GEO THOMASON, formerly a resident of Marshfield but now located near Salem, arrived here last night to visit friends and relatives. He may decide to return to the Bay.

HARLEY REYNOLDS, who was formerly located on the Bay out who has been at Portland for the last couple of years, is visiting friends in Marshfield.

W. W. GREENWOOD and wife of Seattle are guests at the home of their niece, Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, in West Marshfield. Mr. Greenwood is interested in a large pipe factory on Puget Sound. This is his first visit to Coos Bay and he is much enthused over it.

W. C. BRADLEY, who has been spending a few days on the Bay on business and pleasure, will return to Portland tomorrow. Mrs. Border, mother of Mrs. L. W. Traver, who has been ill at the Traver home for some time, is reported to be in a rather critical condition.

DETECTIVE TICHENOR of the Portland police department passed through here yesterday en route to Curry county. Whether he was on an outing trip or on police business was not learned. He is a brother of Frank B. Tichenor and the old family home is at Port Orford.

MAX TIMMERMAN and wife and children and Mr. and Mrs. Barzee returned yesterday from a couple of months camping trip through Central Oregon and the Klamath Falls section. They were very glad to get home, having encountered considerable hot weather, the mercury reaching 117 at one point they visited.

MRS. GEO PRITZ of Crockett, Cal., came up with Mrs. P. Peralta to visit at the J. O. Langworthy home. Through an error yesterday, it was stated that Mrs. Peralta was accompanied by her baby. Mr. and Mrs. Peralta lost their only child sometime ago. Mrs. Peralta and Mrs. Pritz will leave in a day or two for the Langworthy camp near Dora where they will spend a week.

CALEDONIANS TO HAVE PICNIC

Coos Bay's Scotch Society Will Hold Its Annual Outing August 27.

The members of the Caledonia club, composed of all of the prominent Scotch people of Coos Bay, are making arrangements for their annual picnic which will be held at Charleston Bay Sunday, August 27. Last year the Scotch people got together and held a big picnic to which many others were invited. It was such a success that it was decided to make the affair an annual event and this is the second picnic.

The affair is a public one and everybody is invited to attend. Provisions have been made for steamers and launches to leave Marshfield Sunday morning, August 27, at 8 o'clock. At Charleston there will be speeches by Dan McDonald of Marshfield and others and besides there will be races and games and a bag-pipe competition and many other amusements. A clam bake, Scotch dances and a platform dance will be features of the picnic.

after which they will visit in town for a few weeks.

GOOD ADVICE FOR MARSHFIELD PEOPLE

People in Marshfield who have constipation, sour stomach or gas on the stomach, should use simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler's-ka, the new German appendicitis remedy. A SINGLE DOSE brings relief almost INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and drains the impurities. Lockhart & Parsons Drug Co.

LOCAL NEWS

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.) OREGON, Aug. 14.—Fair to night and Wednesday.

 Maximum 68
 Minimum 53
 At 4:00 p. m. 62
 Precipitation none
 Wind, Northwest; clear.

Kinney Better.—It is stated that Mrs. L. D. Kinney is in receipt of advices from California stating that Major Kinney who is receiving treatment at a sanitarium there, is getting along nicely.

Is Ailing.—Geo W. Tribbey, who has been visiting in Canada, writes his family that he is now at his old home in Indiana. He struck some very warm weather on his trip and says he has not been feeling well since he left here.

Very Ill.—Word has been received here that J. M. Davis, a well known Coos Bay pioneer who has been visiting relatives at Santa Anna, Cal., has been very ill. A telegram received last evening stated that he was then somewhat improved.

Thief Released.—Marshal Carter yesterday released J. Kelly, the hobo charged with the theft of a pair of shoes from the Clausen shoe store a few days ago. The shoes were recovered. Marshal Carter informed Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist but the latter did not shoe up and he finally released Kelly and gave him orders to leave the country.

Names Appraisers.—W. J. Rust, who has been chosen trustee in the Kinney matter has named Jas T. Morris, John H. Greaves and John T. Merchant as appraisers of the Kinney properties. The trust agreement provides that a valuation of at least $500,000 must be placed on the properties but they will fix the values at which the various pieces may be disposed of.

Rejoice Over Son.—Marshfield friends are in receipt of the pleasing news of the arrival of a 9-pound boy at the Salem home of Prof. and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt on Friday, August 11. Prof. Hewitt will be remembered as principal of the Marshfield schools last year and the many friends of himself and Mrs. Hewitt will hasten to extend congratulations.

Sent to Coquille.—Martin Brown or Huxmann of Allegany, who was ordered committed to the state hospital, was taken to the county jail at Coquille yesterday by Mr. Richardson who was specially deputized for the trip. Constable W. B. Cox says that as near as he could ascertain the man's right name is Huxmann instead of Huxson as some of the officers understood.

Big Potato Vine.—Billy Smith yesterday brought to the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce one of the largest potato vines ever seen in this section. The vine measures over sixty-one inches in length. It is not all tops either as a number of spuds remaining fast to the roots attest. The vine is one of a number of large ones that Mr. Smith had on a small patch of potatoes near his house on North Second street.

Names His Farm.—Prof. A. G. Raab has christened his farm home "Fairmount" which he has had registered, the number of his certificate was "2" indicating that it was the second Coos county farm to be named under the new state law. Because of their delay in registering some Coos county farmers will be unable to retain their old names as the state will not permit two farms to have the same name and the first one registered is entitled to the right.

Cannery Running.—H. G. Ploeger came over from Myrtle Point today on a little business trip and will attend Masonic meeting this evening. He reports the new Myrtle Point cannery busy and employing 18 to 24 persons. He brought along a few samples of the vegetables produced as proof of the enterprise of its citi-

CHARLEY LEE BURIED HERE

Veteran Traveling Man to Be Interred Here as Per His Final Request.

Charley Lee, the veteran Coos Bay traveling man who died yesterday at Mercy hospital, will be buried on Coos Bay as he desired. Last evening, W. R. Haines received a message from Mr. Lee's mother, Mrs. L. K. Lee of Fairbury, Neb., in which she stated "bury body there as he requested."

The body is now at Wilson's parlors and tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the funeral cortege will leave there for the cemetery where the only services will be conducted by Rev. J. T. M. Knox. The funeral will be under the direction of friends of the deceased.

W. R. Haines has arranged to send all of the personal effects, watch, jewelry, grips and trunks to Mr. Lee's mother at Fairbury, Neb.

zons and the excellence of its products.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up a number of matters.

Dinner Party.—Mrs. E. F. Morrissey entertained a small party of friends at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Senator and Mrs. Brownlee of Oklahoma who are summer guests at the A. T. Haines' home.

Farewell Reception.—The members of the Marshfield Catholic church are arranging for an informal farewell reception to Rev. Father J. A. Moran following the evening services this evening. He will leave tomorrow for Eugene.

Broke Hand.—Earl Henderson who fought the draw with Roughhouse Charley Burns here Saturday night states that he broke his right hand in the fourth round and this accounted for the apparent lack of steam in his blows through the balance of the fight. Aside from this, he says he suffered no ill effects whatever from the bout.
