BORN.

DAVIS—To Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis at their home in North Bend, Monday, July 17, 1911, a 13-pound boy.

SANDBERG—To Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sandberg, at their home in Millington, Sunday, July 16, a son. Mother and child doing well.

ARNOTT—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnott, at Cooston, Saturday, July 15, an eleven-pound boy. Mother and child are doing well and Frank says the newcomer is a Cooston booster from the word "go."

MAHAFFY—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahaffy at their home on North Coos River, Monday, July 17, 1911, a boy. Mother and child are doing well and the father says the greatest crop the country raises is its crop of boys and girls, and the greatest of these is the latest boy.

DIED.

DAVIS—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis died Monday, July 17, 1911.

CHRISTENSEN—The two weeks' old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Christensen died at their home at Porter mill, North Bend, Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Funeral tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Nelson Very Low.—Mrs. J. N. Nelson, who is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Peterson, in San Francisco, is reported much worse. Her son, F. E. Nelson leaves on the Redondo for the south.

Ten Certificates Granted.—Following is the list of Coos county teachers granted one year certificates by the state in the recent examinations: Blanche Williams, Bessie Immel, C. E. Watkins, Florence Hansen, Jeanie Hickey, J. G. Grimes, Doris Williams, Ora Deyoe, Mabel Wilson, Hattie Parker.

Largely Attended.—The Union services of the Presbyterian churches of North Bend, Marshfield and Coos River held at Myrtle Bank school house yesterday were largely attended, 140 people going up from Marshfield, on the Alert. The Rita carried the North Bend congregation. These Sunday outing services have met with splendid success and will probably be continued throughout the summer.

South Coos River Picnic.—A party of West Marshfield people chartered the launch Buffalo Bill yesterday and went up South Coos River for a picnic. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cathcart, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Daley and family, Judge and Mrs. John F. Hall, Miss Roxie Hall, Mrs. C. W. Paterson, Tom and Ned Paterson, Mrs. Fluelia Turner, Miss Addie Snyder.

Nann Smith Arrives.—The steamer Nann Smith crossed in at 2:30 this afternoon. Miss Edith M. Dunning and Misses Edith and Doris Meehan and Arno Meehan were aboard. They had a pleasant and quick trip up the coast.

Flowers Admired.—A fine display of nasturtiums placed in the Chamber of Commerce by Mrs. Fred Bachman has been greatly admired by both visitors and local people this last week. These flowers are grown readily and should be more extensively cultivated by Marshfield people as garden beautifiers.

Found Lost Articles.—Within the last two weeks three Coos Bay people have found The Times want ads an excellent medium to recover lost articles. Miss Nellie Tribbey lost a valuable gold veil pin on the street and mourned it as gone forever but bethought her of a Times' want ad for Nellie Works at The Times' office and knew that others found things that way. The want ad was inserted and next day C. Beary came to The Times' office with the pin which he had picked up and watched The Times' want columns to see who lost it. Miss Winifred Rood of Coos River, lost a valuable diamond studded locket while at the celebration. It was valued highly as a keepsake and she said she feared it was lost for all time but a little want ad in The Times brought Dr. Burroughs to the office with the locket which he had found and Miss Rood is happy again in its possession, particularly as it contained two miniature photos that she prizes highly. Yesterday Ferd Painter lost his gold nugget tie pin. A want ad in The Times last night brought the information that H. R. Hyde of 422 Hall avenue had found it and was holding it for the owner. The Times' want ads are winners.
