a landed dub;and keep away from everythingthat floats upon the Bay.and on terra firma your pleasurestake today.It listen when a jolly tar wouldtell you of the joyshinks he's had, when on a boat,far from the city's noise.ggest he talk to carte—call hima foolish loutor the "motor boat bug" will getyou—if youDon'twatchout't listen to the music of those lig-numvitae blocks.'tend a mooring-party—no—norlook on from the docks;n't ever' ever dare to touch atiller on a wheel | National ForN. F. Throne, formerly of CoostBay but now located at Ashland isthe author of the following interest-ing article:"With 90 deer to start with tenyears ago on 6,000 acres of steep,rocky, brush-covered mountains inPennsylvania, a hunting club com-posed of Lake Haven and Williams-port business men have now over3,000 deer, the natural increase fromthe original 90, and possibly four orfive native deer that were on theland when it was inclosed by a game-proof fence.The members of the club and theirfriends have been killing each yearthe number of male deer permittedby the laws of Pennsylvania. Thisis an example of the productivity ofdeer when protected from the var-mints and dogs. The West had fail-ed to protect the elk, so that its num-                             | species at public expense a little lateron?Few Arguments Against It,The arguments will be made that ifdeer and elk were raised in suchlarge numbers the states would haveto change their laws permitting theirsale from inclosed preserves duringopen seasons. It is time that gamehaws were made up-to-date, so thatsome good will result from them.Some will say that if raising deer be-comes profitable, the beef trust willacquire all the preserves, but thiscould be provided against in the actauthorizing the lease of governmentreserve lands for this purpose.If there are any reasons why sucha plan is not practical or profitablefrom every point of view, I wouldlike to hear them. The AgriculturalDepartment thought very favorablyof the plan last year, and if they | In the same. People come here every day and compliment us on our swell night display in our windows.   |
| AN E. MALONEY   News Editor   d     Address all communications to   COOS BAY DAILY TIMES.   Don't     Iarshifeld II II II II Oregon   And     An Independent Republican news-   And     aper published every evening except   And     Inday, and Weekly by   And     Dedicated to the service of the   bon't     cools lay Times Publishing Co.   Don't     Dedicated to the service of the   bon't     champion, and that evil shall not   He thi     ne year   | don't go near the Club,'t cast your weather eye due east—just be a landed dub;ad keep away from everythingthat floats upon the Bay.ad on terra firma your pleasurestake today.It listen when a jolly tar wouldtell you of the joyshinks he's had, when on a boat,far from the clty's noise.ggest he talk to carte—call hima foolish loutor the "motor boat bug" will getyou—if youDon'twatchout't listen to the music of those lig-numvitae blocks.'tend a mooring-party—no—norlook on from the docks;n't ever' ever dare to touch atiller on when a                                       | N. F. Throne, formerly of CoosBay but now located at Ashland isthe author of the following interest-ing article:"With 90 deer to start with tenyears ago on 6,000 acres of steep,rocky, brush-covered mountains inPennsylvania, a hunting club com-posed of Lake Haven and Williams-port business men have now over3,000 deer, the natural increase frömthe original 90, and possibly four orfive native deer that were on theland when it was inclosed by a game-proof fence.The members of the club and theirfriends have been killing each yearthe number of male deer permittedby the laws of Pennsylvania. Thisis an example of the productivity ofdeer when protected from the var-mints and dogs. The West had fail-ed to protect the elk, so that its num-  | species at public expense a little lateron?Few Arguments Against It,The arguments will be made that ifdeer and elk were raised in suchlarge numbers the states would haveto change their laws permitting theirsale from inclosed preserves duringopen seasons. It is time that gamelaws were made up-to-date, so thatsome good will result from them.Some will say that if raising deer be-comes profitable, the beef trust willacquire all the preserves, but thiscould be provided against in the actauthorizing the lease of governmentreserve lands for this purpose.If there are any reasons why sucha plan is not practical or profitablefrom every point of view, I wouldlike to hear them. The AgriculturalDepartment thought very favorablyof the plan last year, and if they | "We have just completed our clothingstore, and our immense glass front gives usall the light necessary for day time. Tomake our store a twenty-four hour day-lightstore, we had the lighting company plan ournight illumination, and we are pleased withthe same. People come here every day andcompliment us on our swell night display inour windows."We assure you that we believe our light-ing display is our best advertisement. FortSmith is proud of her Light & Traction Com-pany—one of her greatest boosters." |
