Twin Deers—Mayor L. J. Simpson of North Bend has a pleasant surprise awaiting him on his return from San Francisco in the form of twin deers born to his pet deer at his Shore Acres grounds. North Bend evidently was becoming jealous of Marshfield many twins and got in the game but Marshfield is still ahead with two pairs of twins and they are all little deers.

Young Fire Chief—Eugene Traver the young son of Fire Chief L. Traver, has evidently inherited all his father's qualifications as a fire fighter. He has always taken great interest in the fire drills but on July 4th he did better for it was he who discovered the fire on Broadway and reported it to Marshal Carter. He was pleased at his opportunity to be in active service and no one watched the department run that day quite as proudly as Eugene.

Sunday School Picnic—The annual plene of the Roman Catholic Sunday school held yesterday at Engren's Grove, was largely attended. A full description of the affair with the names of those in attendance will be printed in Saturday's Times.
