BORN.

CROOKS—To Mr. and Mrs. William Crooks at their camp in South Marshfield, Thursday, July 27, a boy. Mr. and Mrs. Crooks are vaudeville actors who are taking a summer outing camping trip along the coast coming to Coos Bay from California. They have appeared at the local theatres. Mother and child are doing well and the father says he is a headliner and his act is a "scream."

BLAIR—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair of North Bend, Thursday, July 27, a boy. Mother and child are doing nicely.

New Siren Whistle—North Bend has installed a siren whistle at the Porter mill for use as a fire alarm. The test of the signal will probably be made this week so undue alarm need not be felt if the whistle blows for some time.

Infant Dies—The three weeks old infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McIntosh of Bay City died at an early hour this morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Autos Busy—The Drain-Allegany auto carried a large number of passengers out today. Those engaging seats were Mrs. John Mitchell, Miss Zetta Mitchell, J. Lawyer, Yerrington, J. Carlson, J. A. Gamble, R. S. Edwards, W. C. Hay, M. B. Wake-man, R. L. Novel.

Closes Blind Pig—After a long and strenuous campaign prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist announces that he has succeeded in getting Jack Rans to abandon the "blind pig" business in the South Slough district. It is announced that there is to be no leniency shown to liquor law violators in the future.

Number Decision—Attorney General Crawford holds that numbers on the forward lights of automobiles were not necessary, but that on motorcycles the registration number must be displayed on the light. There was some question as to this matter, as the law seemed to be contradictory, and the question was submitted to the attorney general's office by Secretary of State Olcott.

Medford Visitors Here—Mr. Howard F. Dudley of Medford, and Mr. J. H. McKay, a prominent attorney of New York, came up the coast by automobile yesterday from Crescent City after making the trip from Medford to the coast. They are spending the day at Shore Acres as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson, and tomorrow will leave for the Umpqua valley via the Myrtle Point route. Mr. Dudley expects to return to the Bay soon and will probably make some investments in Coos Bay property.

Ate Raw Meat—John Kronholm recently returned from Eureka tells of an unusual incident there. A hunter who had killed a deer out of season and was taking a few choice pieces of venison with him was caught by the game warden. He was locked in a room while the warden went for a conveyance and the man began eating the raw deer meat thus hoping to destroy the evidence. When the game warden returned he had eaten considerable but was seized with convulsions and when John left he was still under the care of a physician.

Married Last Night—Warner V. Ogren and Miss Pearl Senter Craig were married last evening at eight o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents in South Marshfield. Only a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The Groom's popularity was responsible for an old-fashioned charivari but as the appreciation of the serenaders was prompt and generous it did not long continue. The happy couple left today on the Redondo for a three weeks' honeymoon in California. A generous shower of rice was given them as they embarked. Further details of the wedding will appear in the society department of The Times in tomorrow's issue.
