YOUR NEIGHBOR'S EXPERIENCE

How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. E. G. Whiting, 360 Willow St., Akron, O., says: "For some time I had a very serious case of kidney trouble and I suffered with backaches and dizzy headaches. I had specks floating before my eyes and I felt all tired out and miserable. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and got a bottle and took them according to directions and results showed almost at once. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eyesight became clear and today I can say I am a well woman, thanks to Foley Kidney Pills." — Red Cross Drug Store.

Altar Guild to Meet.—The last meeting of the Altar Guild of the Episcopal church will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bennett next Friday afternoon. Refreshments will be served from 3 until 5 o'clock. A general invitation is extended to the ladies of Coos Bay to attend.

More Cluster Lights.—A force of men were at work on North Front street today who were arranging for putting in the new cluster light posts for the Oregon Power Company. General Manager R. M. Jennings was locating the posts. He hopes to have them all in operation in time for the celebration.

BORN.

GOODALE—To Mr. and Mrs. Tom Goodale at their home in West Marshfield, Tuesday evening, June 20, a young son. Mother and child are doing well and Tom is so proud of his chauffeur that he promises to cut down the running time between Marshfield and Roseburg to four hours. It's one sure thing that he will hit only the high places the next few trips and if he escapes arrest for speeding in the city limits, it will be only because Marshal Carter knows how it is himself and will excuse him.

A. N. W. Picnic.—The ladies of the A. N. W. club will picnic tomorrow at Mrs. Dungan's home on Coos River and indulge in a riot of strawberries.

Humane Society.—Harry Winkler has been very successful in getting signatures for his proposed humane society in Marshfield and has sufficient now to assure its organization.

Arrested by Carter.—James Wason, M. F. Fitzpatrick and S. Steinberg were taken in custody by Marshal Jack Carter this morning on the charge of being intoxicated, and when taken before Recorder Butler each was assessed a fine of $5.

Baby Boy Born.—Friends here have been apprised of the arrival of a young son at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ross in San Francisco on June 14; Mrs. Ross will be better remembered by many former Coos Bay friends as Miss Nettie Beattie and congratulations will be numerous.

More Cluster Lights.—A force of men were at work on North Front street today who were arranging for putting in the new cluster light posts for the Oregon Power Company. General Manager R. M. Jennings was locating the posts. He hopes to have them all in operation in time for the celebration.

Gage After Bandits.—Sheriff Gage and Frank Gage left this morning for the Loon Lake country to continue their search for the bandits who robbed the mail car at Drain. Sheriff Gage had a telephone message from Sheriff Rlane of Roseburg saying the bloodhounds were still on the trail which indicates that they are continuing their way southward toward this section.

Presbyterian Picnic.—Mr. and Mrs. Mahaffy of North Coos River have extended an invitation to the Presbyterians and their friends to come to their home on Friday, June 23, to eat strawberries and cream. This generous and cordial invitation has been accepted and the Alice H has been secured for the day. Each person going will prepare a basket of lunch. The boat will leave the foot of Market street at 8:30 a. m. sharp.

Mr. Walrath is representative of the Oregon Life Insurance Company in the Southern Oregon district and will make Marshfield his headquarters for the summer.

MANY GO ON PICNIC.

Ladies Aid Society and Friends Conveyed Up Coos River.

Under discouraging weather conditions, the members of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society held their picnic and outing today on the Coos River near Allegany. Some seventy-five members and their friends braved the threatening weather, and went up the river.

As early as eight o'clock the picnickers gathered at the Market avenue wharf where the Alice H was waiting to convey the crowd up the river. A jolly time is anticipated. While there were clouds in the skies there was enough sunshine in the smiles of the ladies to dispel the weather man's gloom.

WATERFRONT NOTES.

The installation of wireless apparatus on the steamer Alliance will be postponed until the steamer returns to Portland. The wireless was to have been installed the last time the Alliance docked at Portland, but her stay there was too limited in which time to install the wireless plant.

Battling against a strong headwind, which was encountered by the ship after leaving the Mendocino coast, the Nann Smith arrived in Coos Bay at day light this morning. The fact that the vessel had only a small cargo of gasoline for the Standard Oil company made the trip rather rough for these aboard.

JAVA COFFEE HOUSE TO BE OPEN NIGHTS

H. A. Wells announces that the Java Coffee House, the popular short order house and restaurant, will be open nights from now on. For the last few months, the place has been closed nights owing to the difficulty in obtaining good help. Carl E. Striplin will have charge at nights and the best the market affords will be served.