| Address all communications toCOOS BAY DAILY TIMES.Iarshfield :: :: :: 1: OregonAndAn Independent Republican news-aper published every evening exceptanday, and Weekly byThe Coos Bay Times Publishing Co.Dedicated to the service of theeople, that no good cause shall lackchampion, and that evil shall nothrive unopposed.SUBSCRIPTION RATES.DAILY.me year  | just be a landed dub;and keep away from everythingthat floats upon the Bay.and on terra firma your pleasurestake today.It listen when a jolly tar wouldtell you of the joyshinks he's had, when on a boat,far from the city's noise.ggest he talk to carte—call hima foolish loutor the "motor boat bug" will getyou—if youDon'twatchout't listen to the music of those lig-numvitae blocks.'tend a mooring-party—no—norlook on from the docks;n't ever' ever dare to touch atiller on wheel   | Bay but now located at Ashland isthe author of the following interest-ing article:"With 90 deer to start with tenyears ago on 6,000 acres of steep,rocky, brush-covered mountains inPennsylvania, a hunting club com-posed of Lake Haven and Williams-port business men have now over3,000 deer, the natural increase frömthe original 90, and possibly four orfive native deer that were on theland when it was inclosed by a game-proof fence.The members of the club and theirfriends have been killing each yearthe number of male deer permittedby the laws of Pennsylvania. Thisis an example of the productivity ofdeer when protected from the var-mints and dogs. The West had fail-ed to protect the elk, so that its num-  | on?Few Arguments Against It,The arguments will be made that ifdeer and elk were raised in suchlarge numbers the states would haveto change their laws permitting theirsale from inclosed preserves duringopen seasons. It is time that gamelaws were made up-to-date, so thatsome good will result from them.Some will say that if raising deer be-comes profitable, the beef trust willacquire all the preserves, but thiscould be provided against in the actauthorizing the lease of governmentreserve lands for this purpose.If there are any reasons why sucha plan is not practical or profitablefrom every point of view, I wouldlike to hear them. The AgriculturalDepartment thought very favorablyof the plan last year, and if they   | "We have just completed our clothingstore, and our immense glass front gives usall the light necessary for day time. Tomake our store a twenty-four hour day-lightstore, we had the lighting company plan ournight illumination, and we are pleased withthe same. People come here every day andcompliment us on our swell night display inour windows."We assure you that we believe our light-ing display is our best advertisement. FortSmith is proud of her Light & Traction Com-pany—one of her greatest boosters." |
| VICE.  | d take no interest in a singlething from truck to keel.dally with a dinghy—if you do,  | bers are so reduced that it can nolonger be hunted, except in a few lo-calities, and the same expensive meth-ods are used, while our deer are fast  | must be due to the paranolac egotismof some Western representative inWashington or the Forestry Depart-ment."  | TELEPHONE 178.Oregon Power Co.   |
| mien It lead   As to be hated needs but to be need, an   Yet seen too oft, X-millar with her face, Iven the provident of the provident o | ands the way to greater things,and, eke, much greater cost.oid all invitations to a boat, forl've no doubtat the "motor boat bug" will getyou—if you   | being exterminated. In places herein Oregon where deer were veryplentiful a few years ago one canhardly be found now.Last year I wrote the AgriculturalDepartment, Washington, suggestingthe idea of leasing large tracts of  | HIUTERS ARESHOT DOWN   | Flanagan & Bennett Bank  |
| IZ BIG BROTHER IDEA INMASONRY. Don't v   | watchwatch, the boys make ready for  | land in remote parts of forest re-serves for the purpose of properly  | Eight Persons Killed by Troops   | Established 1889Capital, Surplus and Undivided   |
| N OTHING," some sagacious ob-server of men rightly re-marked, "so shapes a boy'sal as quiet, confidential talks withown men about things they live ford among."  | not upon the good things stow-ed away for them to use,r listen to them plan their tripsor ports they want to make.n't think of all the fun they'llhave-please don't-for dear   | was no law under which a lease couldbe made for a longer time than oneyear, which of course, would not war-rant the initial expense in starting agame preferve. There are many hun-dreds of thousands of acres that arenot used for grazing domestic ani-   | Riots Today.(By Associated Press to Coos BayTimes.)VIENNA, Austria, June 19.— Atan election riot today,, troops fireda volley killing eight persons.   | Profits Over $100.000Assets Over  |
| Grand Master Neterer of the Ma-ble grand lodge of Washington Don't sotod the remark in a recent ad-ble at the state grand lodge tot brethren. Around it as a nu-us he built up the thought thatsoury has an opportunity to dowastructive work in training the  | sit on the veranda, watchingothers really living,taking of the pleasures that thegods are freely giving:ove all else—pray don't go nearthe owner of a yacht,that "motor boat bug" will getou sure—you'd  | mals that could be used for this pur-pose, with the following direct pene-fits: First—It would produce ina few years such an abundance ofgame animals that venison from suchpreserves could be permitted to besold during the open season in our  | STARTS ARMY PROBERepresentative Kohn Introduces Re-solution Asking For Investigation.(By Associated Press to Coos BayTimes.)WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—   | CONDENSED STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OFTHE FIRST NATIONALBANK OF COOS BAY AT MARSHFIELD, OREGON,   |

