ELK "GOAT" IS ABOLISHED

Opponents of "Horse Play" Win Contention in Grand Lodge.

No more will the intending Elk be compelled to ride the goat, climb a greased pole or do other "stunts" in connection with his initiation. The last important action of the recent meeting grand lodge of Elks was to abolish absolutely all horse play and hazing in the initiatory rites of the order. This ends a fight that has been waged for a decade by a constantly growing element in the organization which contended that the horse-play deterred from presenting themselves as members who would be towers of strength to the order.

To Build New Home—E. A. Anderson has let the contract to Ladd & Hunt for the building of a new residence on his lots at 9th street and Flanagan avenue.

Good Roads Man—Gov. West recently appointed R. E. L. Beddillon, of Bandon, as a Coos County representative of a State Board to draft a good roads bill for Oregon to be submitted to the people at the next general election.

Married in Myrtle Point—Norval J. Skee of Healdsburg, Cal., and Miss Skee of Healdsburg, Cal., and Miss Araletha Cooper, of Myrtle Point, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, July 19th, at noon. Mr. and Mrs. Skee passed through Marshfield Friday on their way to their new home in California.

Gift to Library—The Library committee yesterday were the recipients of a splendid donation to their funds in the shape of a check for $25 from Mr. M. C. Horton. The gift was accompanied by a cordial letter expressing his appreciation of the work done by the Public Library and a promise of more assistance of the same kind in the future.

Baseball at Midnight—In a postcard to The Times from Eagle, Alaska, Jay Doyle, sends his regards to all his Coos Bay friends and says he is on his way to Noatche river. While waiting for the boat at Eagle the party played a game of baseball at midnight and he says he was nearly eaten alive by mosquitoes during the game.

To Entertain Teachers—The Marshfield School Board are making arrangements for entertaining the visiting teachers at the Teachers' Institute which will be held here next month. The day sessions will be held at the High School and the evenings will be filled with entertainments and excursions which will be announced later.

Graves Busy on Book—The Times is in receipt of the first proof sheets of R. O. Graves new law book which is being published in Portland. It is entitled "Legal Forms of Oregon with Laws and Citations," prepared and compiled by Nellie M. Graves of the Indiana bar and Robert O. Graves of the Oregon bar. It is published by the Cree-Pacific Publishing Co., and also bears the imprint of the J. K. Gill Co., of Portland.

A Narrow Escape—One of the narrowest escapes in some time, from a serious auto accident, occurred yesterday on the road between Marshfield and Coquille. A machine driven by A. H. Stutsman in which C. J. Reigard was a passenger, missed by a hair's breath colliding with Tom Goodale's machine in which Robert Marsden, Sr., and J. W. Bennett were passengers, on a sharp turn in the road near Shingle House Slough. Both machines were going at a good clip, Goodale coming down hill. Quick action on Goodale's part in swerving his machine to the side was all that saved a serious accident.
