

At Your Service

Part of the electric lighting service which we offer our customers without extra cost is not generally known.

Correct illumination is a science. It must be studied and mastered before the desired results can be obtained.

We place expert illuminating engineering service at the command of every customer and prospective customer.

Our object is not to install the most lamps. On the contrary, it is to give you the lighting you need with the fewest lamps, properly arranged.

Born—In Coquille, Oregon, July 7, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson, a daughter.

Mrs. E. W. Lewis of Marshfield, passed through town Saturday en route to Bancroft where she goes to visit her sister, Mrs. C. D. Price, for a few days.

Married—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belloni of Coquille, July 12, 1911, Mr. Percy G. Varney and Miss Grace M. Smith, both of Bandon. Rev. Frank H. Adams officiating.

Married—At the Skookum Restaurant Parlors, in this city, July 16, 1911, Mr. Ewald H. Bahlmann, of Roseburg, Douglas county, Oregon, and Miss Donna Ruth Scott, of Bandon, Coos county, Oregon. Judge E. G. D. Holden officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall of Cherokee, Kansas, arrived here Tuesday and are greatly enjoying a visit with Mr. Marshall's brother, J. B. Marshall of Bandon, and sister, Mrs. C. R. Barrow, of Coquille. Forty years have elapsed since these brothers had met, and that this meeting was a very pleasant one goes without saying.

Fires were placed under the boilers in the new mill now being completed at the west line of the Coquille City limits, and steam pressure sufficient to run a pump and blow the whistle was raised. By the last of the week a trial will be made of the machinery, and a little sawing for lumber and timbers about the mill will be done in the next two weeks.

COQUILLE ITEMS.

News from the County Seat as Told in the Sentinel.

Born.—July 10th, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gregory, a girl.

Work on the hospital building which is being erected in this city for Drs. Richmond and Hoag is progressing in a fairly satisfactory manner.
