

BANKER WILDE TO PORTLAND

Former Rose City Financier On Way North to Face Charges.

(Special to The Times.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Pursuant to his promise to the Oregon officers, Louts J. Wilde arrived in San Francisco this morning from San Diego. He will be taken to Portland immediately to be tried for the alleged embezzlement of $90,000 of the funds of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank.

In an interview Wilde says: "I have no fault to find with the courteous treatment accorded me by the officials of Oregon, as they have permitted me on my word of honor to meet them in San Francisco.

"My friends need not worry, because there is nothing in it. "I have no fear of the outcome of a just trial and I believe I will receive it even in Portland, when the better part of the press and the people calmly deliberate on the facts and probe into the real causes which led up to my indictment, and when the depositors of the old bank learn the truth that it was I and no one else that was responsible for them getting their money.

"As long as I have a dollar and a drop of blood I am going to fight to a finish."

Mr. Wilde has resigned the presidency of the American National Bank here and was succeeded by Joseph W. Sefton, Jr.

CITY WILL OWN LIGHT PLANT

Ashland, Ore., Council Revokes Electric Franchise For Municipal Ownership.

ASHLAND, Ore., July 31.—The city council dropped a bombshell in to the Ashland Electric Power & Light Company by revoking the ordinance which granted that company a franchise in 1889 to supply the city with electric light and power. Ashland's municipal plant will be in operation in a month, and by this move all competition will be excluded. The company is given until October 15 in which to remove all its poles, wires and other equipment.

Legal advice received by the city is to the effect that ordinance of 1889 is revocable. The move comes as a complete surprise to the local corporation.

GARRISON CASE UP AUGUST 5

Oregon Supreme Court Will Hear Appeal of Coos County Murderer.

The Oregon Supreme Court has fixed August 5 as the date on which the appeal in the case of Frank Garrison, under sentence of death for the murder of Roy Perkins. Judge Sehlbrede and R. O. Graves are now at Portland and will go from there to Salem to represent Garrison.

The appeal was taken after Judge Coke had refused a rehearing.

Judge Coke allowed the attorneys defending Garrison $50 for their work in the lower court and as the trial lasted nearly a week, their actual expenses more than ate up what they got out of it. The court also allowed $26 for the appeal brief but the attorneys have not yet received any allowance for their work in the lower court and as the trial lasted nearly a week, their actual expenses more than ate up what they got out of it.

MARSHFIELD 11; NORTH BEND 10

Travers Fire Laddies Larrup the NorthBenders In Interesting Game.

L. W. Traver and his Marshfield fire laddies made good their promise and returned with the scalps of the North Bend fire boys (al'h) for a time the result was hanging by eyebrows. The final score of 11 to 10 in Marshfield's favor is evidence of the narrow edge of which victory perched. In the sixth inning the score was 11 to 3 in Marshfield's favor but in that inning the North Bend swatters got busy and ran in seven scores. Loomis was urging the North Bend men on to further efforts while Traver was calling for water, police, help or anything to stop the slaughter. The rush was stopped just as the North Benders were trying to snatch victory from what was certain defeat and Marshfield was satisfied with a scalp although she was trying for a time to take scalp, hide and all.

The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Mfd.	0	2	0	1	2	4	0	1	1
N Bend	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	7

NEW COURSE FOR SCHOOLS

Supt. Alderman May Add Care of Milk and Fires to Curriculum.

A Salem dispatch says the three R's, famed for their place in pioneer public schools, will not be lost sight of in making out the new course of study, according to L. R. Alderman, superintendent of public instruction of Oregon.

The state food and dairy commission wants the care of milk after it reaches the consumer taught in the public schools.

The state forester wants a place given to forest fire prevention in the course of study.

Insurance companies are requesting that pupils be taught prevention of fires about buildings.

A multitude of other good and practical courses are being urged.

Superintendent Alderman takes the stand that the children must know how to read broadly, to write a good business letter and the essentials of arithmetic. These three things must be taught thoroughly and all extra time will be devoted to other practical subjects. He is weeding out every non-essential and trying to put the course on a solid foundation. Much industrial work is being included.

The course will be out next month and will be in closer harmony with the current needs of the state than any heretofore.

WYOMING ELK FOR OREGON

Herds to Be Taken By Government and Placed In This State.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., July 31.—Requests have been made by people interested in the propagation of big game animals for the transfer to Coos and Curry counties a large number of the Wyoming elk from the Jackson's Hole country, and Congressman W. C. Hawley, to whom the request has been made, is now working with the Interior Department at Washington in the hope of having the request granted. The mountains of this section of Oregon are ideal for the propagation of elk, and several thousand of the animals could find sustenance here. It is expected that the permission will be given by the Department and that several carloads of the animals will be selected from the Jackson's Hole herd next winter and shipped here to be turned into the mountains.

Union and Wallowa Also After Elk.

LA GRANDE, Ore., July 31.—Union and Wallowa counties, possessing large areas of mountain and timber, have been selected by the Interior Department at Washington for elk's preserves where the Wyoming elk will be propagated. The animals will be caught next winter during the deep snowfall in the Jackson's Hole country, care being taken to secure strong young animals, the pick of the huge herds gathered there for the winter months, and shipped to Northeastern Oregon by rail, to be turned into the mountains here. The conditions in this section of the state are said to be ideal for the propagation of these game animals.

PERSONAL OVERFLOW.

JAS COWAN, Jr., has gone to Curry county to be in on the first venison of the season there.

C. A. LANGWORTHY and family will leave tomorrow for the upper Coquille country for a few weeks' outing.

A. J. MENDEL is now in Chicago en route home from his eastern trip. E. E. JOHNSON of Coquille is in Marshfield on business.

NELSON MAY COME TO BAY

Former Lightweight Champion Would Like to Box Here —Terms Asked.

Battling Nelson, for years the star of the fistie arena, wants to come to Coos Bay and box Burns and Henderson. John Herron this morning received a telegram from the former lightweight champion offering to come.

The date or terms were not specified and Mr. Herron immediately wired him for his terms and if they are within reason, he will bring him here.

Nelson was the gamest fighter that ever entered the ring and held the championship until Ad Wolgast mastered him recently.

Every man on Coos Bay regardless of whether he was a close follower of the ring or not would undoubtedly welcome a chance to see the ex-champion spar here.
