BORN.

DAVIS—To Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis at Mercy hospital, North Bend, Tuesday, June 27, a son. Mother and child are doing well, and Jack is one of the proudest fathers in Oregon. He says he fears the boy will not be able to have enough practice to enter in the hose races on July 4 but one of these days he will be the champion fireman in the country. At any rate Jack says he is a hot member and what Jack says goes with the new boy.

Sails For Bandon.—The schooner President left today for Bandon and Coquille river points with a miscellaneous cargo.

North Inlet Visitors.—North Inlet visitors in Marshfield yesterday were Simon Erickson, Oscar Ohman, wife and baby and Mr. Pinkerton.

Ten Mile Comes to Town.—Among the Ten Mile visitors in town yesterday were Joe Magee, Chas Norris, Hills Short, Mrs. August Carlson and Mrs. Erickson.

Takes Cargo of Coal.—The gasoline schooner Condor sailed yesterday from Al. Smith's coal mine on Coos River for Wallport, Alsea Bay with seventy-five tons of coal.

Miss Gamble Better.—Reports from Mercy hospital are to the effect that Miss Gamble is rapidly recovering from the injuries received in the Coquille runaway.

Back to Bay.—W. F. Harmon has removed from Coquille to Marshfield and again taken up a residence on Second street. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon will welcome them back to this city.

Largely Attended.—The funeral of B. F. Savage yesterday afternoon was largely attended. The floral tributes were generous and the pioneer teachers final resting place was smothered in a wealth of sweet blooms from sorrowing friends.

Honors For Marshfield Delegate.—George Ross of Catching Inlet, returned yesterday on the Breakwater from the thirteenth annual convention of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon held at Astoria last week. Mr. Ross was elected to the office of grand-master-at-arms by the convention.

Divorces Granted.—Herbert Bentley, an employe of the North Bend Iron Works, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Edith Bentley, on the charge of desertion. Flora Johnson of Libby has also been given a legal separation and custody of her child from Albert S. Johnson whom she charges with gross and habitual drunkenness. The decrees were issued by Judge Coke in chambers.

Fourth of July Visitors.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris and daughter Lorna came over from Lampa Creek yesterday and expect to stay on the Bay visiting friends and relatives until after the Fourth. With Mr. and Mrs. Harris were Mrs. Harris' father, Judd Mills, and her sister, Mrs. Carl Egenhoff, and daughter Aline. Mr. Mills' health improved greatly during his stay on the river and he has fully recovered from his illness of last winter.

Sacchi Sells Store.—Frank Sacchi closed negotiations last evening for the sale of his grocery store building and lot to Herbert Lockhart for $20,000. The transaction is one of the largest of the small deals that has been made recently. It includes Mr. Sacchi's grocery stock as well as building and lot. There were rumors of the sale of the Cordes corner, the Coke lot and the E. A. Anderson property but they could not be verified.

THE ORPHEUM THEATER WILL

Have an exhibition tonight the newest thing in picture production entitled "Count Leo Tolstol."

This topical subject has just been released from the factory and shows many interesting scenes in the life of this the greatest Russian benefactor and philosopher, together with scenes of his home, relatives and friends.

The picture also shows Count Tolstol taking his varied forms of exercise, at manual labor and in the act of writing his biography just three weeks before his death. A moving picture camera in active operation can also be seen in this reel.

"The Carnival" is also included in tonight's big bill at the Orpheum, this being a drama of artistic life in Bohemia including interesting scenes, excellent acting and an atmosphere of culture and elegance. No advance in price of admission. Always the same—only 10c.

One Brings Another

Hardly a day passes but some customer brings in a friend to acquaint them with our store.

The reason is that in no other place are you served in a more satisfactory way, so you are not satisfied to trade anywhere else again and you want your friends to know it.
