Baby Dead.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sandberg died at their home at Millington Saturday. The little one was only three weeks old. The funeral was held today.

Coos River Picnic.—A picnic party composed of A. H. Powers, Mrs. Powers, the Misses Powers, Arno Mee-reen, John Mee-reen, Miss Dunning, and the Misses Mee-reen spent Sunday at the McCormac bungalow on South Coos River. They made the trip in Mr. Powers' launch "Pacific."

Want Delivery.—Dr. J. T. McCormac, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has written the Oregon congressional delegation to hasten action on the matter of free mail delivery in Marshfield. Action on this was promised sometime ago, but somehow or other was delayed.

Boys in Bad Business.—Marshal Carter reports that much of the pilfering in the way of batteries and other small articles from boats and launches on the waterfront is being done by boys and unless it is stopped some fond hope of the family will find himself in the city jail and later on the way to the state reform school.

Picnic at Charleston.—A jolly party of picnickers spent the day at Charleston yesterday, fishing, crabbing and gathering rock oysters were the day's diversions. Those in the party were Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Miss Spence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Her-ron, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lando, Edna Lando, Mrs. Prentiss, John, Bee, Billy and Norman Wilson, Miss Flossy Maccabee, Jimmy Green and Jim Malley.

A New Record.—Sheriff Gage of Coos county, has established a record for early maturing of chickens which he claims has never been equalled in this locality. Three pullets began laying when about four months old. One laid her first egg when she was three months and 20 days old. Another was three months and 22 days, and another four months and six days. The eggs were set and chickens hatched. The eggs were very small, not much larger than quail eggs, and the chickens were proportionately tiny. The hens with the remarkable record for early laying were a mixture of Plymouth Rock and Rhode Island Red.

Many Picnics.—There were many picnic parties yesterday from the Coos Bay cities. A large number went to Allegany on the Unique and had grief getting home, the engine breaking down and the launch Telephone brought them back. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Morrissey, Mrs. Nellie Owen, Albert and Harold Haines, Marjorie and Mary Wilde Brownlee and Carl Everson. A large number went from Bay City on the Mabel H for the day. The launch Marshfield took a party of Marshfield people down and took some of them out over the bar.

FOR SALE OR TRADE.—A Columbia river fish boat—C. J. Van Zile, Phone 496, North Bend.

WANTED.—To rent good dairy ranch by experienced man. Address "F" care Times.

FOR SALE.—My farm 600 acres in one lot or will cut up in parcels to suit. C. W. Sanford, Marshfield.

AUTO LINE.—Cars at any time. Phone 231 R, after midnight 181X.

ENOCH ARDEN AT ORPHEUM.

Tonight is the big night at the Orpheum.

Manager Keller informs us that he will have an exhibition tonight a complete reproduction in two reels (2,000 ft.) of Lord Tennyson's poem entitled "Enoch Arden."

This picture will run over a half hour and is twice as long as the usual picture story. The price remains unchanged being only ten cents although the picture is far superior to any before shown here.

Personal Notes

WM. E. HOMME of Cooston is a Marshfield business visitor today.

H. C. DIERS of North Bend was a Marshfield business visitor today.

MR. and MRS. F. S. DOW and family spent Sunday up Coos River.

F. M. FRIEDBERG and C. K. Perry came down from Coos River this morning.

MISS GENEVIEVE TELLEFSON has taken a position in the Western Union office.

C. B. SELBY is expected home tomorrow from Portland by the overland route.

DR. J. T. McCORMAC, Coos county school supervisor, is visiting the districts above Allegany today.

OPERATOR BARSTOW of the United Wireless station and wife, returned today from a week's visit in Seattle.

CHAS STAUFF and wife and a number of relatives and friends enjoyed a picnic at the Sand Hills yesterday.

A. S. HAMMOND of Coquille passed through here today en route home from Portland where he has been on business.

W. T. MERCHANT and H. S. Tower returned this morning from Bullards where they spent Sunday at the Merchant ranch.

J. C. SAVAGE, editor of the Coquille Sentinel, is in Marshfield on business today. He has just returned from an outing trip.

MR. SWARTSER, a representative of the United States Geological survey arrived here today from Portland to gather coal statistics of the Coos county mines.

G. A. BENNETT has returned from an outing on Coos River and is wearing a coat of sunburn and tan that would make Andrew Carnegie and the other golfers turn green with envy.

J. T. HARRIGAN and wife returned today from a three weeks tour of Oregon and California. Their plans for the trip were slightly altered on account of the illness of Mr. Harrigan's father.

MISS ANNIE SMITH returned today from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, on Kentuck Inlet where she spent Sunday. Mr. Smith who sustained a stroke of paralysis some months ago, shows little change, being practically helpless.

WM. CANDLIN of Coquille is expected back the latter part of the week from Portland where he went to meet a nephew who arrived a few days ago from England. He has been writing magazine stuff and expects to locate on the coast.

ARTHUR WILLD, Eric Edlund and Amil Gidmark have left for the eastern part of Coos county to hunt deer and if they fill all the advance orders for tastes of venison, they will have to bring in several tons.

M. C. HORTON and daughters, Misses Ruth and Dorothy, returned today from a week's stay in Portland. They had a very enjoyable visit there. The day they left Portland, Miss Dorothy had the misfortune to lose her pocketbook but as she had spent all but eleven cents, she is not feeling half bad about it.

DR. A. J. HENDRY and his son, Dr. Roy R. Hendry, recently of Portland, have come to Coos Bay for the purpose of making their future home and will open up dental parlors in the Coke building opposite the Chandler hotel. Dr. A. J. Hendry and wife and son drove through from Portland in an automobile. They have rented one of the Sweetman houses in Ferndale where they will make their home.

COMMODORE C. F. McGEORGE of the good ship Noname, with his family and Dr. Alden and wife, made a trip to the pleasant picnic grounds near Allegany yesterday and had a most enjoyable outing. Some irresponsible party has dubbed the Commodore's boat "Get-There", but he says while that describes her qualities, she is going to have a finer name and there is to be a real launching and a bottle of real wine broken over her bow at the christening one of these days.
