LOCAL GLEANINGS

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, July 24.—Fair to night, and Tuesday warmer.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:00 p. m., July 23, by Mrs. E. Mingus, special government meteorological observer:
Maximum 77
Minimum 48
At 4:00 p. m. 71
Wind, Northwest; quite cloudy.

Omega In—The barkentine Omega arrived in the Bay this morning and will take on a cargo of lumber.

Nann Smith In—The Nann Smith arrived in from Bay Point yesterday afternoon and will sail at 11 a. m. Tuesday on her return trip.

Hold Probate Court—Judge Hall went to Coquille today to hold probate court. Among the wills to be probated is that of a Mr. Baldwin of Bandon.

Berry Fair Publicity—Coos county is getting considerable publicity out of its "Berry Fair." Several Oregon papers copied the entire article as it originally appeared in The Times.

Deer Season—The open deer season begins August 1st and continues two months, and the limit to any one hunter is five bucks, so be careful and don't exceed the limit.

To Camp at Bullards—Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Jack and Helen Merchant, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Miss Nora Tower and Miss May Preuss left yesterday on an outing trip down the coast, where they will spend several weeks.

Coos Bay Honey—Mrs. T. W. Higginson of Catching Inlet presented the Times' office with a fine square of Coos Bay honey today. It is suggested that the beekeepers of the county make an exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce, which later on could be used at the State Fair.

Grants Pass Hot—Tom Harvey is in receipt of a letter from relatives in Grants Pass saying the thermometer registered 110 for several days. It was so hot that the city was compelled to put two sprinklers on the street to cool asphalt paving to prevent it melting and running into Rogue River.

House Party at Nook—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murch, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, and Misses Lilabel Johnson and Lilabel Davis constituted a pleasant house party that were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Matson at "The Nook" over Sunday, returning to the city this morning.

Fishing Party—R. K. Booth, H. J. McKeown, J. G. Greeway and A. S. Hammond of Coquille composed a fishing party that went by auto Saturday night to Rock Creek. They had excellent luck and brought back a string of beauties as proof of their skill with rod and line.

The Curry Hen House—And now that famous Curry hen house that on Roseburg road, 30 acres of which are in orchard, consisting of 5 year old Gravenstein trees in fine condition. Price $4,500. $2,000 down and balance on time at 7 per cent per annum. Call or write J. O. Stemmler, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

was the cause of so much agitation, fermentation and damnation, and brought Inspector Tribbey and Curry both into the courts is to be torn down before it is scarcely completed. It stands on land that is to be filled by the dredge Oregon. As it looks to Curry life is just one damn shave after another.

Will Teach Model Class—Miss Smith of Portland, who is to be one of the Instructors in the Teachers' Institute held in Marshfield next month has written Mrs. P. M. Wilbur of the Primary Department of the Central school asking her to have a model class of twelve pupils ready for demonstration work. She will use this class twice each week to exemplify the primary work for the benefit of visiting teachers.

Extend Telephone Line—A telephone line is being extended to the Loon lake country. The long distance lines extend only from this city to Allegany and to some of the ranches beyond. The owners of the Coos Bay-Drain auto line have cooperated with the farmers and have started a new line which will run from Allegany through Loon lake to Scotsburg. An exchange will be maintained at Allegany.

Picnic at Charleston—A jolly crowd of picnickers went to Charleston bay yesterday on the launch Shamrock and enjoyed an outing at the beach. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Judge and Mrs. John F. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flye, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lando, Mrs. Leslie, Mrs. Lang, Mrs. E. Nasburg, Mrs. Cowan, Mabel Lang, Mary Hansen, Edna Lando, Ruth Cowan, Roxie Hall, Melvin Leslie, Amil Matson, Carl Holm, Frank Curtis, Robert Lang, Will Curtis.

Married in Eastside—Last Saturday Eastside was the scene of a very pretty wedding in which John M. Olson and Miss Ruth Minnie Smith were made man and wife, Rev. B. F. Bengtson, officiating. An interesting feature of the wedding was the fact that the marriage took place in the new home of the happy couple which the groom had completed for the event. The bride has long been a resident of Eastside and is known as a young lady of estimable character and many excellent qualities. The groom is an employe of the Smith mill and a man of sterling worth. Their many friends will unite in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Bandon's New Superintendent—H. L. Hopkins, a graduate from the University of Oregon with the class of 1893, has been elected City School Superintendent at Bandon, to succeed Superintendent H. C. Osteln, who has been elevated to a professorship at the Monmouth Normal School. The salary is $1200 a year. After graduation Mr. Hopkins took post graduate work at Oberlin College, Yale University and the University of Chicago, and then occupied several teaching posts, later becoming assistant president of Albany College at Albany, Or. For the last two years the new supervisor has been associated with his father in the lumber business. Miss Rodgers, who had been elected assistant principal, notified the board that she could not come, so Benjamin F. Cousins of Hadley, Pa., was elected assistant principal. The other high school teacher has not been secured.
