COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat Events as Told by The Herald.

George Madison, late of Roseburg has purchased the photo studio of J. H. Stadden in this city.

Mrs. Phoebe Whetstone, a pioneer lady of this city, goes to Portland by the next Breakwater to make her future home.

Died—On the South Fork, six miles from Myrtle Point, August 7, 1911, William Warner, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Warner. Interment took place in the Warner cemetery on the South Fork Tuesday forenoon.

A. R. Jones who had the misfortune to get his back dislocated and other severe bruises by being thrown from a wagon and run over, was able to be moved from the home of G. T. Robinson to that of Nite Miller Sunday. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

John Kinney from Missouri who had been visiting friends here started for home Saturday. He was accompanied to the bay by L. A. Pinkston with whom he had visited. Mr. Kinney is a U. S. mail clerk operating between St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. S. A. Moore of Whittier, California, is at Bandon on a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Rogers. Mrs. Moore is meeting many old Coos county friends whom she became acquainted with while residing here and at Coaledo.

J. A. Yoakam has closed a contract with H. L. Johnson, the late purchaser of the Von Pegert place two miles up the river, for a large barn on the place. He will also build a garage for Mrs. Dr. Owen's new automobile.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat News As Told by The Sentinel.

Bandon is fated to lose their widely advertised twirler, Guy Dipple, the only ball player on the team, left Tuesday for Medford where he expects to locate.

Ed. Ellingsen and H. E. Shelly have contracted to build a two story, 44 by 100 foot barn on A. T. Bestul's ranch about 3 miles south of town. When completed the barn will be one of the largest in Coos county.

Married—At the judges office, in this city, July 29th, 1911, Mr. Leo Schnur and Miss Minnie Inez Gilbert, both of Bandon, Coos county, Oregon; Judge E. G. D. Holden officiating.

J. P. Lewis and Bert Horner have disposed of their meat market on Front street to Emil Ogren, of Marshfield, who has taken charge. Lewis says that Eugene looks good to him and that if he can find a satisfactory location he will make it his future home.

Miss Gertrude Johnson was agreeably surprised Wednesday night by the miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Fred Linegar and Miss Eva Schroeder at the home of the later in honor of her marriage to George Luedkie a prominent dry-goods merchant of Healdsburg, California.

WHO WERE THEY?

Port Orford Tribune Tells of Bad Plight of Bandon Men.

We are informed that Game Warden Morgan arrested five prominent Bandon citizens at Sevenmile, August 4. From testimony brought out in court at Coquille before Judge Holden the carcass of one spotted fawn about the size of a jack rabbit was found in the camp of these Bandon citizens. Two of whom were church trustees and another a minister. The green hide of another fawn was found—one had been eaten. The party had 3 dogs, said they were bear hunting, had been out 5 days, but 2 fawns were all that was killed. Party claims a little boy in camp killed one fawn, but did not know how the skin of the other one came to be in camp.—Port Orford Tribune.

DR. CLARKE OF PORTLAND, CHIROPRACTOR, will GIVE treatment and diagnosis FREE from now UNTIL AUGUST 17. Office at the LLOYD HOTEL.

COQUILLE PAPER CHANGES.

D. F. Dean Trades Herald For Cottage Grove Leader.

The Herald is to have a new editor, and manager next week. W. C. Conner, founder of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, and for seven or eight years editor and manager of the Roseburg Plaindealer, and for about the same length of time that of the Cottage Grove Leader, has swapped the latter paper for the Herald and is due here in a few days to take charge. C. O. Dryden, for a number of years the job man in this office, is now at Cottage Grove looking after the interests of the Leader, and it is our purpose to join him this week to take up our duties in that city. While we regret to leave Coos county at this time, its prospects just now being the brightest in its history, we feel it is for the best interests of our family to make a change. We will watch with deepest interest the movements along the lines of general improvement, development and enterprise we hope to be able to come in by rail when returning on a visit to see old friends and get a breath of salt air. Mr. Conner, the new manager of the Herald is a man of ability and sterling qualities and will merit a generous and liberal patronage at the hands of our business men and citizens generally.—Coquille Herald.

Cannery Starts.

F. S. Dow returned last evening from a business trip to Myrtle Point. He reports that the new cannery there started the season yesterday, opening on beans. There is a big crop of beans for it to handle and the people there are enthusiastic over the prospect of a very successful season for it.

SKELTONS WELL PRESERVED.

While excavating for the new boat house the life saving crew unearthed two Indian skeletons, one of which was in a wonderful state of preservation, the entire skull being perfectly whole, the lower jaw attached and every tooth in place. The bone, however, was somewhat decomposed, and after being subjected to the air was somewhat broken up.—Bandon Recorder.

