BORN

McDONALD.—To Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDonald at Mercy hospital, North Bend, Friday, June 23, 1911, a baby girl. Mother and child are doing well and Jack doesn't give a care whether there is any tariff on lumber or not. He says the only interest he has in the tariff now is that on dry goods.

New Sign.—The Oregon Power Company swung a handsome new electric sign into place over their office today. It is a beauty.

Sprained Ankle.—Arthur Blanchard has been carrying a cane as a result of a sprained ankle caused by a slight fall on South Broadway the other day.

Karl Haines Promoted.—In the list of promotions in the Coos Bay division of the Oregon Naval Militia, the name of Karl Haines promoted to Ensign was inadvertently omitted.

New Principal.—S. C. Sherrill, late of Washington County, Oregon, and an educator of many years experience who arrived on Coos Bay this week, has been engaged as principal of the Bunker Hill schools.

Launch Boat.—The "Unique" the new gasoline launch of Bert Cox was launched this afternoon at Eastside. It is 28½ feet long with 6 feet beam. It has a 60 horse power engine.

Low Tide.—The tide was so low this morning that the Eastside Ferry could not make its early morning trip and Judge Hall, who expected to go out via Sumner was compelled to take the Myrtle Point road.

Hose Races.—Fire Chief Traver says he expects Myrtle Point and North Bend to bring strong teams for entry into the hose races in Marshfield on July 3 and 4. Myrtle Point was quite enthusiastic about it when he visited there recently.

Business Change.—Ray Tibbets and Harry Miller yesterday completed negotiations for the purchase of the cleaning and pressing establishment of Blanchard & Dodson on Front street. Mr. Dodson will remain with the new firm for the present.

A New Accountant.—D. M. McIntyre and wife and son arrived on Coos Bay from San Diego last evening to make their home here. Mr. McIntyre takes the position of accountant in the office of the Oregon Power Company formerly held by C. J. Keane. Mr. Keane leaves about July 1 on an extended trip to California.

Will Launch Boat.—The new launch "Tillamook" just completed at the Kruse & Banks ship yard in North Bend for the Nehalem & South Coast Trading Company will be launched Monday at 2 p. m. from their yards there. The new boat is 124 feet long, 28 feet beam and 5 feet in depth. She will ply out of Tillamook. Mr. Haraden, general manager of the company, and John Hill are here to be present at the launching.

Read Declaration.—Henry Sengstacken, committee on orator and reading of Declaration of Independence, announces that he has secured Col. Lee Webster of Empire to read the Declaration of Independence at the July 4th celebration. The announcement will be a popular one as Col. Webster, who is postmaster at Empire and a veteran of the civil war is well-known and well-liked and his friends are familiar with the fact that he possesses elocutionary ability of no mean order.
