We Want Everyone in Coos County to Know

That everything is done by us that possibly can be done to make our services exceptionally satisfactory and honest in every way. We give each individual customer exactly what he or she asks for without any arguments connected with it. We will not under any consideration substitute one article for another. Every article sold by us is of a quality which will bear the closest investigation, and besides these points, we want each resident of this city to know that our prices will be always reasonable. We are going to give our customers what they ask for at our store; we are going to give them the best that the market affords. We are going to give them these goods at as low a price as it is possible to produce the goods for. On these terms we solicit your patronage.

MRS. WARREN PAINTER of North Bend was a Marshfield shopper yesterday.

CLAUDE H. GILES of Myrtle Point is looking after business interests on the Bay.

C. S. WINSOR and L. F. Falkenstein of North Bend were Marshfield visitors last evening.

MRS. MORSE and Miss Nettle Morse of Empire were in Marshfield today on business and pleasure.

SHERIFF GAGE came over from Coquille on business today. There is nothing new in criminal matters.

FRED TELLER of San Francisco is a guest at "The Nook", J. Albert Matson's summer home on Coos River.

BERT GOULD passed thru the city yesterday on his way from Coquille to visit at the old ancestral home in Allegany.

MISS LILABEL JOHNSON, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. S. Bargett the last few days, left yesterday for a short stay with Mrs. J. Albert Matson on Coos River.

JAY B. TOWER is confined to his home by an attack of tonsillitis.

MISS LOLA COLLIVER of Catching Inlet who underwent an operation yesterday at the Mercy hospital, is reported getting along nicely.

MRS. J. T. McCORMAC, Mrs. M. C. Maloney and daughter Louise left yesterday for the McCormac summer home on South Coos River.

TOM BENNETT and Claude Nasburg expect to leave shortly for Portland and other northern points where they will spend their vacation.

MRS. HARRY MOFFATT, formerly Miss Anne Flanagan, who is here from San Francisco, left today for the C. F. McCollum home on South Coos River.

A. J. MENDEL, who has been making an extended eastern tour, has wired Chas Fensler that he will reach Coos Bay about Wednesday or Thursday.

MRS. C. H. WILSON and daughter, Thelma Lorraine, will leave on Breakwater Friday for an extended visit with relatives in Spokane and points in Idaho.

CARL LATTIN and Reynold Lears returned last night from a ten-day hunt on Trout Creek above Allegany. They got three deers, one bear and a wild cat.

MRS. J. T. HALL and Miss Elsie Hall returned Saturday from Coquille where they spent a week with Mrs. Walter Sinclair and other relatives and friends.

J. R. SMITH came down today from North Bend where he has been visiting L. J. Simpson and other friends. He plans to leave tomorrow for San Francisco.

F. S. DOW has returned from a trip to Bandon and reports that everybody there is keyed up to the highest anticipation over the bright prospects of striking oil at the Bear Creek well.

R. O. GRAVES has written Justice Penneck that he will return to the Bay from Portland the latter part of this week. He will bring his new law books with him and says that he is expecting to learn some very gratifying railroad news soon.

J. D. GOSS has written J. C. Kendall that he left Hudson, Wis., for Coos Bay a few days ago. However, he will stop at a number of places en route, including Hutchinson, Kas., so that he probably cannot reach here before the last of the month.

C. BEARY, who has been engaged as a gunsmith and locksmith here for several years, will leave Saturday with his family for Kelseyville, Cal., where they will make their future home. Their departure from the Bay will be regretted by the friends they have made during their stay here.

GEO. N. BOLT and wife and son, Ed, spent Sunday at the J. J. Clinkinbeard home on Daniels Creek. Mr. Bolt says it is one of the finest country homes he has visited in a long time, a spring furnishing the supply for a waterworks system and providing power to run various machinery. They have a telephone, a hot and cold water system in the house and are now arranging to install a small dynamo to be run by water power, to furnish electric lights, thus adding the last of modern conveniences to their home.

Welcome Boston.—A meeting of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce will be held at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of arranging a public welcome and reception in honor of the cruiser Boston on her arrival on Coos Bay. It is likely that all of the Marshfield business houses will close for a half a day in honor of the event.

Honor McGeorge.—Someone, evidently a member of the Alliance crew, gave a Portland paper an item to the effect that Commodore C. F. McGeorge had one of the speed boats on Coos Bay. The item resulted in his getting a write up in a motor boat magazine and in receiving an invitation from the Astoria regatta to enter the "Get-There" in the big races there. This was the first intimation that Mr. McGeorge had that his little pleasure boat had unusual speed properties.

BORN.

VIERS—To Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Viers at their home in Ferndale, a daughter, Monday, August 7.

Schofield Won.—The schofield baseball team defeated Lakeside at Lakeside Sunday by a score of seventeen to thirteen. There was a big attendance.

Play Sunday.—North Bend and Sumner will play at Sumner next Sunday and a red hot game is expected. Both teams will be materially strengthened for the game.

Picnic Sunday.—President Ness and Commissary Bargett of the Crab club are arranging for the first annual picnic of the organization to be held at Charleston next Sunday.

Resigns Place.—C. R. Langley, who recently resigned as manager of the Coos Bay Home Telephone company, is now in San Francisco and may locate there. His successor has not been chosen.

No Deer Yet.—A telephone message from Tom Hall, who has been hunting big game in the vicinity of Eckley is to the effect that two "cotton tails" is all he had bagged up to that time.

Moonlight Picnic.—The members of the Marshfield Alumni society, consisting of the graduates of the four-year high school course, last evening enjoyed a moonlight picnic to Jordan's Cove. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Golden chaperoned the event.

Causes Excitement.—Yesterday afternoon, W. K. Wiseman's delivery horse slipped and fell on the pavement at the corner of Broadway and Market. She broke the thills and the wagon ran up against her, the jagged shafts piercing her. She tried to kick but Wiseman, R. C. Cordes and others stopped her.

Get Eight Deer.—Jas Cowan writes that the Coos Bay outing party of which he is a member in Curry county, is having a fine time. Last Friday, they bagged their eighth deer. Among those in the party besides Mr. Cowan are Geo. Rotnor, Walter Lawhorne, Frank Denning and wife, H. A. Wells and wife.
