FATHER'S DAY.

MOTHER'S day is observed on the second Sunday of each May, and it is now proposed to dedicate the third Sunday in June to father. Somehow, though, the father movement is not meeting with encouraging response.

And still why shouldn't there be a Father's day. The world-old command runs: "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land."

Father is the breadwinner of the family and the bond of the house. In the struggle for existence in the outward world he bears the heat and burden of the day.

Few things in life are nobler or more beautiful than the frank friendship between a father and his sons. To see a good father hearty and hale among his manly boys, one with them in their enthusiasms and tempering their zeal with his ripened wisdom,

Above all, recognition of father's worth and service ought not to be confined to one day nor delayed till his death. They should be rendered freely every day in the year.

TRUTHFULNESS AND HONESTY PAY IN ADVERTISING.

The dominant chord in the address to the advertisers of the Pacific coast at a recent meeting was truthfulness and honesty.

This dominance of the ethical element in a great business is as refreshing as a drink from a mountain spring on a scorching day of summer.

It strikes an accordant note with Mr. Roosevelt's assertion years ago that he believed that American business men, as a class, are fundamentally honest.

The Pacific Coast Advertising association put itself squarely, if unofficially, on record as holding that "honesty is the best policy."

President Dobbs of the Associated Ad Clubs of America hit nails on the head and hit with the straight, hard blow that drives them home and fastens them firmly.

"The old-time salesman," was his cheering information, "with his free gifts and unmentionable stories, is passing away. It is well. The modern salesman needs no such methods. His word is as inviolate as the signed contract of the head of the firm."

The advertiser should tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. No advertisement costs so dearly as that which misleads a customer and costs the loss of his and other people's patronage.

The association has done a great service in emphasizing these fundamental facts.

MURDER A SAFE CRIME.

Two murderers only, so it is said, have been hanged for nearly a hundred murders committed in Douglas county in the past 50 years. Because Roy McClallen, who, in a street duel, killed a rival for the affections of a woman, was acquitted by a jury, there is an effort to hold the judge responsible.

The record for unconvicted murderers in Douglas county is not exceptional, though the number of murders there may be. The average annual number of murders in the United States is about 6000; yet the percentage of convictions is said to be 1.3. This is a humiliating record, and goes to prove the common saying that murder is the safest of all crimes.

It is easy to say that the courts are to blame—Judges, lawyers and juries. They are. But the primary fault lies with an indifferent and calloused public, which coddles murderers and excuses murder. Murderers are not convicted because the people do not want them convicted.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

The man that once did sell the lion's skin, While the beast lived, was killed with hunting him. —Shakespeare.

Dear Dollar 'Tis of Thee Dear Dollar, 'tis of thee, Buyer of Liberty—

Of thee we sing! For this our Fathers died: That Thou in pomp and pride Mightest o'er all preside With thy glad ring!

Almighty Dollar, thee, Without which none are free— Thy name we love! Dearer than templed hills, Dearer than all that thrills— To us are dollar bills All else above!

Let discord swell the breeze And (wring from all the trees Thy greedy song; Let servile tongues awake, Let all that breathe partake, Sing all, for Mammon's sake— The sound prolong!

"Our Father's God" * * * to Thee, "Author of Liberty."

How dare we sing? When Freedom's bought and sold, How dare we be so bold While, over all thing, Gold Reigneth as King!

STORY OF THE DAY.

Two chorus ladies were at one of Victor Herbert's concerts on complimentary tickets.

"May," exclaimed one of them, with a glance at her program, "hasn't Mr. Herbert a tremendous repertory?"

"Well I wouldn't exactly say that," replied her friend, "but he is getting fat."

What a few of the sweet girls of Coos Bay will take any stock in such a stupid theory.

THE BACHELOR GIRL SAYS: "True love isn't the kind that endures through years of absence, but the kind that can endure a husband around the house mornings."

KEEP YOUR AUTO LIGHTS ABURNING.

Marshal Jack Carter now announces that he is going to enforce the ordinance compelling lights on bicycles and autos more strictly as he claims some owners are a bit careless. It is up to the chauffeurs to get busy with their lights.

Let your auto lights be burning. When you ride in your machine; Blow your horn at every corner. Show the red light, and the green. You can speed when you are roaming.

In the country in the gloaming, But there is no use in winking, If your tail lights are not blinking, When you meet Carter in town.

