Mrs. Smith of Marshfield and her daughter Florence, (Mrs. Hawse) have spent most of their time since arriving here on Agate Beach, the most western beach of our country, and one of the richest in scenery. They are finding some gems, are storing up health, and are happy as two school girls let out to play. Mrs. Smith is one-third owner of the Luse property, between the town and our beautiful lake.—Port Orford Tribune

Harry Tremaine, whose wife is well-known on the Bay as Miss Helen Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chandler, has located at Vancouver, B. C., where they will make their home. He is now erecting a fine new residence there.

Miss Laura Kruse of North Bend and Dr. and Mrs. Cathey of Portland are camping for a few weeks in the mountains near Corvallis. Miss Kruse will not return to the Bay for several weeks.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society of North Bend met at the home of Mrs. Charles Murr on Thursday. The afternoon was given up to a discussion of topics concerning the work of the society and sewing. A most enjoyable and helpful meeting was the result. Among those present were: Mrs. L. F. Fajkenstein,

Mrs. W. Simpson, Mrs. George Mandigo, Mrs. Bessie Miller, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Mende, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Chas Murr and Mrs. Hazer.

Frank Sumner and wife left this week for their annual outing which they will spend in "Epworth League" camp near Dora. This is the name given the camp where Rev. Rutledge and a number of Marshfield people are enjoying their outing. Leslie Isaacson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Sumner.

Miss Edith M. Dunning and the Misses Doris and Edith Meece returned this week to their home at Berkeley, Cal., after spending the summer here with Mr. Meece.

Arthur McKeown and wife entertained a number of the South Coos River summer residents at a clam and fishbake Thursday evening at their home at The Maze.

Mrs. F. C. Birch served tea to a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon. Sewing was the principal diversion.

Willis H. Kennedy and wife left today for a short stay at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larson, on Larson's Inlet.

Edgar Mauzey returned yesterday from a deer hunt in Curry county. His party got eight nice ones and he reports that they are very plentiful in the Pistol river section. Chas. Hickox who was with him will return about August 15.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid Society of North Bend held a well attended meeting last Wednesday at the Victor Anderson home. As visitors there were present Mrs. and Miss Lagerstrom, Mrs. Oren, Mrs. Cronquist, Lena Lund, all of Marshfield.

Most of those in attendance at the annual session of the Coos county institute now in progress here left this morning for an outing and picnic at Charleston. Besides those taking the launch from here, Dr. McCormac and family made the trip by auto and a number of teachers joined the excursion at North Bend. Among those leaving from Marshfield this morning were: S. F. Ball, Mae Blake, Emily D. Blake, Rose Lillie, Blanche Radley, Essie L. Butler, Naomi Root, Doris El Williams, Metta E. Hansen, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Raker, Miss Widby, Nettie Belloni Iva Howey, Mary Gene Smith, Etta James, Hazel I. Matthews, Della L. Clinton, Susie Neer, Florence McCracken, Florence Robbins, Helen Robbins, Irene Weekley, Cora Miller, Iva Williams, Chloe Buell, Mrs. Wilbur, Ida B. Mitchell

Mrs. W. R. Haines has been quite sick the past few days but is reported improving today.

Misses Rita Keane and Madge Barry will leave next week for California where Miss Keane will resume her course at the University of California and Miss Barry will resume her course at San Rafael.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church gave a moonlight ride last Wednesday night. The party gathered at the church and went from there in a body to the wharf where the Shamrock was waiting for them. About 8 o'clock they started down the bay and after a most delightful ride stopped at Jordan's Cove. A large bonfire was built immediately, around which games were played until lunch time. After lunch singing and story-telling made the time pass all too quickly and everyone regretted when the clock indicated that it was time to start for home. All unite in saying that this was one of the most successful social affairs that the league has given this year. Among those going were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon, Miss Jameson, Miss Helen Estes, Miss Henrietta Estes, Miss Ruth Allen, Miss Harriet Hansen, Miss Josephine Eddy, Miss Gertrude Harcourt, Miss Bertha Fox, Miss Irene Preuss, E. H. Joehnk, Mr. Arthur Drews, Mr. Eric Bolt, Mr. E. H. Campbell, Mr. H. Lashway and Mr. J. D. Sinel.

Miss Pearl Riggs, a well-known Marshfield young woman and daughter of J. W. Riggs, has been acclaimed the prettiest girl in Portland. The honor was won in a beauty contest conducted in the Portland Daily News. In announcing the result of the contest, the News prints the following which will be of interest to the young woman's many friends on the Bay:

"Manager John F. Cordray, of The Oaks: The Daily News wants to present to you Miss Pearl Riggs, the 'prettiest girl in Portland.'"

"Miss Riggs—Mr. Cordray."

"That's the way the famous Oaks beauty contest stands. Miss Pearl Riggs has been acclaimed winner of the contest. Miss Nellie Angier comes a close second. Miss Riggs lives at 250 McMillan street."

"It took just 10 ballots for the judges to decide the winner and then the voting stood 38 for Miss Riggs, 36 for Miss Angier. Out of the 2,500 pictures submitted, two of the judges gave Miss Riggs first place, one gave her fourth position, one seventh and one third. Miss Angier received a first, a second and three fifth places."

