Official Paper of Coos County

THE EVERLASTING CONFLICT.

THERE never seems to be an end to fighting, either in public affairs or private. No sooner is one reform accomplished than another rises to be achieved.

The real philosophy of success, and its deep meaning and abiding worth were set forth by Walt Whitman when he said: "It is provided in the essence of things that from any fruition of success, no matter what, shall come forth something to make a greater struggle necessary."

RECALL IN CURRY COUNTY.

The Gold Beach Globe clipped an editorial from The Times advising Coos county residents not to sign the Judge Coke recall petition and adds the following:

"What is good advise for Coos and Lane counties, is certainly good for Curry. If there has been a recall petition in this county we have not heard of it, if there were, we don't believe there could be found a half dozen men in the county that would besmirch their names by signing it."

APPRECIATES COOS BAY TIMES.

(From Gold Beach Globe.) During the past six weeks three or four numbers of one of our most valued exchanges, the daily Coos Bay Times, has reached our table. It is a deplorable condition of affairs without a shadow of an excuse for anyone, and if we can learn where the fault lies, will promise the gully ones free space in The Globe with vengeance.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 9.—Lawrence Swanson, 21 years old, of Yakima, Wash., was killed near Green River, Wyo., when he fell under a train while en route east with a shipment of sheep.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY OCCURS.

Rejected Suitor Kills Bride of Three Weeks and Himself. (By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 9.—Mrs. A. J. Grant who was married in San Francisco three weeks ago and came here with her husband to live, was shot and killed by Emil Holst, a rejected suitor, who immediately committed suicide. The shooting occurred in Mrs. Grant's apartments.

RETURNS BOY TO PARENTS

Kidnapers of Italian Lad in Chicago Promises to Bring Him Back Home Today

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 9.—"Angelo is coming home today," said a sister of the Mareno lad who was kidnaped recently and for whose return $5,000 was demanded. The police believe the boy's father reached some agreement with the kidnapers.

Chief of Police McSweeney stated he learned that Antonio Mareno, father of the kidnaped boy, had an interview with the alleged "blackhanders" at dawn and that he expected to make an arrest tonight.

LANGE BEATS SQUIRES.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

BRISBANE, Australia, Aug. 9.—Bill Lange defeated Bill Squires in the fifth round for the heavy-weight championship of Australia.

SAYLOR IS NAMED.

Will Be Receiver of Public Money in Seattle.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—President Taft today sent to the Senate the nomination of Albert Saylor, to be receiver of public money in Seattle.

TRAIN KILLS FOUR.

Two Others Injured In Utica Crossing Accident.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 8.—A train struck a wagon near here, killing four. Two others were injured.

CAROUSAL ENDS FATALLY.

One Italian Killed and One Wounded by Unknown Man.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 8.—As the climax of a carousal of Italians, Romeo Roseo was shot dead and Antonio Monotito was wounded by an unidentified man who escaped.

SHAKER SAM DEAD.

Noted Indian Passes Away Suddenly Near Olympia.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 9.—Mud Bay Sam, head of the Shaker sect among the Indians of the Pacific northwest, died suddenly at Mud Bay, near Olympia of convulsions from something he had eaten. He was a robust man of sixty years of age. The Shaker religion of the Indians differs from the same sect as known to the whites. It was founded in early 80's by John Slocum and wife who lived at Union and is said to have done a great deal for the uplift of the Indians.

Maybe Horse Thief.—Marshal Carter today arrested a stranger giving the name of Harry Smith, who is supposed to be wanted at Roseburg for the theft of a horse and buggy. He was arrested while trying to sell the horse and buggy here.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS. COOS COUNTY FAIR.

News of the Upper Coquille as Told By The Enterprise.

W. D. Newton was up from his ranch between Arago and Fishtrap the first of the week. Mr. Newton has disposed of some over 1,000 gallons of fresh berries this season, principally Logans, the larger portions being marketed at the Bandon and on the Bay. The gentleman stated that he could no doubt have sold 2,000 gallons more had he the fruit.

