MOTIVES OF MEN.

PHERE died recently in Los Angeles a man who while not attaining great heights of fame won an enduring place in the hearts of all who knew him. Kenyon Cox was an artist and a poet. The state capitol of Iowa contains some splendid mural paintings that are products of his brush.

Once upon a time he gave an inkling of the motives that inspired him In his fine work in this bit of verse:

Work thou for pleasure; paint or sing or carve

The thing thou lovest, though the body starve: Who works for glory misses oft the goal, Who works for money coins the very San Francisco soul; Work for the work's sake, then, and it may be

That these things shall be added un-

That sentiment is good for the Los Angelesguidance of workers everywhere, whether they be artists or artisans. teachers or business men. In fact, only so far as men who work do their work for pleasure and for the work's sake, is there any happiness in it for them. The sentiment is well the South Coos River run. IN MEMORY OF LITTLE ALDEAN CRAUSBAY.

She is gone tho' 't is but hours Since her baby form they dressed For the last time, and white flowers In her baby hands they pressed,

It seems an age to those that love her For she took their joy-their all, And left the world so drear behind her

Left its bitter and its gall. So her baby feet have toddled Up the path and through the gate To our Savior, while we mortals

Can only wait-and wait-and wait. Many a heart her laugh has gladened

Many a toil love seemed to ease Now she leaves us, saddened,-saddened.

We can only-wait and wait. HER COUSIN, MYRTLE. June 21, 1911.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many sympathizing friends, and especially to Mrs. John Culver and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonebrake who by their kindly acts and words of solace helped lighten the great burden of our grief in the death of our beloved Aldean Crausbay.
