BEN VANDECAR, the Medford Jeweler, arrived here Sunday and left this morning for Myrtle Point, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Guerin and her children, who have spent the past few months at Mr. Vandecar's home in Medford, during Mr. Guerin's absence in Alaska.—Roseburg Review.

Justice Seeks Divorce.—Justice of the Peace A. E. Shuster of North Bend has filed a suit for divorce against Mary E. Shuster and the time for hearing before Judge Coke at Coquille has been set on July 27. The plaintiff alleges "cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities rendering life burdensome, and willful desertions" as his cause for applying for the divorce. Mrs. Shuster now resides in the east.

Angle Some Dandies.—C. F. McGeorge, Dr. Alden and E. L. Alden comprised a party of jolly anglers who visited Daniel's Creek yesterday in an effort to entice some of the big ones from the stream. Their efforts were crowned with great achievement as each of the fishermen appropriated a large and handsome looking string before they climbed into the Get-There for the return trip late in the evening.

Eight Autos on Line.—Beginning tomorrow C. P. Barnard starts another new automobile on his stage line between here and Coos Bay. This will make eight machines, including one touring car, which he now has on this run, four working out from each end of the line. Mr. Barnard says the Myrtle Point road is now in the best condition he has ever seen it and passengers are going through on record time.—Roseburg Review.

Walker In Trouble.—D. S. Walker, who formerly operated a building and loan and real estate office in Roseburg and also did business in Marshfield for a few months, is in trouble. The Roseburg Review says: "D. S. R. Walker, a former real estate and loan agent of this city, is being detained by the authorities at Van Buren, Ark., at the request of the authorities at Grants Pass, Ore., where he was indicted several months ago on the charge of larceny by baillee. Sheriff Smith of Josephine county is now enroute to Arkansas to bring Walker back to Grants Pass. As the agent for a building and loan company, Walker is alleged to have collected $353 from two Grants Pass citizens and failed to turn the money over to the company."