tains that, inasmuch as it teaches a system of morality, it should give on postal notifications of changes in the laws in the box.

bration,

way talks.

"Talk It Over"

And you mustn't miss a number

That tells of shipping lumber

larating text

vacation;

and aft

Taft.

formation

Dave Stafford

How'er remote the distance

day by day

"Coos Bay,"

on vacation

Shore or wood.

ME Changeng

The spines.

ing to A. T. Haines.

So hoost our circulation

You sught to know what's happens present.

'should (1108

heed to the moral development of addresses of subscribers in the last The profitable use of remote parts of establishment. The resolution would the youth, of this country. Each Ma-son should gain some boy's confi-on us. The Times is always pleasdence, and direct him into the ways of rectitude.

er" given particular application to going away anywhere first leave your a class. It is the brotherhood of substitution of the personal touch for the preaching of principles and for extortations to right living.

experience to be the most successful one, if not the only effective method, ever found for grown men influencing younger men. It is the And you really can't dispense with ests by increasing their numbers and President Orders Release of method employed by such winners of men as Buddha and Socrates and Francis of Assisi. It is the means used today with remarkable efficieney by a rich clubman of New York, who is the personal friend and big That serial continued in our next. brother of thousands of the boy waifs of the great city.

If the Masons everywhere follow the policy suggested by the grand master of Washington they can of men.

"Father, dear father, come home pets to beat: she's got all the furniture out in the yard from the front purch clear down to the street The stoyes must come down and be put In the shied, the yard must be cleanhouse and the devil's to pay, and the frant window zoods some now glass.

with me now and he ing some holognaand showed it's most 12 o'clock and there's nothing to est-I'm so hungry I'm weak in the knees. All the din- Where'er may be your field of recrea- deer on the millions of acres of wood ner well have will be cold acraps and such, and we'll have to est standing up, (and for tables and chairs are all out in the yard-on, I wish this house. You've simply not to get a line on interest in a game preserve a better chanting was through.

"Pather, dans Jather, some hama with me man, we say it has mad as 's Turkt she says you're a lary old tuing and she proposes to put you to WORK. The ling to do and Daner to d windows and casings to sorub for it's house cleaning time and you must come home and revel in suds and cold grub."

d to change addresses as often as wagon roads and phone lines, where War Department for any documents eed be to reach its friends and in neither exists now. Fourth-The desired.

This is the idea of "the hig broth- fact invites such action. If you are government would get an annual rental for such use of these lands in order for The Times for a week, a place of the increasing annual exmonth or a year. man applied to the youth. It is the you can take The Times with you pense with no income, as at present. Fifth-It would be the means of addon vacation; Drop a postal in the nearest letter ing to our reseuroces a valuable food product that will cost but little to This method has been proved by You will want to read about the Cele- produce on land which produces nothing to our resources a valuable food

You will also want to read the rail- Sixth-It will preserve the deer and elk from becoming extinct in our for-improving the breeds at the same Nor with "Toast and Tea's" exhi- time.