W. C. Conner, who established and was for a number of years publisher of the Enterprise, now editor of the Leader at Cottage Grove, rode in on a bicycle last Thursday evening and visited for a couple of days with his sister, Mrs. Will Lundy. He also visited Bandon and Coquille before going out Tuesday. We understand the gentleman has aspiration to again enter the journalistic field in this county.

The 50,000 cans which the cannery company has ordered are expected to arrive any day, and Processor Etris states that the plant will be started some day next week probably on the 10 of this month. The string beans will be canned first, after which runs will be made on apples and other fruits.

Claude Giles says that they raise large turnips in his father's garden. He measured one that he pulled up the other day and found it to be 27 inches in circumference. Who can beat this for raising vegetables?

Mrs. J. F. Strong was called to Bandon last week by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Holbeck.

A big teachers Institute is to be held at Port Orford in Curry county August 23, 24, 25. Governor West and State Superintendent of Instruction, J. H. Ackerman are expected to be present at the meeting and deliver addresses.

Married—At high noon, Sunday, July 30th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Widby, near this city, Miss Elvira Widby to Mr. Frank L. Miller of this city. Rev. Wm. Chandler officiating.

J. J. Endicott of this city, Wednesday received a letter bearing the sad message announcing the death of four of his relatives in Indiana. His eldest sister, Mrs. Maria Davis of Russellville, who was close to ninety years of age, died June 21st, 1911. Her son, Linn Davis, having died May 5th, 1911. A nephew, Frank Endicott of Darlington, Ind., died July 2nd, 1911, and a niece, Julia Smith, also of Darlington, died July 5th, 1911.

DRAIN VIEW OF IT.

People There Stirred Up Over Losing Coos Bay Line. The Drain "Nonpareil" says: "Our community has been somewhat stirred up this week over a story published in the leading newspapers having all the earmarks of authenticity regarding a railroad to the coast, and its supposed detriment to our own road to Coos Bay. We are not alarmed, however, at the terrible story. If it serves no other good purpose, it will advertise our locality to the world that at least three different parties with money to burn are striving to head off the other to reach a given point.

"But as for the people of this vicinity, don't squeal before you are hurt, and turn over on your backs like a turtle and flop your flippers to no use. Turn to the betterment of your own town, improve your streets, improve your roads, build sewers, improve your water plant, establish your electric lights, and create power to move, push the movement to create the Umpqua port of entry and you will be fulfilling your destiny."

BANDON NAVAL RESERVES.

The 5th Division of Oregon Naval Militia was organized in Bandon last night with 38 men enlisting. Dr. Straw, commanding the Marshfield Division was organizing officer, and the following officers were elected for the Bandon Division: Dr. L. P. Sorensen, lieutenant commanding; Dr. Smith J. Mann, division surgeon, and E. S. Gear, ensign and drill master.—Bandon Recorder.

Organization Effected at Myrtle Point to Forward It.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Aug. 9.—The fair association meeting was held at the city hall last Saturday afternoon, twenty prominent ranchers and business men being present. K. H. Hanson called the meeting to order and L. A. Roberts acted as secretary. A permanent organization effected by electing R. C. Dement, president; L. A. Roberts, secretary and J. R. Benson, treasurer, of the body to be known as the Coos County Fair Association. The secretary was instructed to correspond with Curry county parties and invite them to join the association, in which case the name will be changed to Coos Curry County Fair Association before it is finally incorporated.

FOUR NEARLY DROWN.

Last Friday night, Rev. F. J. Chaburn and daughter Kate, and Chauncey and Eunice Carpenter had a narrow escape from drowning in the Coquille river just below Prosper, by the upsetting of a small gasoline launch in which they were riding, and only for the fact that Mr. Chaburn and Chauncey were both excellent swimmers, the whole quartet would probably have gone down.—Bandon Recorder.