Oh! Jack Carter on the corner Will not smile or stop to laugh, When the lights upon your auto Fall to burn, both fore and aft. Then he knows he has your number, Like the baker man and plumber, And there is no use in winking, If your tail lights are not blinking, When you meet Carter in town.

COUNTRY TOWN SAYINGS BY ED HOWE

There are few women who do not buy hats too young for them.

Should a woman shake hands heartily, or should she put a limp hand in yours, and make you feel that you should drop it as soon as possible? When I shake hands with some women somehow I feel I have been guilty of an indiscretion, however, discreetly I have acted.

The Devil's first idea was to be an angel.

THE COKE RECALL.

What the Papers Say About the Roseburg Petition.

The following are excerpts from the newspapers concerning the proposed recall petition against Judge J. S. Coke.

Think It Unwise.

(From Port Orford Tribune.) Some of the people of Douglas county are, unwisely, in our opinion, circulating a petition for the Recall of Judge Coke, because of his instruction to the jury in the trial of McClellan for killing Mahan. We are of those who read the evidence and the instruction, and we believe the evidence justified the verdict of acquittal, and that the judge instructed the jury properly and impartially, and in harmony with our Supreme Court. We believe in the Recall of Judges, but are opposed to its application except in cases of flagrant violation of the law and justice. Nothing will hurt the Recall worse than demanding it without sufficient cause. We find our well read people a unit in defense of Judge Coke, and hope the petition for recall will fail, because of its useless expense, and because it is asked by angry partisans, without due consideration.

A Base Attack.

(From Myrtle Point Enterprise.) The infamously base attack made upon the integrity of Judge S. Coke of Marshfield, judge of the circuit court of this district, charging him with incompetency and unfairness in giving and refusing to give certain instructions in the case of the State of Oregon vs. Roy McClallen, tried before him in Douglas county last May, and which attack in the past week has grown into the circulating, on the streets of Roseburg, of a petition for his recall, has created considerable interest among members of the bar, newspapers and the public generally. From what the writer has been able to hear and see, it is the consensus of opinion of the leading attorneys, not only of this district, but in other parts of the state, that the petition is groundless and the charges therein are grossly ridiculous. From the members of the bar in Myrtle Point, the Enterprise learns that they will all stand by Judge Coke, and that his record as a man and as a jurist is beyond reproach.

Founded on Spite.

(From Eugene Guard.) The movement organized for the recall of Judge J. S. Coke, of this district, is, to be regretted. It is founded purely on spite, because his instructions in the McClellan murder case at Roseburg did not suit the enemies of the defendant, although to an outsider they seemed to be in accord with the law covering such cases. Judge Coke has shown himself in all respects an able and upright jurist—a man eminently qualified for the bench.

WANTS LAW TABOOING HOBBLE, HAREM SKIRT AND PEEKABOO WAIST.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 28.—Adios to the hobble skirt; "23" for the peekaboo waist, and to the city dump with the harem skirt.

Police Commissioner John Topham is peeved at the many complaints received against Broadway oglers, and advised the women's clubs to begin a campaign against the hobble, the harem skirt and the peekaboo which, he says, merely invite attention and insult.

"Any woman regaling herself in such apparel," said Topham recently, "should expect to be greeted with 'hoops, my dear,' or similar salutations. Such apparel has a tendency to make a man 'feel frolicsome,' for he looks upon the wearer in the nature of a freak. The way some women appear upon the street is degrading, and if they would give a little more attention to such matters there would be fewer complaints against mashers. I am heartily in favor of a city ordinance making it a misdemeanor for a woman to appear on the streets garbed in either a hobble or harem skirt."

SAYS HIGH HEELS

ARE BAD AS RUM

Supreme Court Justice Tells Women to Abandon "Heathenish Custom."

A Troy, New York, press dispatch of recent date says: "A nation-wide movement against the wearing of high-heeled shoes is the plan of Justice W. O. Howard, of the Supreme Court of New York State. In an address here last night Justice Howard said to an audience of women:

"The wearing of high-heeled shoes is as barbarous and torturing and as destructive of health as the Chinese wooden shoes. It is as heathenish and outlandish as wearing rings in the nose or tattooing the face, and it breeds an ungainly and deformed race.

"The obsolete civilization of China feels proud of another kind. Each results in walking monstrosities.

"Can I urge you to go out and advocate normal feet, such as God gave? Have you the courage to speak out against this silly fashion—a fashion as destructive as rum, as opium—or are you to be counted among its devotees?"