Question Is One of Conservation. This is a practical question of conservation. To adopt it will require (By Associated Press to Coos Ba) an act of Congress, and, in this connection, I wrote Senator Bourne, and WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21 .--You can take The Times with you on he replied that as such privileges President Taft today ordered immecould only be enjoyed by a few he diate release of W. S. Harlan, C. C. You will want to read it daily fore was opposed to the idea, for the rea- Hilton, S. E. Huggins of the Jackson son that a few would have privileges Lumber Company of Lockport, Ala, achieve great results in the making You will languish for the latest in- "which are the common heritage of now serving sentences in the Atlanta all"---which in this case is transcen- penitentiary for peonage. Of the doings and the plans of Mr. dental tommyrot, for the reason that there would be enough such land not ON ROAD TO RECOVERY. with me now, for ma has some car- You will want to keep your eye upon adapted to domestic grazing to ac- (By Associated Press to Cous Bay commodate all who wanted to lease hunting are increasing.

And to follow Friend Joe Bennett for this purpose, and the further fact WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21 .--that most Western hunters would se- Mrs. Luke Lea, wife of Senator Lea And we can't conceive existence cure interests in a game preserve and of Tennessee, whose life is believed do their bunting there, as deer are to have been saved Sunday by transed of long grass, for it's time to clean without the news concerning old becoming harder to find each year, fusion of blood from her husband, is and the dangers of being shot while slowly gaining strength. Her condition is still critical, but the physicians "Father, dear father, some home for can take The Times with you | Many men cannot take the time believe she will recover. now required to get a deer or two in

Not only CAN you take it but you a season. These preserves would have A TURKISH BATH will do you a tendency to increase the number of GOUD. Phone 214-J.

and timber land that could not be if you have anything to sell, trade, It will follow you to Lakeside, inclosed as a game preserve, thereby rent or want help, try a want ad. giving the man who did not have an

> Middle Aged and Elderly People. chance to find a deer than he has at its boley Kidney Fills for quick and manual results in all caulos of kid-

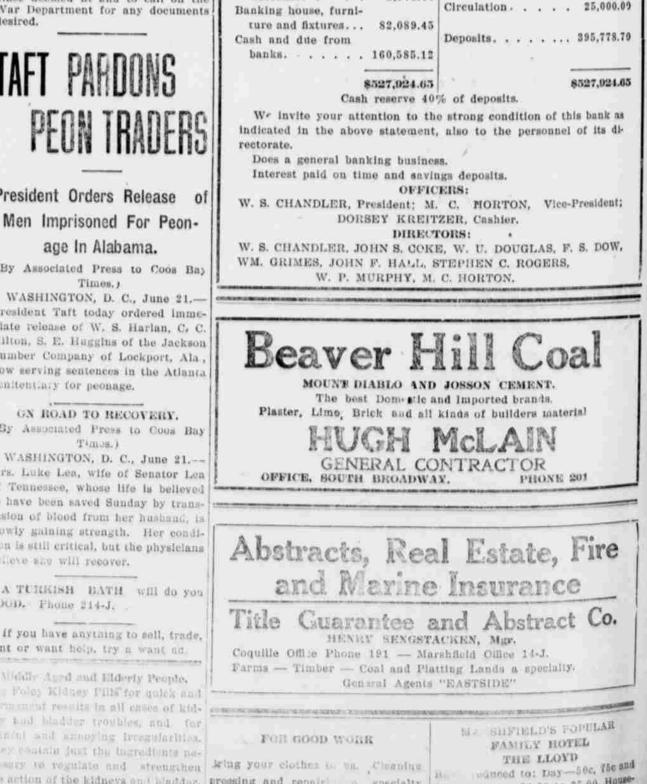

As city and government parks are noy had bladder troubles, and for the last means mod to preserve many miniful and amonging largestarities. "Then you start on your vacation animals from becoming extiner that They contain just the ingredients nenoncer needed for the paims or for were formerly very pleutiful in this consury to regulate and strengthen Ming your clothen to us. Cleaning country in their wild state, why the action of the kidneys and binddar, pressing and repairing a specialty, $1..., week-$2.00 to $5.00, House should not this lesson be taken ad- They are tonic in action, quick in re- by experienced men. Satisfaction keeping apartments with gas ranges How your job printing done a) vantage of in a commercial way, and suits. Try them, - Red Cross Drug guagantaed-BLAR, dARD & DOD- $1, o to $18,00 per month. FREE avoid the necessity of preserving the Store.

lace deemed fit and to call on the age in Alabama.

Times.)

Times.)

BON, Alliance Bldg. Front St.

U. S. Bonds and pre-

County and school

warrants. .

miums. . . . . . . 25,250.00

Other bonds. . . . . 77,412.50 Surplus and profits. . 7,145.95

2,571.78

Capital stock. . . .$100,000.00