"Miss Riggs is 21 years of age and is a native Oregonian. She was informed this morning of her success and said how delighted she was. Her picture was stolen from her room and sent in and though she was frightfully indignant—frightfully—then, she was now too pleased for words. Preliminary to a public presentation of the ring, Miss Riggs tried it on in the Heitkemper store and pronounced it a "gem." It was a perfect fit. Then she had some pictures taken. They are printed today."

"Next Manager Cordray met Miss Riggs and presented her with a season ticket to The Oaks. She will be at the big amusement park next Sunday afternoon, but more will be told of that later. The judges who carefully examined the 2,500 pictures, were: Mayor Rushlight, Sheriff Stevens, C. N. Ryan, George L. Baker and Frank Coffinberry. Mr. Coffin very kindly consented to act at the last minute as Judge Gettens had left the city."

land Journal, presents the following review of the Progress club of Marshfield: "True to its name and reputation, the Progress club of Marshfield is the first to present its year book for the next club year. It comes in dainty shades of blue and gold, and is a convenient and comfortable size. The first meeting of the club is scheduled for September 25, and it will be opened with a lunch, the day being announced by the very appropriate quotation from Ruskin, 'The pain of parting is nothing to the joy of meeting again.'"

The beginning of the study year will be on October 9, when 'Noted Dead of 1910-11,' will be the subject, led by Mrs. W. M. Blake. Roll call will be responded to by quotations from Mark Twain. On October 23, Mrs. I. Lando will speak on 'Famous Canals and Their Builders,' with a roll call of current events. Mrs. R. T. Street will give 'A Day With Dickens,' and roll call responses from the same author. Mrs. E. G. Flanagan will lead in a discussion of American novelties. On this day there will be no roll call, and in its stead the club constitution will be read. This is a most excellent idea and one that might be adopted with profit by other clubs. Several times during the year this forms a feature on the program.

December 4, Mrs. J. M. Upton will give 'A Day With Oregon Authors,' and the roll call will name historic places in Oregon.

'Home, the Nursery of the Infinite,' is the motto for December 18, when Mrs. I. S. Kaufman will talk on 'Woman in the Home.' 'Your most helpful recipe' must be told on that day when the member's name is called.

'The American Indian' will be discussed on January 8 by Mrs. Turpen. Mrs. H. Sengstacken will, on January 22, address the club on 'Mural Decorations.' Again on this date the constitution will be read, replacing the roll call.

'Modern Dramatists' will be the subject of a paper by Mrs. M. C. Maloney on February 5, and each member must name her favorite play and actor when her name is called. 'The Jew in History and Fiction,' will be discussed by Mrs. C. W. Tower, and very appropriately the roll call will be quotations from the Bible. Mrs. H. S. Tower will, on March 5, talk on 'Oriental Rugs and Antiques,' and an exhibit of antiques will be held. On March 19, Mrs. M. C. Horton will read a paper on 'Recent Ethical Movements,' and current events will be the roll call subject.

An interesting day is promised on April 2. Mrs. J. W. Ingram will speak on 'Easter Customs in Many Countries.' The roll call will be responded to by Easter quotations. Mrs. John Lafon will give an address on April 16, on 'Famous Women of the French Salon,' with quotations from French authors. 'Places of Interest in the Orient' will be discussed on

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Geo. H. Wilson Denies Goble Murder at Rainier.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 12.—Two pleas of not guilty were entered by George H. Wilson when arraigned in the Superior Court today on separate charges of murder in the first degree for the alleged killing of Archie Goble and wife while they were sleeping in their home at Rainier, July 10. The date of the trial was not set but counsel for the defense stated he would let the case go over until the regular October jury term.

April 30 by Mrs. R. E. Browning, and the roll call will be responded to by quotations from Confucius. This will conclude the study work for the year, May 14 being the business meeting and May 28 the 'Feast.'

It is doubtful if any club in the state will excel this program. The topics are all good and the work is not overdone.

The club officers are: President, Mrs. J. M. Upton; vice-president, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan; secretary, Mrs. M. C. Horton; treasurer, Mrs. Robert E. Browning; executive committee, Mesdames Maloney, Lafon and Ingram."

Mrs. E. C. Drews entertained the B. Y. P. U. at her home in South Marshfield last night. Readings given by Mrs. Kelley and Rev. Hall were appreciated by all. There were about 30 present. Games were played and a delightful time enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie A. Montgomery, formerly principal of the Marshfield high school, is planning to leave this fall on a European trip and will probably spend the winter in Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ekblad and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ness leave tomorrow for an extended outing, fishing and hunting trip in the vicinity of Golden and Silver Falls. J. W. Hildenbrand and family will leave later in the week to join them in camp.

A basket social was given by the Young People of the North Bend Presbyterian church last evening. The following program was rendered:

Piano solo—Miss Mildred Rood. Trombone solo—C. H. Worrell. Mrs. C. H. Worrell, accompanist. Vocal solo—Ellen Anderson. Reading—Grace Fulton. Vocal solo—Edith Algers. Trio—Edith Algers, Allen Anderson, Helen Mende.

A short talk was given by Rev. MacLeod after which they adjourned to the class room where the baskets were sold. Over $30 was taken in.