PLAN BIG MEETING.

W. C. T. U. Arranges For Session In Marshfield Aug. 24.

The W. C. T. U. which held a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church at North Bend had the following program:

Song, "Stand Up For Jesus," congregation—Mrs. Geo. Hazler, pianist. Scripture reading—Mrs. Wm. Nelson.

Invocation—Mrs. Robt. McCann.

Reports from the different unions that were represented.

A short business meeting was held in which plans were made to hold a convention in Marshfield, August 24. It is to be an all day session with Mrs. Robbins from Portland as the principal speaker.

The visitors from other unions were as follows: Mrs. Ora McCarty, Mrs. Fannie Wheeler and Mrs. Helen Downs of Marshfield, Mrs. Maude Watkins of Cedars, Mrs. Martin Breen and Miss Anna Lund of Eastside.

LABOR WINS POINT.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 11.—Organized labor won a signal victory when Comptroller of the Treasury Tracewell construed the last naval appropriation act to mean that "every" employe in shipyards where government vessels are being built must be given an eight-hour day.

THE CLEW.

Life is a clearing in a wood
Where stays midnight the soul—a thrush—
Bathes in the beam and finds it good,
Peepes with song the solitude,
Then, singing, darts the dark, the hush.

HUGH M'LAIN IS BOOSTING

MARSHFIELD MAN TELLS PORTLAND PAPER OF RAPID DEVELOPMENT IN COOS BAY COUNTRY.

The Portland Oregonian prints the following: "Coos Bay people already are discounting the progress that will be made in that district as the result of the construction of the railroad from Eugene to Marshfield, as announced by the Southern Pacific Company last week.

Hugh McLain, a pioneer contractor and business man of Marshfield, who was in Portland with the Naval Reserve Band of that city yesterday, declared that harbor improvements, new buildings, street improvements, public-service facilities and numerous other advantages will be provided even before the railroad is built. The principal need of Marshfield now is an improved harbor. The citizens there have provided $300,000 for carrying on that work.

The farming districts, too, are preparing to profit by the coming of the railroad. More extensive and more diversified agriculture will be the result. The railroad will aid in the development of the great timber areas near Coos Bay. As fast as the wood is cleared from the land it will be opened for cultivation.

Because of the absence of railroads the public highways in Coos county are better than the average in Oregon, as they are the only means of transportation, but railroad construction will result in increased travel and consequently in a demand for better roads.

"Although we have had frequent promises of a railroad," said Mr. McLain, "the announcement of Mr. O'Brien last week is the first thing that we have been able to bank on. We know it is a sure thing this time, as he speaks with authority and is not in the habit of making rash statements. Coos Bay people are elated over the prospects, and are looking forward to increased prosperity through opening of the line."

LIBRARY NOTES.

FOUR THINGS.

Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true—
To think without confusion clearly,
To love his fellow men sincerely,
To act from honest motives purely,
To trust in God and heaven securely.
—Henry van Dyke.

We should be glad to receive donations of old or new books in foreign languages, especially Swedish, Norwegian, German and French.

"There is no public institution quite as broad in its possibilities of public service as the free public library in America, and especially the free library of the small town."

The report for July shows a circulation of 922, very good considering the number of persons who were away on their vacations. Our total registration is now $35.

The quotation is from an article in the Independent for August 3rd, by John Cotton Dana, librarian of the Newark, N. J., library, which is well known as one of the best and most progressive in the United States. The article is finely illustrated, and gives a correct idea of library work.

A number of the teachers attending the Institute have visited the library. We hope to see more of them. The library and the teacher are fast learning to work together. Teachers are invited to look over our collection of children's books of history, biography and travel, and the collection on education.

AN IRISH TUNE.

Will you listen to the laugh of it
Gushing from the fiddle?
More's the fun in half of it
That e'en an Irish riddle,
Sure it's not a fiddle's bow
That's making sport so merry,
It's just the fairies laughing so,
I heard them oft in Kerry.

Will you listen to the stop of it?
Faith, that tunces it a daisy.
Just the very keep of it
Would make the feet unaisy,
Hold your tongues, ye noisy rogues,
And stop your giddy prancing!
It's me can hear the weeaboo brogues
Of Irish fairies dancing.

Will you listen to the tune of it,
Sweeter than the nosey?
I'd rather hear the croon of it
Than get a miser's nosey,
Sure, my son, it makes me cry,
But don't play any other
May God be with the days gone by
I danced it with your mother!
—Hugh F. Blunt
