DRAIN BANDITS MAKE GETAWAY; THE POSSE ABANDONS PURSUIT

Deputy Sheriff Stewart Returns to Marshfield From Loon Lake.

BLOOD HOUNDS LOSE TRAIL IN DRY COUNTRY

Reward of $3,600 Offered For the Capture of Robbers.

The bandits who robbed the mail car of the south bound Shasta Limited at Drain and carried off two pouches of registered mail have succeeded in eluding their pursuers. All traces of them having been lost. Deputy Sheriff F. G. Stewart of Roseburg, who led the posse that has been following their trail arrived in Marshfield late last night, and brought full details of the robbery, and pursuit of the bandits. The posse under Stewart has returned to Roseburg to await further developments before again taking up the hunt for the robbers.

Stewart reports that the trail of the men was lost seven miles from Yoncalla, the scene of the holdup. The men, although apparently amateurs in the game of holding up trains, had foresight enough to sprinkle the ground liberally with red pepper to prevent the blood hounds from picking up the trail. Much time was lost in discovering the route taken by the men. The chase after the bandits is graphically described by Sheriff Stewart.

"After finding the trail pursued by the robbers we lost no time in starting after our men. About two miles from Yoncalla, we picked up the two pouches which had been taken from the train, each of them containing several registered letters and packages. From this point on the trail was clear, and we made rapid progress for five miles until we entered the dry country. The trail then commenced to wear out, and the hounds showed difficulty in keeping up the scent. We continued a mile further on, with the trail practically lost, and realizing that it was useless to continue with the trail practically wiped out, I sent the men back to Roseburg.

"Many people seem to be puzzled how the men gained entrance to the mail car. Well, it was the simplest thing in the world, and although I first believe the men are amateurs, yet the way they effected entrance to the car was quite dramatic. When the south bound limited stopped for water at Yoncalla, the door of the mail car was partly ajar for purposes of ventilation. One of the men had on a can like that of a fireman, and stepped into the car, the mail clerk evidently thinking it was one of the train crew. His hat lost no time in following, and before the mail clerk realized what had happened they saw themselves looking into the muzzles of two big revolvers. The men then grabbed the two pouches of mail, and beat a hasty retreat in the brush.

"While we were notified at once about the hold up, we were obliged to delay several hours until blood hounds could be brought from Salem to take up the trail. "Ranchers in the country through which the bandits are making their way, are on the lookout, and as soon as definite information is procured as to their whereabouts, a posse will be sent after them. There is a reward of $3,600 for their capture, and this large reward will stimulate the ranchers, and other living in the section to try and capture the men. I am sure they are somewhere in this section although I have personally visited all the logging camps in the Loon Lake country and found no clue to them." Sheriff Gage accompanied Deputy

It was reported on the street that options taken on the E. A. Anderson residence property on Broadway for $19,000 was closed but the I. S. Kaufman & Co. agency, through which the option was taken for a Mr. G. Arnold, stated late this afternoon that the report was untrue.

FRENCH MINISTRY IS TO RESIGN

Chamber of Deputies on Question of Supreme Command of Army in Time of War Decides Against Government, and Cabinet of Premier Monis Will Quit.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

PARIS, France, June 23.—The government was defeated today in the Chamber of Deputies on the question relative to the Supreme command of the army in case of war. The ministry of Premier Monis has decided to resign.

The adverse vote was due to the admission of General Gotran, minister of war in the Senate last Tuesday that the present organization of the army does not provide for a commander in chief in time of war, the direction of operations in case of war being in the hands of the council of war made up of a minister of war and generals of the army. The announcement came as a natural revelation to many parliamentarians.

SEATTLE MAN IS A SUICIDE

Former Associate of Morgan and Guggenheim Weary of Life Shoots Himself.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—Captain D. H. Jarvis, vice-president of the Booth Fisheries Company and formerly head of the Guggenheim interests in Washington and Alaska, shot and killed himself at the Athletic club shortly before noon today. It was through Jarvis's representations to Morgan and the Guggenheim interests that attention was directed to the Alaska copper and coal mines. Until January 1 of this year Captain Jarvis was secretary and treasurer of all the Morgan-Guggenheim company. He resigned in spite of the entreaties of his employers. Later when the Northwestern Fisheries company was sold by the Morgan-Guggenheim Syndicate to the Booth Fisheries Company Jarvis took the management of the company's interests in the Pacific Northwest. He received a large salary but was not a wealthy man in spite of his opportunities. He was reputed the first man to comprehend the enormous richness of Alaska.

