Official Paper of Coos County OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

BY PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS

W7HEN you build a home you always adopt some particular style of architecture. You seek symmetry and proportion. There is uniformity in method of construction, in fact, you know pretty well before the home is built how it will look when completed because it is to be constructed according to plans and specifications.

The same method should be employed in building a city. There should be plans and specifications drawn and the city built according to these, even though a long period of years are required in doing so. Cannot we plan Marshfield of the future along such lines? Let us draw plans of the "City Beautiful" embodying a population of 100,000 and build according to plans. This generation may not be able to complete the work of construction but the next generation will take up the work with a will where we leave off and carry it on to successful consumma-
