Postpone Trip.—The moonlight excursion of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church which was scheduled for Saturday evening has been indefinitely postponed on account of the absence from the city of a number of the members.

Had Collision.—Mr. Miller, the painter was riding down Front street this morning on his motor-cycle when he collided with the Stauff delivery auto. He luckily escaped without injury but the motor-cycle was damaged somewhat.

Postpone Meeting.—The Baptist young people have postponed their regular monthly business meeting until Friday night, Aug. 11. It was to have been held tonight at Mrs. E. C. Drew's home but was postponed on account of the Baptist picnic.

Schroeder Home Burns.—News has reached here that the old Judge Henry Schroeder home at Arago, one of the oldest fine residences of Coos county was destroyed by fire this week. In early days it was the scene of many a festive gathering of the pioneers.

South Marshfield Dry.—The water company will install a new water hydrant in South Marshfield at Sixth and Elrod streets tomorrow morning. All water in South Marshfield will be shut off between the hours of 8 to 10 o'clock. Consumers are warned in advance to prepare for the drouth.

Large Lettuce Head.—J. J. Clinkinbeard brought in from his Daniel's Creek place this week a head of lettuce that looks like a successful candidate for the Coos county championship. It measures 39 inches in circumference, 24 inches in diameter and weighs 5 1/2 pounds. It is on exhibition at the Bazar.

Sells Restaurant.—The O. K. chop house was sold today by W. N. Warren to Peter McGale, who assumed immediate charge of the establishment. Mrs. Warren who was recently called away by the serious illness of her mother, has been detained by the illness of her father, and as it was uncertain when she would be able to return Mr. Warren deemed it best to dispose of the restaurant.

Water Franchise.—Messrs. Nolan and Jackson will meet with members of the Marshfield city council and the North Bend city council at the city council chamber this evening to discuss water franchises. The meeting will be informal as it is Messrs. Nolan and Jackson's intention to endeavor to ascertain what the city officials think would be a reasonable franchise. No official action can be taken on it.

ver, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worrel returns Sunday to her home.