On the envelope found on his desk in the Seattle Athletic club at which he had been reading, he had written in a trembling hand: "Tired and worn out." Before he shot himself he had been reading a book of Klöping's short stories and laid down the open book at a point half way through "The City of the Dreadful Night." Captain Jarvis in his 49 years of his life had been a tremendous worker, and had used himself up in his labors. This is the explanation of suicide which his friends give. He apparently went from his home to the club for the purpose of ending his life.

B. F. SAVAGE IS STRICKEN

Pioneer Teacher and Prominent Rancher Passes Away Very Suddenly.

Byron F. Savage, a pioneer school teacher of Coos county, brother of Councilman A. J. Savage and father of Howard Savage of this city, died suddenly at his home on North Inlet yesterday afternoon at 5:30.

News of his death came with a distinct shock to his relatives and many friends in Marshfield. Altho' he had been suffering slightly as a result of blood poisoning sustained nearly a year ago when some dental work was done on his teeth, nothing serious was ever anticipated. He was in Marshfield Tuesday greeting his friends in his accustomed cordial manner and it seems difficult to realize that the hand grasped in friendly clasp two days ago is now still and chill in death. The cause of death is not known but is supposed to be the result of heart failure caused by blood poisoning.

Byron F. Savage was born in Michigan, December 6, 1860. Later he was taken by his parents to Kansas from which state he came to Coos county in 1892. He taught school in Coos county for 15 years or until about four years ago. Thirteen years ago he moved to his late home on North Inlet where he has always taken a great interest in the improvement and development of the country. He acted as census enumerator in Kansas in 1890 and officiated in the same capacity in Coos county in 1900 and 1910.

He leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. James Pollock of Everett, Wash., Howard Savage of Marshfield, and Harold Savage who lived at home.

The funeral will be held Sunday or Monday arrangements for which will not be made until his daughter in Everett, Washington, is heard from. Notice of funeral will appear in tomorrow evening's Times.

BANDON WILL CELEBRATE. Although arrangements are not all completed yet, it has been decided to celebrate at Bandon the Fourth, and full program will be announced later. —Recorder.

TURKISH GUNBOAT SHELLS GHEESAN BY MISTAKE

Shells From Gunboat Kill or Wound Several Hundred Turks.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

HOEDEDAH, Arabia, June 17, via Adena, June 23.—The rebels in great force today surprised and cut up a Turkish column commanded by Mohammad Ali Pasha outside of Gheesan, a town on the Red sea, about 100 miles north of Hodeidah. A thousand Turkish soldiers were killed. Mahomed Ali Pasha is missing. The fighting was so desperate at such close quarters that 500 Turkish fugitives are suffering from dagger wounds. The survivors fled in disorder to Gheesan pursued by the rebels. The Turkish gunboat Sutebbed intending to shell the Arabs shelled Gheesan instead, killing or wounding several hundreds of the soldiers. The rebels captured four big guns, two Maxims, two thousand rifles and a great quantity of ammunitions, and ultimately retired.

OBTAIN CLUE TO MURDERERS

Slayers of Alexander McNabb Are Thought to Be in Hiding at Coquille.

(Special to The Times.)

COQUILLE, June 23.—What is believed to be a promising clue to the mysterious death of Alexander McNabb, who was found in the debris of his burned cabin at Hoover, twelve miles south of west Roseburg, on June 17 has been obtained here, and Sheriff W. W. Gage who has been at Loon Lake on the lookout for the bandits who robbed the mail car of the Shasta Limited, was communicated with last night and arrived here early this morning.

Three Greeks, who arrived in Coquille recently are under suspicion. In the search for the Greeks, Sheriff Gage will be assisted by his son, Deputy Sheriff C. A. Gage, and F. G. Stewart of Roseburg, the deputy sheriff who was in command of the posse that went after the train robbers.

The charred body of McNabb, who was a pioneer, was found in his burned cabin at Hoover. Foul play was suspected at the time, as some valuables were missing.
