Be Sure of Your Medicines

Good medicine is often more necessary than good food. When you are strong and well, a little poor food may not do you any harm—but when you are weak and sick a spoonful of poor medicine can do irreparable injury. You will find it safest to always "depend on this store" for all the medicines you require—no matter whether you buy standard preparations or if it is a doctor's prescription you want filled. The Busy Corner is equipped to supply you with the very best quality at the very lowest prices—and both are important considerations in buying medicines.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, Aug. 18.—Fair to night and Saturday.

Case Tried.—The trial of the case of G. W. Stewart vs. Fourier Brothers of North Bend was concluded in Justice Pennock's court this morning. Stewart is suing for about $25 and Fourier Brothers have introduced claims aggregating about $39 to offset it.

Go Hunting.—Wm. Cox, Geo. W. Childs, B. F. Willey and Leonard Mauzey constituted a party of Marshfield men who left today for the Pistol River country in Curry county in search of big game. The Randolph was chartered to take them down the coast.

Small Fires.—A brush fire up Isthmus Inlet last night lit up the sky and caused many to fear lest quite a conflagration had started. So far as could be learned today, no damage has been done. A small brush fire started on the peninsula back of Ferndale a couple of days ago but did no damage.

Find Flags.—Marshal Carter today located the seven flags that were torn from the street decorations. Five local youths have admitted the offense and promised to replace them in as good shape as before they were torn down. Whether they will be prosecuted had not been determined this afternoon.

Arrived Safely.—Supt. W. F. Miller late yesterday received a telegram announcing that the Breakwater had reached Astoria safely at 10:40 yesterday morning. She had a good trip up. Unless there is further unexpected delays, the Breakwater will sail on her regular schedule from Portland for Coos Bay tomorrow.

On Vacation.—Cell Ireland will leave tomorrow for Ollalla where he will spend the greater portion of a month's vacation. Ollalla is his old home and he has just received word that harvest is in full swing and he expects to be able to show the boys of the "tickle grass country" that he can still pitch bundles with the best of them.

Leave Today.—Owing to the large number desiring to go out via Allegany and Drain, Capt. Edwards last night had Tom Goodale ship his machine to Allegany, making the third auto on the line. Five left from Allegany and among those leaving from here were D. Vance, E. M. Ward, C. H. Gram, S. B. Stoy, R. B. Barkhouse, F. A. Collins and C. W. Lindberger.

Long Auto Trip.—According to a paper published at Prineville, Ore., a Nebraska autoist should have reached Marshfield this week after a rather strenuous trip. He was in Prineville last week and claimed he was coming from Grand Island, Neb., to Coos Bay by auto on a wager that he could make it in twenty days. He claimed that he had seven days in which to make the run from Prineville here. However, no one has seen him here yet.

For sale, FINE PIANO on easy terms. Will EXCHANGE for cheap lots. TODD, Hotel Oregon, North Bend.

JOHN KIERNAN of Green Bay, Wis., who is interested in the Reynolds Development company which purchased the Oregon Coal and Navigation company's holdings on the Bay, arrived here yesterday to look after business interests. While he has nothing to give out just now, he is feeling more enthusiastic than ever over this section. Jay Lawyer, another member of the company, will be here from Spokane in a day or two.

F. B. WAITE of Roseburg arrived here last evening via Myrtle Point to look after business interests on the Bay. He has just returned from an extended eastern trip with Mrs. Waite and their daughters. He is enthusiastic over the prospects of Coos Bay coming into its own, he having been one of the most ardent believers in its future from the time he first visited here a number of years ago.

WALTER LAWHORNE, who returned yesterday with H. A. Wells and wife and Frank Denning and wife from the "big hunt" in Curry county, left this morning for their home at Fairview. All members of the party are regaling their friends with stories of the big doings and the number of deer killed now is only limited by the limit fixed by the state law. If they had not been afraid of infringing on the state law or overloading the famous mule, "Rastus" coming home, they would have had venison enough for the entire population.
