FRANK SUMNER and Chester Isaacson are planning to leave soon for Dora for a short outing.

OLLA BOTTON and Ellene B. Rydell of Bandon are in Marshfield for a short stay.

HARRY MOHR, agent of the local railway, left today for his old home in Nebraska for an extended visit.

MRS. W. J. BUTLER and Miss Alice Butler will leave on the next Redondo for a month or six weeks visit at California points.

MISS LILABEL JOHNSON has returned from a week's visit at the Smedburg ranch and left for "The Nook" this afternoon.

W. J. CONRAD left today for the Coquille where he and J. O. Stemmler of Myrtle Point will endeavor to bag some big game.

C. P. BARNARD of Roseburg, proprietor of the stage lines, came over from Bandon today. He and his family are returning to Roseburg after a short outing.

CLAY CHURCH returned yesterday from his vacation trip into the mountains. Frank Howe, who accompanied him, will remain for another week.

W. U. DOUGLAS is moving into the First National Bank building, occupying the suite vacated by Judge Coke who will occupy other offices in the same building.

JESS DAY, the prize-fighter, returned last night from Astoria and Portland where he has been the last few months. His last bout was another draw with Berg on July 4.

MRS. NEIL BARNES and baby will return to Santa Barbara, Cal., on the next Redondo after an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers on South Coos River.

JOHN BONEBRAKE, who was formerly engaged in the jewelry business in Marshfield but who is located at Hillsboro now, is here to visit his brother Henry and other relatives and friends.

MRS. ELIZABETH ADAMS will leave Friday or Saturday for Portland where she will spend her vacation with her brother, C. J. Mahoney who is practicing law there.

A. E. MORTON of Libby was in Marshfield today. He reports that Walter Condon has a large force of men opening up the new highway through the O. C. & N. property from Eastport. The work is being done for Messrs. Kiernan & Lawyer, purchasers of the tract.

T. C. RUSSELL, superintendent of the Beaver Hill mines, was in Marshfield today on business. The development work on the new slope is being more or less delayed by the water in the old shaft sunk by R. A. Graham, through part of which the new slope extends.

Wind, Northwest; partly cloudy

Auto Party—Rudolph Lackstrom, Fred Nieme, Bee Wilson, and Charles Bowman left Monday night in Fred Nieme's car on a ten days' trip to Portland.

Coquille Wins—Word has been received here that the Coquille team defeated the Oakland team there the other day. Oakland dropped both games in the valley on this trip.

Fine New Home—The new home for R. E. Shine in Coquille will soon be completed and it will be one of the finest in the county, according to the Coquille Sentinel.

Will Move—Proprietor Blivens of the Marshfield Turkish Baths has leased the Maginnis house at the corner of Broadway and Park avenue and will probably move in this week.

Sells Property—Willis Neely of Parkersburg was in Marshfield yesterday and reports that he has disposed of his holdings on Bear Creek. He has not decided where he will locate.

Repair Tug—The tug Daring is at North Bend undergoing repairs to her boilers. She was to have towed the barge Carondelet to Portland but a leak caused her to give it up and another tug was sent for.

Few Salmon—As yet the salmon run here continues very light. It is strange as the Columbia river is having the biggest run in years and then it is the fourth-year since a large number of young salmon were turned loose in Coos River and they should be returning.

Won't Go—Del Hennessey has practically decided not to avail himself this year of Judge McCredie's offer for a tryout on the Portland Northwest League team. R. O. Graves spoke to Judge McCredie about Del's playing and the result was an offer from the magnate to young Hennessey.

To Hood River—Hugh McLain leaves tomorrow for Hood River, Oregon, where he will bid on the installation of a new municipal water plant for that city. That Mr. McLain will get the big contract is the hope of his many friends here who are confident that he will be able to do a high class work that will be more than satisfactory.

Fight on Street—Two Marshfield men yesterday afternoon engaged in a lively fight at Front and Commercial and considerable blood was spilled before they were separated. No arrests were made and their names could not be obtained. From remarks made during the struggle, it was thought that one was trying to beat the other up because the latter had testified against him in some case.

Buy's Meat Market—J. E. Fozd for several years manager of Gamble's Union market in Marshfield, and Gus Risky, who has been an employe in the same market, have removed to Bandon where they have purchased the Lewin's market and assumed charge this week. Peter Dungle has succeeded Fozd as manager of the Union market in this city.
